(2) Where the disability premium was applicable to a claimant on 12th April 1995 by virtue of paragraph 12(1)(b) of Schedule 2 to the Income Support Regulations as in operation on that date, the disability premium shall continue to be applicable to that claimant for so long as paragraph 12(1)(b)(i) of that Schedule applies to him.

(3) Paragraph (2) shall not apply to a claimant to whom paragraph 12(1)(b)(i) of Schedule 2 to the Income Support Regulations has ceased to apply for a period of more than 56 continuous days.

Savings with respect to the Income Support Regulations

5.—(1) Where a person was not required to be available for employment on 12th April 1995 by virtue of regulation 8(2) of the Income Support Regulations as in operation on that date, that regulation shall continue to apply in that person's case as if regulation 2(3) of these Regulations had not been made.

(2) Where a claimant was not required to register for employment on 12th April 1995 by virtue of regulation 11(2) of the Income Support Regulations as in operation on that date, that regulation shall continue to apply in that claimant's case as if regulation 2(5) of these Regulations had not been made.

(3) Where a claimant appeals against a decision of an adjudication officer that he is not incapable of work, and that decision was made on or before 12th April 1995, regulations 8 and 11 of the Income Support Regulations shall apply in that claimant's case as if these Regulations had not been made.

(4) Where the higher pensioner premium was applicable to a claimant on, or at any time during the 8 weeks immediately preceding, 12th April 1995 by virtue of paragraph 12(1)(c)(i) of Schedule 2 to the Income Support Regulations as in operation on that date, paragraph 12 of that Schedule shall continue to apply in that claimant's case as if regulation 2(12)(a)(i) and (c) of these Regulations had not been made.

Transitional provisions with respect to the Disability, Working Allowance Regulations

6.—(1) Where invalidity pension was payable to the claimant for one or more of the 56 days immediately preceding the date on which the claim for disability working allowance was made or was treated as made, the payments shall be treated for the purposes of section 128(2)(a)(i) of the Contributions and Benefits Act as payments of long-term incapacity benefit.

(2) Any day on which a claimant was entitled to invalidity pension under section 33, 40 or 41 of the Contributions and Benefits Act as in operation on 12th April 1995 shall be treated for the purposes of section 128(2A)(b) of that Act as a day on which he was entitled to long-term incapacity benefit.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations amend the Income Support (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1987 and the Disability Working Allowance (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1992 and are in part consequential on the coming into operation of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) (Northern Ireland) Order 1994 (“the Order”), which replaces sickness and invalidity benefits with incapacity benefit, and provides for a new test of incapacity for work.

The Income Support (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1987 are amended to—

- (a) provide that a claimant may be entitled to income support whilst absent from Northern Ireland if he had been incapable of work for 364 days before the absence began, or 196 days in the case of a claimant who is terminally ill or who is entitled to the highest rate of the care component of disability living allowance, and they provide that this period of incapacity may be broken by gaps of up to 56 days (regulation 2(2));
- (b) provide that a claimant who has failed the incapacity for work test and is appealing against that decision is not required to be available for work or to register for employment, but that a claimant in these circumstances who has failed the “all-work” test will have the personal allowance element of his applicable amount reduced by 20 per cent. (regulation 2(3), (5) and (6));
- (c) provide that a person is exempt from the requirement to be available for work where he is incapable of work or where he fails the incapacity test solely on grounds of misconduct or similar matters (regulation 2(11)(a));
- (d) provide that a student may be entitled to income support if his applicable amount includes the disability premium or severe disability premium, or if, he has been incapable of work for 196 days, and they provide that this period of incapacity may be broken by gaps of up to 56 days (regulation 2(11)(b));
- (e) extend the qualifying period for the disability premium on grounds of incapacity for work from 28 weeks to 364 days, except for claimants who are terminally ill, and they provide that the qualifying period maybe broken by gaps of up to 56 days; they also permit the disability premium to be excluded from the applicable amount in respect of any period during which a claimant fails the incapacity test on grounds of misconduct or similar matters (regulation 2(12)); and
- (f) make additional consequential and transitional amendments, and savings (regulations 2(4) and (7) to (10), 4 and 5).

The Disability Working Allowance (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1992 are amended to—

- (a) further define training for work and to list days which are to be disregarded in establishing whether a person was engaged in a period of training for work (regulation 3(2));
- (b) provide an additional allowance in respect of a disabled child in the maximum disability working allowance (regulation 3(3) and (4)); and
- (c) make transitional arrangements consequential on the abolition of invalidity pension and the introduction of incapacity benefit (regulation 6).

Regulations 3(2) and 6 are made under section 128(2B) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 and Article 14(1) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) (Northern Ireland) Order 1994 (“the Order”) respectively and regulations 2(2), (4), (7), (8), (9), (10), (11) and (12)(a)

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(i) and (c), 4(1) to (4) and 5 are made under Article 14(1) of the Order. Article 14(1) of the Order was brought into operation on 21st November 1994 by virtue of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) (1994 Order (Commencement) Order (Northern Ireland) 1994 (S.R. 1994 No. 45 (C. 15)). These regulations are made before the end of a period of 6 month from the Commencement of the said Article 14(1), and are accordingly exempt, by virtue of section 150(5)(b) of the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992 (c. 8) (“the Administration Act”), from reference to the Social Security Advisory Committee.

Otherwise these regulations make in relation to Northern Ireland only provision corresponding to provision contained in regulations made by the Secretary of State for Social Security in relation to Great Britain and accordingly, by virtue of section 149(3) of, and paragraph 10 of Schedule 5 to, the Administration Act, are not subject to the requirement of section 149(2) of that Act for prior reference to the Social Security Advisory Committee.
