OLYMPIC GAMES AND PARALYMPIC GAMES

The Olympic Delivery Authority (Dissolution) Order 2014

Made - - - - 1st December 2014

Coming into force in accordance with article 1

The Secretary of State, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 9(1) and (2) of the London Olympic Games and Paralympic Games Act 2006(1), makes the following Order.

The Secretary of State has consulted in accordance with section 9(3) of that Act.

A draft of this instrument has been laid before Parliament and a period of 40 days beginning with the day on which it was laid has expired, during which period neither House has resolved that the instrument be not made.

Title, commencement and interpretation

- 1.—(1) The title of this Order is the Olympic Delivery Authority (Dissolution) Order 2014.
- (2) It comes into force on 2nd December 2014.
- (3) In this Order—
 - (a) “the Act” means the London Olympic Games and Paralympic Games Act 2006;
 - (b) “the Authority” means the Olympic Delivery Authority(2); and
 - (c) “the dissolution date” means 2nd December 2014.

Abolition of the Olympic Delivery Authority

- 2.—(1) The Authority is dissolved.
- (2) The Schedule, which makes consequential provision in relation to the dissolution described in paragraph (1), has effect.

Transfer of property, rights and liabilities

3. All the property, rights and liabilities to which the Authority is entitled or subject immediately before the dissolution date become on that date the property, rights and liabilities of the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport.

(1) 2006 c. 12; section 9 was modified by S.I. 2007/2129 and amended by S.I. 2010/1551.
(2) The Olympic Delivery Authority was established by section 3(1) of the Act.

Final report

4.—(1) As soon as reasonably practicable after the dissolution date, the Secretary of State must prepare a report on the exercise by the Authority of its functions during the period beginning on 1st April 2014 and ending on the dissolution date (“the final report”).

(2) The final report must be prepared in accordance with any directions given to the Authority by the Secretary of State under paragraph 18 of Schedule 1(3) to the Act which had effect during the period covered by the final report, and must specify any such directions.

(3) The Secretary of State must lay a copy of the final report before Parliament.

Final accounts

5.—(1) As soon as reasonably practicable after the dissolution date, the Secretary of State must prepare a statement of accounts of the Authority in respect of the period beginning on 1st April 2014 and ending on the dissolution date (“the final accounts”).

(2) The final accounts must be prepared in accordance with any directions given to the Authority by the Secretary of State under paragraph 18 of Schedule 1 to the Act which had effect during the period covered by the final accounts.

(3) The Secretary of State must send a copy of the final accounts to the Comptroller and Auditor General.

(4) The Comptroller and Auditor General must examine, certify and report on the final accounts, and send a copy of that report to the Secretary of State.

(5) The Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a copy of the final accounts and the report prepared by the Comptroller and Auditor General.

Supplementary provisions

6.—(1) This Order does not affect the validity of anything done by or in relation to the Authority before the dissolution date.

(2) Anything (including legal proceedings) which, immediately before the dissolution date, is in the process of being done by or in relation to the Authority may be continued, so far as it relates to anything transferred by article 3, on and after the dissolution date by or in relation to the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport.

(3) Anything done by or in relation to the Authority in connection with anything transferred by article 3 has effect on and after the dissolution date as if done by or in relation to the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport.

(4) On and after the dissolution date, so far as is necessary or appropriate for the purposes of or in consequence of anything transferred by article 3, a reference to the Authority in any document is to be treated as a reference to the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

The Olympic Delivery Authority was established by section 3(1) of the London Olympic Games and Paralympic Games Act 2006 (the Act).

This Order dissolves the Olympic Delivery Authority (the Authority) on 2nd December 2014 and provides for the transfer of its property, rights and liabilities immediately before that date to the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport (articles 2 and 3). The Schedule amends the Act in consequence of this dissolution, and makes consequential amendments to other primary and secondary legislation.

This Order also makes related provision for the preparation of the Authority’s final report (article 4), the preparation and audit of its final accounts (article 5), and a number of other supplementary provisions (article 6).

No impact assessment has been produced for this instrument, but an Explanatory Memorandum has been prepared and is available alongside the instrument on www.legislation.gov.uk.
