EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision relating to widowers, civil partners and surviving civil partners.

Regulation 1 provides for the citation and commencement of the Regulations.

Regulations 2 and 4 amend, respectively, the Social Security (Graduated Retirement Benefit) (No. 2) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1978 and the Social Security (Graduated Retirement Benefit) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2005. These amendments extend to surviving civil partners the same inheritance rights that apply to widowers in respect of a deceased person's graduated retirement benefit, including any increments or lump sum in a case where the deceased had deferred his or her entitlement to that benefit.

Regulation 3 amends regulation 30 of the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1987 which makes provision for claims for a Category A or B retirement pension, shared additional pension or graduated retirement benefit to be made on behalf of a person who has died where the person had deferred entitlement to the pension or benefit. It provides that a claim can be made on behalf of a deceased person if they were not married or in a civil partnership at the time of their death. It also provides that a claim on behalf of a deceased spouse or civil partner for Category A or B retirement pension or graduated retirement benefit can be made where the widower or surviving civil partner is under pension age at the time of the death and due to reach pension age before 6th April 2010.

Regulation 5 makes consequential revocations.

These Regulations make in relation to Northern Ireland only provision corresponding to provision contained in Regulations made by the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions in relation to Great Britain and accordingly, by virtue of section 149(3) of, and paragraph 10 of Schedule 5 to, the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992, are not subject to the requirement of section 149(2) of that Act for prior reference to the Social Security Advisory Committee.
