

SCHEDULE 1

Scope and interpretation

20.2.—(1) This Part applies to—

- (a) a counterclaim by a defendant against the claimant or against the claimant and some other person;
- (b) an additional claim by a defendant against any person (whether or not already a party) for contribution or indemnity or some other remedy; and
- (c) where an additional claim has been made against a person who is not already a party, any additional claim made by that person against any other person (whether or not already a party).

(2) In these Rules—

- (a) “additional claim” means any claim other than the claim by the claimant against the defendant; and
- (b) unless the context requires otherwise, references to a claimant or defendant include a party bringing or defending an additional claim.
