1992 No. 547

Local Government (Superannuation)
Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1992

PART L

INJURY ALLOWANCES, ETC.

Interpretation

L1. In this Part—

- “benefits” means any allowance or lump sum payable under this Part;
- “relevant body” has the meaning given by regulation L7; and
- “relevant employment” has the meaning given by regulation L2(2).

Persons to whom Part L applies

L2.—(1) This Part applies to a person employed in a relevant employment if he—

- (a) sustains an injury; or
- (b) contracts a disease,

as a result of anything he was required to do in carrying out his work.

(2) Relevant employment is employment otherwise than as any member of the fire brigade as defined in Article 2(2) of the Fire Services (Northern Ireland) Order 1984⁽¹⁾ or as an employee pensionable under the superannuation scheme provided in regulations for the time being in force under Article 11 of the Order or as an employee of Citybus Limited or Ulsterbus Limited—

- (a) with a body specified in Schedule 19; or
- (b) as a pensionable employee with any admitted body not specified in Schedule 19.

(3) A person is to be treated for the purposes of paragraph (1) as having sustained an injury as mentioned in that paragraph if—

- (a) he sustains the injury while travelling as a passenger by a vehicle with the express or implied permission of his employer to or from his place of work; and
- (b) at the time of the injury the vehicle was being operated, otherwise than in the course of a public transport service, by or on behalf of his employer or pursuant to arrangements made by his employer.

Loss of employment through permanent incapacity

L3.—(1) If, as a result of an incapacity which is likely to be permanent caused by the injury or disease, a person to whom this Part applies ceases to be employed in a relevant employment (whether or not it is the same employment as that in which the injury or disease was sustained or contracted) he shall be entitled to an annual allowance.

(1) S.I. 1984/1821 \(N.I. 11\)

(2) The allowance is to be paid by the relevant body and is to be of such amount as the body may from time to time determine.

(3) The relevant body may suspend or discontinue the allowance if the person becomes capable of working again.

(4) The allowance is not to be paid at a rate which exceeds 85% of the person's annual rate of remuneration in respect of the employment when he ceased to be employed.

(5) In ascertaining for the purposes of paragraph (4) a person's annual rate of remuneration in respect of the employment when he ceased to be employed—

- (a) the annual rate of any fluctuating element of his remuneration is to be estimated by reference to an average taken over a representative period;
- (b) the annual rate of any benefit in kind included in his remuneration is to be the estimated annual value of the benefit in kind at the date on which he ceased to be employed;
- (c) if at that date he had no remuneration or his remuneration was reduced because of absence from duty, the annual rate is to be taken to be the annual rate which would have applied if he had not been absent;
- (d) if at that date he was entitled to an allowance under regulation L4 by reason of a reduction in his remuneration, whether as a result of the same or of some other injury or disease, the annual rate is to be taken to be the annual rate which would have applied if his remuneration had not been reduced;
- (e) if his remuneration is retrospectively altered as a result of a pay award, the annual rate of his remuneration is to be based on the retrospective pay award; and
- (f) if his remuneration is not calculated by reference to an annual rate but by reference to some other rate, the annual rate is to be derived from the applicable rate at the date on which he ceased to be employed.

(6) In determining the amount of the allowance the relevant body is to have regard to all the circumstances of the case, including the matters specified in regulation L8.

Reduction in remuneration

L4.—(1) If as a result of the injury or disease a person to whom this Part applies suffers a reduction in his remuneration while he is employed in relevant employment (whether or not it is the same employment as that in which the injury or disease was sustained or contracted) and regulation L3 does not apply he shall be entitled to an allowance while the reduction continues.

(2) A person's remuneration is to be treated for the purposes of paragraph (1) as reduced if at any time it is lower than it would have been but for the injury or disease.

(3) The allowance is to be paid by the relevant body and is to be of such amount as the body may from time to time determine.

(4) The amount of the allowance, together with the person's remuneration in the relevant employment, is not in any year to exceed the remuneration he would have been paid if he had not sustained or contracted the injury or disease.

(5) In determining the amount of the allowance under this regulation the relevant body is to have regard to all the circumstances of the case, including the matters specified in regulation L8,

 - (c) regulation E19(4) or proviso (iv) to regulation 41 of the 1981 regulations does not apply,
- the relevant body may (if there is such a shortfall as is mentioned in paragraph (2)(a)) pay him an allowance under this regulation.

(2) An allowance under this regulation—

- (a) is not in any year to exceed the amount by which the annual rate of the retirement pension falls short of what it would have been if the amount of the allowance paid under regulation L4 during the relevant period (within the meaning of regulation E19(2)) had been part of his remuneration in the relevant employment; and
- (b) continues for such period as the relevant body may determine.

Death benefits

L6.—(1) If a person to whom this Part applies dies as a result of the injury or disease—

- (a) if he leaves a widow who qualifies under paragraph (2), she shall be entitled to an annual allowance or lump sum; and
- (b) if he leaves a dependant, the dependant shall be eligible for an annual allowance or lump sum.

(2) A widow qualifies for an annual allowance or lump sum unless—

- (a) the body by whom the person in question was employed immediately before he first qualifies for any benefit under this Part; or

- (b) if he dies without qualifying for any benefit under this Part, the body which last employed him in a relevant employment before his death; or

(2) Any question arising under paragraph (1)(c) as to the identity of the body to which the person would have been transferred shall be determined by the Department and such determination shall be final.
