Regulation 7(2)(c) is amended to provide that, where a supersession is of a decision on disability or incapacity related benefits on grounds connected with the claimant's condition and the claimant or recipient of the benefit did not know, or could not reasonably have been expected to know, of a relevant change of circumstances which he was required to report, the effective date of the supersession is the date of the superseding decision or the date of the application for the supersession (regulation 2(2)).

Regulation 36 is amended to provide for the composition of appeal tribunals to hear appeals made under section 4 of the Vaccine Damage Payments Act 1979 (c. 17) (regulation 2(4)).
