Social Security Pensions (Northern Ireland) Order 1975

PART V

OCCUPATIONAL PENSIONS

Other provisions

Increase of official pensions

69.—(1) Where by virtue of^{F1} section 132 of the Administration Act] a direction is given that the sums which are the additional components in the rates of long-term benefits are to be increased by a specified percentage, the Department of Finance^{F2} shall by order provide that the annual rate of an official pension may, if a qualifying condition is satisfied or the pension is a^{F3} derivative or substituted pension or a relevant injury pension], be increased in respect of any period beginning on or after the date on which the direction takes effect—

- (a) if the pension began before the beginning of the base period for that direction, by the same percentage as that specified in the direction;
- (b) if the pension began during the base period, by that percentage multiplied by A/B where A is the number of complete months in the period between the beginning of the pension and the end of the base period and B is the number of complete months in the base period.

(2) Where an order is made under this Article in consequence of any such direction as aforesaid the order shall, in addition to the provision required by paragraph (1), authorise the payment of an increase in respect of any lump sum that becomes payable during the base period for that direction, being an increase equal to the percentage specified in the direction multiplied by A/B where—

- (a) A is the number of complete months in the period between the beginning date for the lump sum (or, if later, the date from which it was last authorised to be increased by an order under this Article) and the date on which it becomes payable; and
- (b) B is the number of complete months in that base period.

(3) In the case of the first order made under this Article in consequence of any such direction as aforesaid, paragraph (1) shall have effect as if the increase required to be authorised in the case of any pension (whether beginning before or during the base period) were an increase equal to the percentage specified in the direction multiplied by A/B where—

- (a) A is the number of complete months in the period between the beginning of the pension (or, if later, the date from which it was last authorised to be increased by an order under section 2 of the Pensions (Increase) Act (Northern Ireland) 1971 (“the Act of 1971”)) and the end of the base period for that direction; and
- (b) B is the number of complete months in that base period.

(4) In the case of the first order so made under this Article, paragraph (2) shall have effect as if—
