The Northern Ireland Act 1998 (Devolution of Policing and Justice Functions) Order 2010

PART 1

Introductory

Title and commencement

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (Devolution of Policing and Justice Functions) Order 2010.

(2) This Order shall come into force on the day on which the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (Amendment of Schedule 3) Order 2010(1) (which devolves to the Northern Ireland Assembly legislative power in relation to policing and justice matters) comes into force.

Extent

2.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), an amendment or repeal contained in this Order has the same extent as the enactment or instrument or relevant part of the enactment or instrument to which the amendment or repeal relates.

(2) Nothing in this Order extends to a territory outside the United Kingdom.

Definitions

3. In this Order—

“the Department of Justice” means the Department of Justice in Northern Ireland;

“instrument” includes (in particular) Royal Charters, Orders in Council, Letters Patent, judgments, decrees, orders, rules, regulations, schemes, bye-laws, awards, licences, codes, guidance, authorisations, consents, approvals, contracts and other agreements, memoranda and articles of association, warrants, certificates, deeds and other documents;

“property” includes rights and interests of any description;

“records” includes written records and records conveying information by any other means;

“relevant function” means—

(a) a function transferred by article 4(1), 15(1) to (4) or 17(2), or

(b) a function transferred by or by virtue of any provision of Schedules 2 to 19, and the cases covered by paragraphs (a) and (b) include (in particular) cases where the function transferred was part of a larger function (for example, where a function that is exercisable in relation to England and Wales and Northern Ireland is transferred so far as it is exercisable in relation to Northern Ireland);

“relevant property or liability” means any property or liability transferred by article 18;
“transferor” and “transferee”, in relation to a relevant function or any relevant property or liability, mean respectively—

- (a) the person from whom the function or property or liability is transferred, and
- (b) the person to whom the function or property or liability is transferred.

- (h) paragraph 4 of Schedule 12 (which makes provision in relation to regulations about explosives etc).

Transfers of property etc

18.—(1) Paragraph (2) applies in relation to a function which—

- (a) is a relevant function being transferred to the Department of Justice or the Minister in charge of that Department,
- (b) is a function which, by virtue of the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (Amendment of Schedule 3) Order 2010, becomes exercisable on Her Majesty's behalf under section 23(2) of the Northern Ireland Act 1998⁽³⁰⁾, or
- (c) is a function being transferred to the Department of Justice or the Minister in charge of that Department by or by virtue of the Northern Ireland Court Service (Abolition and Transfer of Functions) Order (Northern Ireland) 2010.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4), all property and liabilities to which a Minister of the Crown or a government department is entitled or subject immediately before the coming into force of this Order are transferred to the Department of Justice so far as relating to the function.

(3) All property and liabilities to which a Minister of the Crown or a government department is entitled or subject immediately before the coming into force of this Order in relation to the premises known as the Royal Courts of Justice, Chichester Street, Belfast BT1 3JY, are transferred to the Department of Justice.

(4) All property and liabilities to which a Minister of the Crown or a government department is entitled or subject immediately before the coming into force of this Order are transferred to the Director of Public Prosecutions for Northern Ireland so far as relating to the premises listed in Schedule 20 or the contents of those premises.

(5) Nothing in this article transfers—

⁽³⁰⁾ 1998 c. 47.

- (a) any property or liabilities so far as relating to land outside Northern Ireland or the contents of such land;
 - (b) any property or liabilities so far as relating to any premises listed in Schedule 21 or the contents of those premises;
 - (c) any property or liabilities so far as relating to records (apart from records held by the Northern Ireland Court Service immediately before its abolition);
 - (d) any property or liabilities so far as relating to a person's employment in the civil service of the State.
- (6) The Department of Justice must make arrangements appearing to it to correspond to any arrangements in place immediately before the coming into force of this Order under which the Crown Solicitor and the staff of the Crown Solicitor's Office occupy parts of the premises mentioned in paragraph (3).
- (7) In particular, the arrangements—
- (a) must provide for the Crown Solicitor and staff to continue to be able to occupy those parts of the premises;
 - (b) may provide for the Crown Solicitor to pay to the Department of Justice amounts akin to a commercial rent and contributions to the costs of running the premises.
- (8) Paragraph (6) ceases to have effect on 12 April 2012 and is subject to any other agreement made between the Department of Justice and the Crown Solicitor.
- (9) In this article "government department" means—
- (a) a department of the Government of the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) the Northern Ireland Court Service (before its abolition).
- 19.—(1) Persons who are members of the Northern Ireland Court Service immediately before its abolition are transferred to the Northern Ireland Civil Service to be employed in the Department of Justice.
- (2) Persons—
- (a) to whom this paragraph applies, and
 - (b) who are members of the Northern Ireland Civil Service holding positions in the Northern Ireland Office immediately before the coming into force of this Order,
- are transferred to be employed in the Department of Justice.
- (3) Paragraph (2) applies to a person if, after a draft of this Order was laid before Parliament but before the coming into force of this Order, the Secretary of State—
- (a) determined that the person's duties in the Northern Ireland Office related wholly or mainly to functions within article 18(1)(a) to (c), and
 - (b) notified the person in writing that the person would transfer to the Department of Justice on the coming into force of this Order.
- (4) Persons—
- (a) to whom this paragraph applies, and
 - (b) who, immediately before 12 October 2010, are civil servants (but not members of the Northern Ireland Civil Service) holding positions in the Department of Justice in accordance with arrangements made between the Secretary of State and the Department of Justice,
- transfer on that date to the Northern Ireland Civil Service to be employed in the Department of Justice.

- (5) Paragraph (4) applies to a person if—
- (a) immediately before the coming into force of this Order the person is a civil servant (but not a member of the Northern Ireland Civil Service),
 - (b) after a draft of this Order was laid before Parliament but before the coming into force of this Order, the Secretary of State determined that the person's duties as a civil servant related wholly or mainly to functions within article 18(1)(a) to (c), and
 - (c) after the coming into force of this Order but before 12 October 2010—
 - (i) the person notifies the Secretary of State and the Department of Justice in writing that the person agrees to transfer to the Northern Ireland Civil Service on 12 October 2010, and
 - (ii) the Secretary of State, with the agreement of the Department of Justice, notifies the person in writing that the person is to transfer to the Northern Ireland Civil Service on 12 October 2010.

- (6) Persons—
- (a) to whom this paragraph applies, and
 - (b) who, immediately before 12 April 2011, are civil servants (but not members of the Northern Ireland Civil Service) holding positions in the Department of Justice in accordance with arrangements made between the Secretary of State and the Department of Justice, transfer on that date to the Northern Ireland Civil Service to be employed in the Department of Justice.

- (7) Paragraph (6) applies to a person if—
- (a) immediately before the coming into force of this Order the person is a civil servant (but not a member of the Northern Ireland Civil Service),
 - (b) after a draft of this Order was laid before Parliament but before the coming into force of this Order, the Secretary of State determined that the person's duties as a civil servant related wholly or mainly to functions within article 18(1)(a) to (c), and
 - (c) after the coming into force of this Order but before 12 April 2011—
 - (i) the person notifies the Secretary of State and the Department of Justice in writing that the person agrees to transfer to the Northern Ireland Civil Service on 12 April 2011, and
 - (ii) the Secretary of State, with the agreement of the Department of Justice, notifies the person in writing that the person is to transfer to the Northern Ireland Civil Service on 12 April 2011.

- (8) Persons—
- (a) to whom this paragraph applies, and
 - (b) who, immediately before 12 April 2012, are civil servants (but not members of the Northern Ireland Civil Service) holding positions in the Department of Justice in accordance with arrangements made between the Secretary of State and the Department of Justice, transfer on that date to the Northern Ireland Civil Service to be employed in the Department of Justice.

- (9) Paragraph (8) applies to a person if—
- (a) immediately before the coming into force of this Order the person is a civil servant (but not a member of the Northern Ireland Civil Service),

- (b) after a draft of this Order was laid before Parliament but before the coming into force of this Order, the Secretary of State determined that the person's duties as a civil servant related wholly or mainly to functions within article 18(1)(a) to (c), and
- (c) after the coming into force of this Order but before 12 April 2012—
- (i) the person notifies the Secretary of State and the Department of Justice in writing that the person agrees to transfer to the Northern Ireland Civil Service on 12 April 2012, and
 - (ii) the Secretary of State, with the agreement of the Department of Justice, notifies the person in writing that the person is to transfer to the Northern Ireland Civil Service on 12 April 2012.
- (10) Paragraph (11) applies if—
- (a) in accordance with arrangements made between the Secretary of State and the Department of Justice, a person who is a civil servant (but not a member of the Northern Ireland Civil Service) is holding a position in the Department of Justice at any time after the coming into force of this Order,
 - (b) immediately before the coming into force of this Order the person was a member of the Senior Civil Service (and not the Northern Ireland Senior Civil Service), and
 - (c) after a draft of this Order was laid before Parliament but before the coming into force of this Order, the Secretary of State determined that the person's duties in the Senior Civil Service related wholly or mainly to functions within article 18(1)(a) to (c).
- (11) While the person is holding the position in the Department of Justice, the Departments (Northern Ireland) Order 1999⁽³¹⁾ has effect as if the person were a member of the Northern Ireland Senior Civil Service employed in the Department of Justice and, accordingly, the person is to be treated for the purposes of that Order as if the person were a senior officer of the Department of Justice.
- (12) Paragraph (11) ceases to have effect on 12 April 2012.
- (13) The Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006⁽³²⁾ apply to a transfer by this article whether or not the transfer would, apart from this paragraph, be a relevant transfer for the purposes of those Regulations.
- 20. Subject to article 19(13), articles 18 and 19 operate so as to transfer property and liabilities—
- (a) whether or not they would otherwise be capable of being transferred,
 - (b) without any instrument or other formality being required, and
 - (c) irrespective of any kind of requirement for consent that would otherwise apply.
- 21.—(1) The Secretary of State may give such directions extending or restricting the operation of article 18 as the Secretary of State considers appropriate for the purpose of—
- (a) making minor adjustments of any property or liabilities transferred by that article, or
 - (b) removing uncertainty as to the application of that article to any property or liabilities.
- (2) A direction under paragraph (1) may (in particular) provide for dividing or apportioning any property or liabilities between, on the one hand, a Minister of the Crown or a department of the Government of the United Kingdom and, on the other hand, the Department of Justice or the Director of Public Prosecutions for Northern Ireland.

⁽³¹⁾ S.I. 1999/283 \(N.I. 1\). A reference to the Department of Justice is inserted into Schedule 1 by section 1(3) of the Department of Justice Act (Northern Ireland) 2010 (c. 3) (N.I.).

⁽³²⁾ S.I. 2006/246.

(3) Before giving a direction under paragraph (1) the Secretary of State must consult the Department of Justice or, if the Secretary of State considers appropriate, the Director of Public Prosecutions for Northern Ireland.

(4) A certificate issued by the Secretary of State to the effect that any property or liabilities specified in the certificate were, or were not, transferred by article 18 to the Department of Justice or to the Director of Public Prosecutions for Northern Ireland is conclusive evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.

(5) But the issue of a certificate under paragraph (4) does not prevent a subsequent direction being given under paragraph (1) in relation to the property or liabilities in question.

(6) A direction may not be given under paragraph (1) after 12 April 2012.

(7) A direction under paragraph (1) operates so as to adjust, apportion, divide or otherwise affect any property or liabilities—

- (a) whether or not they would otherwise be capable of being adjusted, apportioned, divided or otherwise affected,
- (b) without any instrument or other formality being required, and
- (c) irrespective of any kind of requirement for consent that would otherwise apply.

22.—(1) The Secretary of State must give directions, as the Secretary of State considers appropriate in consequence of the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (Amendment of Schedule 3) Order 2010 (taking into account the provisions of this Order and the Northern Ireland Court Service (Abolition and Transfer of Functions) Order (Northern Ireland) 2010), setting out arrangements under which the Department of Justice may use, or otherwise have access to, existing Northern Ireland Office records.

(2) Paragraph (3) applies if—

- (a) property or liabilities in a computer system are transferred to the Department of Justice by article 18, and
- (b) on the coming into force of this Order, existing Northern Ireland Office records are held on that system.

(3) The Department of Justice is to hold the records on that system on behalf of the Northern Ireland Office, so far as required by, and in accordance with, arrangements directed by the Secretary of State.

(4) Arrangements directed under this article may (in particular) provide—

- (a) for records to be excluded from the arrangements;
- (b) for access to records to be prohibited or restricted;
- (c) for conditions to be imposed in relation to the use or accessing of records;
- (d) for records to be handed back to the Northern Ireland Office.

(5) In this article “existing Northern Ireland Office records” means any records which, immediately before the coming into force of this Order, are held by the Northern Ireland Office.

PART 3

The Northern Ireland Act 1998

Quasi-judicial decisions

23. In section 20 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998(33) (Executive Committee) after subsection (4) insert—

“(5) Subsections (3) and (4) are subject to subsection (6).

(6) Quasi-judicial decisions may be made by the Department of Justice or the Minister in charge of that Department without recourse to the Executive Committee.”

Royal prerogative of mercy

24.—(1) Amend section 23 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (prerogative and executive powers) as follows.

(2) In subsection (2) for “subsection (3)” substitute “subsections (2A) and (3)”.

(3) After subsection (2) insert—

“(2A) So far as the Royal prerogative of mercy is exercisable on Her Majesty’s behalf under subsection (2), it is exercisable only by the Minister in charge of the Department of Justice.”

25.—(1) This article applies if—

(a) before the coming into force of this Order the Secretary of State recommended, or refused to recommend, the exercise of the Royal prerogative of mercy in any case, and

(b) by virtue of the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (Amendment of Schedule 3) Order 2010 the Royal prerogative of mercy becomes exercisable on Her Majesty’s behalf under section 23(2) of the Northern Ireland Act 1998 in that case.

(2) If the Secretary of State made a recommendation, Her Majesty may act on the recommendation despite section 23(2).

(3) If the Secretary of State refused to make a recommendation, the refusal is to be treated as if it were a refusal by the Minister in charge of the Department of Justice to exercise the Royal prerogative of mercy on Her Majesty’s behalf under section 23(2); and any legal proceedings in relation to the refusal are to be brought or continued accordingly.

Amendment of paragraph 11A of Schedule 2 to the Northern Ireland Act 1998 consequential on repeal of paragraph 14A of Schedule 3 to that Act

26. In paragraph 11A of Schedule 2 to the Northern Ireland Act 1998(34) (excepted matters: the Supreme Court) at the end insert “, but not rights of appeal to the Supreme Court or legal aid for appeals to the Supreme Court”.

Repeals of earlier amendments of Schedule 3 to the Northern Ireland Act 1998

27.—(1) Paragraph 24(4) of Schedule 6 to the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 2000(35) (which amended paragraph 11 of Schedule 3 to the Northern Ireland Act 1998) is omitted.

(33) 1998 c. 47. Section 20 was amended by section 5 of the Northern Ireland (St Andrews Agreement) Act 2006 (c. 53).

(34) 1998 c. 47. Paragraph 11A was inserted by section 58 of the Constitutional Reform Act 2005 (c. 4).

(35) 2000 c. 32.

- (2) The following provisions of the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2002⁽³⁶⁾ are omitted—
- (a) section 83 (which inserted paragraphs 9(h), 9A and 15A into Schedule 3 to the 1998 Act);
 - (b) paragraph 65(3) of Schedule 12 (which amended paragraph 9 of Schedule 3 to the 1998 Act).
- (3) Section 58(3) of the Constitutional Reform Act 2005⁽³⁷⁾ (which inserted paragraph 14A into Schedule 3 to the 1998 Act) is omitted.
- (4) Paragraph 13(3) of Schedule 4 to the Northern Ireland (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2006⁽³⁸⁾ (which inserted paragraph 11A into Schedule 3 to the 1998 Act) is omitted.

PART 4

General transitional provision

28. This Order does not affect the validity of anything done before the coming into force of this Order.

29.—(1) Paragraphs (2) and (3) apply in relation to a relevant function or any relevant property or liability.

(2) Anything (including legal proceedings) which, at the coming into force of this Order, is in the process of being done by or in relation to the transferor may, so far as it relates to the relevant function or relevant property or liability, be continued by or in relation to the transferee.

(3) Anything done (or having effect as if done) by or in relation to the transferor for the purposes of or in connection with the relevant function or relevant property or liability shall have effect as if done by or in relation to the transferee so far as necessary or expedient for continuing its effect after the coming into force of this Order.

(4) Where the thing done (or having effect as if done) by the transferor is the exercise of a relevant function by statutory instrument, paragraph (3) applies in relation to the exercise of the relevant function even though the relevant function is not exercisable by the transferee by statutory instrument.

(5) Documents or forms printed for use in connection with a relevant function may be used in connection with the function even though they contain, or are to be construed as containing, references to the transferor; and for the purposes of the use of any such documents or forms after the coming into force of this Order, those references are to be read as references to the transferee.

30. Any enactment or instrument passed or made before the coming into force of this Order shall have effect, so far as necessary or expedient in consequence of or for giving full effect to—

- (a) the transfer of a relevant function or any relevant property or liability, or
- (b) article 28 or 29,

as if any references (including references which are to be construed as such references) to the transferor were or included references to the transferee.

31.—(1) An instrument made before the coming into force of this Order is not to be subject (in whole or in part) to negative resolution (within the meaning of section 41(6) of the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954⁽³⁹⁾) despite any provision made by this Order.

⁽³⁷⁾ 2005 c. 4.

⁽³⁸⁾ 2006 c. 33.

⁽³⁹⁾ 1954 c. 33 (N.I.). Section 41(6) was amended by S.I. 1999/663.

(2) If, immediately before the coming into force of this Order, the instrument is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament, the instrument is to continue to be so subject.

Judith Simpson
Clerk of the Privy Council
