European Economic Area if he would have been so resident but for the fact that he, his spouse or his parent, guardian or any other person having parental responsibility for him, or any person having care of him when he is a child, is, or was temporarily employed outside the United Kingdom and the Islands or, as the case may be, outside the European Economic Area and paragraph 8(c) of Schedule 1 shall not apply in the case of such a person.

(4) For the purposes of these Regulations an area which—

- (a) was previously not part of the European Community or the European Economic Area, but
- (b) at any time before or after these Regulations come into operation has become part of one or other or both of those areas shall be considered to have always been part of the European Economic Area.

(5) In these Regulations a reference to an EEA migrant worker is a reference to a person who is a national of a member State of the European Economic Area who has taken up an activity as an employed person in the United Kingdom—

- (a) under Council Regulation (EEC) No. 1612/68 on freedom of movement of workers within the Community<sup>(19)</sup>, as extended by the EEA Agreement; or
- (b) in circumstances where as a national of the United Kingdom he has an enforceable Community right to be treated no less favourably than a national of another member State in relation to matters which are the subject of the above mentioned Council Regulation.

(6) In these Regulations “academic year” means the period of twelve months beginning on 1st January, 1st April, 1st July or 1st September, according as the academic year of the course in question begins in the winter, the spring, the summer or the autumn respectively, but if students are required to begin attending the course during August or September and to continue attending through the autumn the academic year of the course shall be considered to be in the autumn rather than the summer.

Revocations and transitional provisions

3.—(1) The 1998 Regulations shall be revoked on 1st September 1999.

(2) The 1998 Regulations shall apply to the making of loans to students in relation to an academic year which begins before 1st September 1999, and these Regulations shall apply in relation to the provision of support in connection with attendance at a course during an academic year which begins on or after 1st September 1999, whether anything done under either Regulations is done before or after 1st September 1999.

(3) Accordingly the revocation of the 1998 Regulations shall not affect their continued operation after 1st September 1999 for the purpose of the making of any loans thereunder as referred to in paragraph (2).

(4) If the first academic year of a course began before 1st September 1999 the requirement in regulation 6(2) that an application form be received not later than four months after the beginning of the course shall be treated as a requirement that it be received not later than sixteen months after the beginning of the course.

(5) Where the Department is satisfied that the certificate or the passport and supporting letter required to be produced by regulation 6(4) were produced by the applicant in support of an application for—

- (a) a transitional award which was made to him; or
- (b) a loan under the 1998 Regulations which he received, that requirement shall not apply.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Regulations, where—

<sup>(19)</sup> O.J. No. L257, 19.10.68, p. 2 (O.J./S.E. 1968 (II) p. 457)

- (a) a person attends a course in respect of which a transitional award was made to him; or
- (b) no award was made but a transitional award would have been made to him if he had applied for an award and his resources had not exceeded his requirements, he shall be eligible for support by way of a grant under Parts III and IV in connection with his attendance at the course, or in connection with his attendance at any subsequent course to which the award (either made or which would have been made) would have been transferred if transitional awards provided for payments after the first year of a course, but unless paragraph (7) applies he shall only be eligible for support by way of loan under Part V if he satisfies the conditions for eligibility in these Regulations.

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Regulations where any person received or was eligible to receive a loan in relation to an academic year of a course under the 1998 Regulations he shall be eligible for support by way of loan under Part V in connection with his attendance at the course, or any subsequent designated course which (disregarding any intervening vacation) he starts attending immediately after ceasing to attend that course, but unless paragraph (6) applies he shall only be eligible for support by way of grant under Parts III and IV if he satisfies the conditions for eligibility in these Regulations.

(8) If the eligibility of a person mentioned in paragraph (6) in respect of any course is transferred under regulation 7, regulation 10(9) shall apply but only where the necessary recommendation or consent to the transfer is given later than four months after the end of the first academic year of the course.

(9) Where under the 1998 Regulations a person received or was eligible to receive a loan in relation to an academic year of a part-time course of initial training for teachers he shall be eligible for support by way of loan under Part V calculated in accordance with these Regulations, except that where regulation 12(3)(b) applies regulation 18(12) shall not apply, and for the amounts referred to in regulation 18(1) and (2) there shall be substituted for the amounts in column one the corresponding amounts in column two:
