

Directive 2011/92/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 December 2011 on the assessment of the effects of certain public and private projects on the environment (codification) (Text with EEA relevance)

Article 12

1 The Member States and the Commission shall exchange information on the experience gained in applying this Directive.

[^{F12} In particular, every six years from 16 May 2017 Member States shall inform the Commission, where such data are available, of:

- a the number of projects referred to in Annexes I and II made subject to an environmental impact assessment in accordance with Articles 5 to 10;
- b the breakdown of environmental impact assessments according to the project categories set out in Annexes I and II;
- c the number of projects referred to in Annex II made subject to a determination in accordance with Article 4(2);
- d the average duration of the environmental impact assessment process;
- e general estimates on the average direct costs of environmental impact assessments, including the impact from the application of this Directive to SMEs.]

3 On the basis of that exchange of information, the Commission shall if necessary submit additional proposals to the European Parliament and to the Council, with a view to ensuring that this Directive is applied in a sufficiently coordinated manner.
