The Road Traffic (Northern Ireland) Order 2007

PART V

DRIVING INSTRUCTION

Registration

Power to give direction as to further applications

58.—(1) This Article applies when the Registrar ^{F1}... decides—

- (a) to refuse to register a person;
- (b) to refuse an application for the extension of a person's registration; or
- (c) to terminate a person's registration,

in respect of any description of driving instruction.

(2) The Registrar may direct that any application by that person to be registered in respect of that description of driving instruction shall not be entertained before the end of such period, not exceeding 4 years beginning with the day on which the decision takes effect, as may be specified in the direction.

(3) Notice of any such direction must be included in the notice of decision in connection with which it is given.
