
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

1979 No. 1575

Administration of Estates (Northern Ireland) Order 1979

PART III

POWERS AND PROCEDURE OF COURTS

Powers of High Court preliminary or incidental to grants of probate or administration

Production of instruments purporting to be testamentary

15. The High Court may, whether or not any legal proceeding is pending with respect to the administration of the estate of a deceased person, require (by order or otherwise) any person to lodge in the Probate and Matrimonial Office any paper or writing, being or purporting to be testamentary, which may be shown to be in his possession or under his control.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Administration of Estates (Northern Ireland) Order 1979, Section 15.