Making of county court rules

47.—(1) For the purposes of or in relation to any jurisdiction exercisable by county courts, any such rules as are referred to in section 21(1) and (2) of the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954 or Article 48 may—

- (a) be made by the Rules Committee in accordance with Article 46 and the following provisions of this Article; and
- (b) be known as “county court rules”.

[^{F3}(1A) For the purposes of this Article, “relevant authority” means—

- (a) in relation to county court rules which deal (or would deal) with an excepted matter, the Lord Chancellor; and
- (b) otherwise, the Department of Justice;

and for the purposes of this paragraph “deal with” and “excepted matter” have the same meanings as in the Northern Ireland Act 1998.]

[^{F4}(2) County court rules must be certified under the hand of the members of the Rule Committee, or any three or more of them.

(3) After making and certifying county court rules the Rules Committee must submit them to the [^{F5}relevant authority].

(4) The [^{F5}relevant authority] must, after consultation with the Lord Chief Justice, allow or disallow county court rules submitted to [^{F6}it].

(5) County court rules have effect only if the [^{F5}relevant authority] allows them.

(6) If the [^{F5}relevant authority] disallows county court rules, the [^{F5}relevant authority] must give the Rules Committee written reasons why [^{F7}it] has disallowed them.

(7) County court rules allowed by the [^{F5}relevant authority] shall come into operation on such day as the [^{F5}relevant authority] shall direct.

(8) Paragraph (9) applies if the [^{F5}relevant authority] gives the Rules Committee written notice that [^{F8}it] thinks it is expedient for county court rules to include provision that would achieve a purpose specified in the notice.

(9) The Rules Committee must make such county court rules as it considers necessary to achieve the specified purpose.

(10) Those rules must be—

- (a) made within a reasonable period after the [^{F5}relevant authority] gives notice under paragraph (8);
- (b) made in accordance with this Article.]

[^{F9}Control of county court rules

47A.—(1) County court rules that are required under Article 47 to be submitted to the Lord Chancellor are subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament in the same manner as a statutory instrument and section 5 of the Statutory Instruments Act 1946 applies accordingly.

(2) County court rules that are required under Article 47 to be submitted to the Department of Justice are subject to negative resolution.]

- F9 Art. 47A inserted (13.5.2014) by Northern Ireland (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2014 (c. 13), s. 28(4), Sch. para. 3

Powers of Rules Committee

48. Without prejudice to the generality of section 21 of the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954, the Rules Committee may, notwithstanding anything in any statutory provision, make county court rules with respect—

- (a) to all matters of procedure or practice, or matters relating to or concerning the effect or operation in law of any procedure or practice, in any civil proceedings within the jurisdiction of county courts as to which rules of court have been or might lawfully be made for proceedings within the cognizance of the High Court;
- (b) without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (a)—
 - (i) to prescribing the circumstances in which civil proceedings may be transferred from one court to another, and the procedure preliminary to and consequent upon such transfer;
 - (ii) to authorising any civil actions in which the defendant fails to appear at the hearing or admits the claim to be heard and determined by the prescribed officer or by a circuit registrar;
 - (iii) to authorising a decree to be obtained through the Office in any action in which, if it had been brought in the High Court, the plaintiff could have obtained judgment by default;
 - (iv) to providing that in such cases or classes of case as may be prescribed the costs are to be in the discretion of the judge;
- (c) to regulating matters of practice, procedure and costs in cases within the appellate jurisdiction of county courts;

Status: Point in time view as at 31/12/2020.

Changes to legislation: County Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1980, (iii) is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 September 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) to regulating or providing for any matter which immediately before 1st April 1960 was regulated or provided for or authorised by any statutory provision to be regulated or provided for by county court rules or county court orders;
- (e) to the amendment or repeal of any statutory provision relating to or affecting practice or procedure in the county court.
- [^{F10}(f) the service of process outside Northern Ireland, and the conditions subject to which process may be so served.]

F10 1982 c. 27

Application of High Court practice

49. In any case not expressly provided for by or under this Order the practice and procedure of the High Court in like matters shall be followed by a county court with such modifications as the judge may in any particular case permit or direct.

Right of audience

- 50.—(1) In any proceedings in a county court the right of audience shall extend only to—
- (a) any party to the proceedings;
 - (b) a barrister-at-law retained by or on behalf of any party;
 - (c) a solicitor acting generally in the proceedings for a party thereto, or a solicitor employed by one so acting, but not a solicitor retained as an advocate by a solicitor so acting;
 - (d) any other person (including another solicitor) allowed by leave of the court in special circumstances to appear instead or on behalf of any party.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall be construed subject to Article 5 of the European Communities (Services of Lawyers) Order 1978 ^{F11}[^{F12}, as it has effect by virtue of regulation 5 of the Services of Lawyers and Lawyer’s Practice (Revocation etc.) (EU Exit) Regulations 2020].

Powers as respects solicitors

51. A county court shall have the like power to enforce an undertaking given by a solicitor in relation to any proceedings in that court as the High Court has to enforce an undertaking so given in relation to any proceedings in the High Court.

Art. 52 rep. by SR 1982/192

Interpreters and shorthand-writers

53.—(1) Where a judge is satisfied that the services of an interpreter or a shorthand-writer are necessary or expedient for the doing of justice between the parties to any proceedings before him, he may, subject to directions given by the Lord Chancellor, appoint as interpreter or as shorthand-writer in those proceedings any person appearing to him to be properly qualified.

(2) The remuneration and expenses of any person appointed as aforesaid shall be in accordance with such scale as may be fixed by the Lord Chancellor with the approval of the Minister for the Civil Service.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Art. 53: functions of Treasury or Minister for the Civil Service transferred to Department of Finance and Personnel (12.4.2010) by Northern Ireland Act 1998 (Devolution of Policing and Justice Functions) Order 2010 (S.I. 2010/976), arts. 1(2), 15(4)(c) (with arts. 15(6), 28-31); S.I. 2010/977, art. 1(2)

Contempt of Court, etc.

Refusal to appear, be sworn or give evidence

54.—(1) Any person summoned in accordance with county court rules as a witness in a civil action or matter in a county court to whom at the time of the service of the summons there is paid or tendered such sum as may be prescribed in respect of his expenses (including in such cases as may be prescribed compensation for loss of time)—

- (a) who refuses or neglects without sufficient cause to appear or to produce any documents required by the summons to be produced; or
- (b) refuses to be sworn or give evidence;

shall be guilty of a contempt of the court.

(2) Any person present in court who being required to give evidence refuses to be sworn or give evidence shall be guilty of a contempt of the court.

(3) A person guilty of contempt of court under this Article shall, without prejudice to paragraph (4), be liable to the penalties provided by Article 55(2).

(4) The judge imposing a fine for any contempt under this Article may, notwithstanding anything in any statutory provision, order the whole or part of the amount thereof to be applied towards indemnifying the party injured by the refusal or neglect.

(5) Paragraphs (1) to (4) shall apply to a debtor summoned under [^{F13} Article 108 of the Judgments Enforcement (Northern Ireland) Order 1981] in like manner as they apply to a person summoned as a witness.

(6) Paragraphs (1) to (3) shall, in like manner as they apply to a person summoned as a witness in a civil action, apply to a person summoned in accordance with county court rules as a witness in proceedings in the county court consequent on an appeal to it under [^{F14} Article 140, 141 or 142 of the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981] and where a person is so summoned in such proceedings by the Crown shall apply with the omission in paragraph (1) of the words from “to whom” to “of time”.

(7) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Article, a county court shall in relation to witnesses in any proceedings before it have the like powers as are exercisable by the High Court in any proceedings before that court.

Contempt of court

55.—(1) If any person—

- (a) wilfully insults or acts contumaciously towards the judge of a county court, or a circuit registrar, or any witness, or any officer of the court during his sitting or attendance in court, or in going to or returning from the court; or
- (b) wilfully interrupts the proceedings of a county court or otherwise misbehaves in court;

he shall be guilty of a contempt of the court.

(2) Where by virtue of any provision of this Order a person is guilty of contempt of court, any officer of the court or constable, with or without the assistance of any other person, may by order of the judge take the offender into custody and detain him until the rising of the court, and the judge may, if he thinks fit, impose on the offender a fine^[F15] not exceeding^[F16] £2,500] in respect of every offence, and in addition or alternatively may by warrant under his hand commit the offender to prison for^[F15] a specified period] not exceeding one month.

(3) Any act which under paragraph (1) is a contempt of court shall be a contempt of court if committed during the hearing of or in relation to any proceedings heard or to be heard by a judge in chambers or a circuit registrar or by an officer (whether under county court rules or by direction of the judge) and, subject to county court rules, that paragraph shall have effect accordingly.

(4) Without prejudice to the powers conferred on county courts by ^[F17] Article 107 of the Judgments Enforcement (Northern Ireland) Order 1981] or any other statutory provision, a county court shall have the like powers and authorities as the High Court with respect to the enforcement of any decree which, if it were made in any proceedings in the High Court, could be enforced in that court by committal.
