

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

THE OCCUPATIONAL PENSIONS (REVALUATION) ORDER (NORTHERN IRELAND) 2009

S.R. 2009 No. 408

1. Introduction

- 1.1 This Explanatory Memorandum has been prepared by the Department for Social Development to accompany the Statutory Rule (details above) which is laid before the Northern Ireland Assembly.
- 1.2 The Rule is made under paragraph 2(1) of Schedule 2 to the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993 and is subject to negative resolution procedure before the Assembly.

2. Purpose

- 2.1 This Order specifies the percentage by which preserved pension rights are revalued for those who leave salary related occupational schemes early. An Order is made each year to apply to those who attain their scheme's normal pension age in the following calendar year.

3. Background

- 3.1 The Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993 provides for the preserved pension rights (excluding guaranteed minimum pensions) of those who leave their salary related occupational pension schemes early to be revalued ("the revaluation provisions"). The revaluation provisions, first introduced in the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1985, are designed to protect early leavers from the effects of inflation. The requirement applies to the rights of members who left pensionable service on or after 1 January 1986 (the date when the relevant provisions of the 1985 Order came into operation) where there is a least one year between the date of leaving and the scheme's normal pension age.
- 3.2 Under paragraph 2 of Schedule 3 to the Pension Schemes Act 1993, the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions is required to make an annual occupational pensions revaluation order to revalue the member's rights over the period since the member left the scheme taking account of changes in inflation subject to a cap of 5 per cent based on pensionable service prior to 6 April 2009 and a cap of 2.5 per cent based on pensionable service from 6 April 2009.
- 3.3 Whenever the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions makes such an order, the Department is empowered to make a corresponding order. The Department has no power to set different rates for Northern Ireland.

4. Consultation

4.1 There is no requirement to consult on this Order.

5. Equality Impact

5.1 In accordance with its duty under section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998, the Department has conducted a screening exercise on the legislative proposals for this Order and, as they merely discharge the Department's statutory duty to specify revaluation percentages and do not alter policy, has concluded that they do not have significant implications for equality of opportunity. In light of this, the Department considers that an Equality Impact Assessment is not necessary.

6. Regulatory Impact

6.1 This Order does not require a Regulatory Impact Assessment as it amends an existing regulatory regime by a pre-determined formula such as the rate of inflation.

7. Financial Implications

7.1 None for the Department. Occupational pension scheme funding plans already incorporate projections of inflation in respect of preserved pension liabilities and therefore no extra costs are imposed by this Order.

8. Section 24 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998

8.1 The Department has considered section 24 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998 and is satisfied that this Order—

- (a) is not incompatible with any of the Convention rights,
- (b) is not incompatible with Community law,
- (c) does not discriminate against a person or class of person on the ground of religious belief or political opinion, and
- (d) does not modify an enactment in breach of section 7 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998.

9. EU Implications

9.1 Not applicable.

10. Parity or Replicatory Measure

10.1 The corresponding Great Britain Order is the Occupational Pensions (Revaluation) Order 2009 (S.I. 2009/3267) which comes into force on 1 January 2010. Parity of timing and substance is an integral part of the maintenance of single systems of social security, child support and pensions provided for in section 87 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998.

11. Additional Information

11.1 Not applicable.
