LICENSING AND CERTIFICATION OF TRAIN DRIVERS

Requirement for licences and certificates

4.—^F13 Subject to paragraph (10) a railway undertaking must not cause or permit a person to drive a train unless that person is authorised to do so by—

- (a) a train driving licence;
- (b) a European train driving licence; or
- (c) a GB train driving licence.]

(2) Subject to paragraph (6) and (10), a railway undertaking must not cause or permit any person to drive a particular category of train, or to drive a train on particular infrastructure, unless that person is authorised to do so by a train driving certificate issued by it.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (6) and (10), a person may not drive a train unless that person is authorised to do so by—

- [^{F14}(a) a train driving licence or a European train driving licence or a GB train driving licence;]
- (b) a train driving certificate for the category of train driven and the infrastructure used.

(4) Subject to paragraph (10), a person who drives a train must have their train driving licence and their train driving certificate with them whilst driving it or otherwise be able on board the train to satisfy the Department or their inspector duly appointed under regulation 40, that they are so authorised to drive the train by the required train driving licence and train driving certificate.

(5) Subject to paragraph (10), a railway undertaking must take reasonable steps to ensure that a person they cause or permit to drive a train has their train driving licence and their train driving certificate with them whilst driving it, or are otherwise able to satisfy the requirements of paragraph (4)

(6) Subject to paragraph (7) and if a railway undertaking so decides a train driver it causes or permits to drive a train on specific infrastructure need not be authorised by their train driving certificate to drive it on that infrastructure in the following cases—

- (a) where a disturbance to railway services has occurred which requires the re-routing of the train or the maintenance of tracks, as specified by the infrastructure manager concerned;
- (b) an exceptional one-off service which uses a historical train;
- (c) an exceptional one-off freight service provided that the infrastructure manager concerned has agreed;
- (d) the delivery of, or demonstration of, a new train; or
- (e) to enable the training or the examination of the train driver.

(7) Paragraph (6) does not apply unless—

- (a) subject to regulation 41(9), another train driver, who holds a train driving licence and a train driving certificate relating to the specific infrastructure, accompanies and supervises the driver in the cab whilst the train is driven on that infrastructure; and
- (b) the infrastructure manager of the specific infrastructure is given prior notice.

(8) An infrastructure manager may not oblige a railway undertaking to make a decision under paragraph (6).

(9) A [^{F15}European train driving licence or a GB train driving licence issued] on the basis of an exemption from the medical requirements set out in Schedule 1 is not valid in Northern Ireland.

(10) Subject to regulation 41(10), a person who is training to be a train driver may drive a train without being authorised to do so by a train driving licence or a train driving certificate provided that a train driver, who is authorised by a train driving certificate relating to the category of train driven and the infrastructure used, accompanies and supervises that person in the cab whilst that person drives the train.

I10 Reg. 10 in force at 31.12.2010, see reg. 41\(5\)

Procedure for obtaining a train driving certificate

11.—(1) A railway undertaking must set up—

- (a) as part of its safety management system, its own procedures for the issue and updating of train driving certificates; and
- (b) a procedure for a person to request a review by it of a decision it has made concerning them relating to the issue, updating, suspension or withdrawal of a train driving certificate.

(2) A railway undertaking must update, without delay, a train driving certificate issued by it whenever the holder has obtained additional authorisations relating to rolling stock or infrastructure.

(3) A person who has requested a review of a decision under paragraph (1)(b) may appeal to the Department if dissatisfied with the outcome.

[^{F18}(3A) The model provisions with respect to appeals which are set out in the Deregulation (Model Appeals Provisions) Order (Northern Ireland) 1997 shall apply to an appeal under paragraph (3)]

(4) A railway undertaking must publish on its website—

- (a) the procedures referred to in paragraph (1), and
- (b) the availability of an appeal to the Department under paragraph (3), and applications or requests made to them under paragraph (1) must be made in accordance with the procedures referred to in that paragraph.

^{F19}(5)

^{F19}(6)

[^{F20}(5)] Without prejudice to the right of any person to make an application for judicial review—

- (a) a determination by the Department on an appeal brought under paragraph (3) is binding; and
- (b) it is the duty of a railway undertaking to whom a direction is given under paragraph (6) (b) to comply with and give effect to that direction.

PART 5

VALIDITY OF LICENCES AND CERTIFICATES

Validity and renewal of train driving licences

12.—(1) Subject to regulation 34 and 37 and paragraph (3), a train driving licence is valid for 10 years.

(2) The Department must not renew a train driving licence unless it is satisfied that the holder has complied with regulation 13 and passed any examinations undergone in pursuance of it and undergoes continuous training, as required by regulation 28(d), to ensure the driver's general professional knowledge is maintained.

(3) A train driving licence ceases to be valid once it is suspended or withdrawn.

Commencement Information

I12 Reg. 12 in force at 31.12.2010, see reg. 41\(5\)

Periodic checks to maintain validity of licence

13.—(1) The holder of a train driving licence [^{F21}a GB train driving licence or a European train driving licence] must pass periodic medical and psychological examinations relating to the requirements described in regulation 8(3) and (4).

(2) For the purpose of paragraph (1) periodic examinations with regard to medical requirements means examinations conducted at the minimum frequency and at other times set out in paragraph 3 of Schedule 1.

Validity of certificate

14. A train driving certificate ceases to be valid once it is suspended or withdrawn or regulation 16(2) applies

Commencement Information

I14 Reg. 14 in force at 31.12.2010, see reg. 41\(5\)

Periodic checks to maintain validity of certificate

15.—(1) The holder of a train driving certificate must undergo periodic examinations relating to the requirements described in regulation 9(1)(b) to (d).

(2) For the purpose of paragraph (1), the frequency of periodic examinations must be as determined by the railway undertaking that has issued the certificate in accordance with its safety management system, but must not be less than the minimum frequencies set out in Schedule 6.

(3) When the holder of a train driving certificate passes the examinations required by paragraph (1) the certificate must be endorsed with a statement to that effect by the railway undertaking that issued it.

Commencement Information

I15 Reg. 15 in force at 31.12.2010, see reg. 41\(5\)

Cessation of employment

16.—(1) A railway undertaking must give written notice to the Department when a train driver ceases to be employed by it as a train driver.

(2) When a person ceases to be employed as a train driver by a railway undertaking a train driving certificate issued by it in relation to that employment ceases to be valid.

(3) If a train driving certificate becomes invalid by virtue of paragraph (2), the railway undertaking that issued it must provide the train driver with—

- (a) a certified copy of it endorsed to indicate when it ceased to be valid; and
- (b) a copy of all documents providing evidence of the driver's training, qualifications, experience and professional competence relevant to train driving undergone, obtained or achieved by the driver whilst employed as a train driver by that body.

Commencement Information

I16 Reg. 16 in force at 31.12.2010, see reg. 41\(5\)

Monitoring

17.—(1) A railway undertaking must establish a system for monitoring train drivers employed by it.

(2) If the results of that monitoring call into question a train driver's competence for the job or the continuing validity of their train driving licence or train driving certificate, the railway undertaking must immediately take any necessary action which may include—

- (a) informing the Department of matters relevant to the continuing validity of the licence;
- (b) requiring that driver to undergo the relevant examinations and training referred to in regulations 8(1)(d) to (f) and 9(1)(b) to (d); and
- (c) [^{F22}suspending or withdrawing the driver's train driving certificate].

(3) A train driver who considers that [^{F23}their] state of health calls into question [^{F23}their] fitness to drive trains must immediately inform the railway undertaking by whom [^{F24}they are] employed.

(4) A railway undertaking that becomes aware that a train driver employed by it has failed to comply with regulation 13 or 15, or has failed an examination required by those regulations, or that the health of a train driver has deteriorated to a point where [^{F25}the driver's] fitness for the job is called into question, must immediately take any necessary action which may include—

- (a) informing the Department of matters relevant to the continuing validity of the [^{F26}driver's train driving] licence;
- (b) requiring that driver to undergo the relevant periodic examinations referred to in regulations 13 or 15; or
- (c) [^{F27}suspending] or [^{F27}withdrawing] of [^{F28}the driver's] train driving certificate.

(2) A railway undertaking must inform the Department when a train driver employed by it has suffered work incapacity for a period of more than three months.

[^{F29}(6) For the purposes of paragraphs (2) and (4) a train driving licence includes a European train driving licence and a GB train driving licence.]

PART 7

DELEGATION OF FUNCTIONS BY THE DEPARTMENT

Delegation of functions by the Department

20.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Department may delegate to any person the exercise of the following functions—

- (a) determining applications made under regulation 10 and issuing any associated documents;
- (b) recognising trainers and examiners under regulation 21;
- (c) establishing, keeping up to date and publishing registers of persons recognised under regulation 21; and
- (d) establishing and keeping up to date a register of train driving licences under regulation 22.

(2) If the Department delegates any such function—

- (a) the delegation does not affect the responsibility of the Department for the exercise of those functions;
- (b) the person to whom it is delegated must comply with the same requirements of these Regulations as would apply to the Department in the exercise of those functions; and
- (c) the Department must establish a system for monitoring how the function is carried out.

(3) The Department may not delegate the functions referred to in regulation 20(1)(a) to a railway undertaking except for the purposes of that body carrying out those functions in relation to persons who are employed by the body as train drivers or are applying to them to be so employed.

 - (b) designate the examiner; and
 - (c) include guidance and information about the examination in the publication it makes on its website in pursuance of regulation 10(1).
- (2) A railway undertaking must—
- (a) set or approve the specific professional knowledge examinations relevant to its rolling stock or infrastructure, as the case may be, as referred to in regulation 9(1)(c);
 - (b) designate the examiner for the examinations it sets or approves; and
 - (c) include guidance and information about the examination in the publication it makes on its website in pursuance of regulation 11(4).
- (3) Subject to paragraph (4), a person may only be designated as an examiner under paragraphs (1)(b) or (2)(b) if that person is—
- (a) a recognised examiner; or
 - (b) recognised or accredited as competent for the purpose by [^{F41}a member State] in accordance with article 20 of the Directive.
- (4) In so far as an examination set or approved under paragraph (2)(a) is for infrastructure knowledge evaluation, including evaluation of route knowledge and operating rules and procedures, the examiner must be a recognised examiner.
- (5) The Department or railway undertaking must ensure that the examinations referred to in paragraphs (1)(a) and (2)(a) which they set or approve are organised in such a way as to avoid any conflict of interest arising.
- (6) Notwithstanding paragraph (5) a railway undertaking, may designate a recognised examiner under paragraph (2)(b) who is also its employee, provided the examiner has not trained the candidate for the examination.

Independent assessment

33.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), five years after these Regulations come into force, and thereafter every five years, the Department must cause to be carried out, by an appropriately qualified and independent person, an assessment of—

- (a) the procedures for the training, skills assessment and examination of train drivers; and
- (b) the system for the issue of train driving licences and train driving certificates under these Regulations.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not require the duplication of assessment already required by and carried out under the safety management system of railway undertakings.

(3) The Department must provide the results of each assessment to the railway undertakings.

(4) The Department, or railway undertakings must give due consideration to the findings and any recommendations of the independent person and take any action reasonably appropriate to remedy any shortcomings identified.

SUSPENSION AND WITHDRAWAL OF LICENCES AND CERTIFICATES

Suspension or withdrawal of train driving licences issued by the Department

34.—(1) Without prejudice to regulation 37, if the Department considers that the holder of a train driving licence ^{F42}... no longer satisfies a condition required for the holding of it the Department must—

- (a) suspend or withdraw the licence; and
- (b) inform the holder concerned and his employer of—

- (i) the suspension or withdrawal;
- (ii) the reasons for it;
- (iii) the availability of the review procedure under regulation 18; and
- (iv) any procedure to be followed to seek reinstatement of the licence.

(2) If the Department suspends or withdraws a train driving licence the holder must surrender it to the Department.

- (3) If a safety authority [^{F43}or the Office of Rail and Road] —
- (a) informs the Department that it considers the holder of a train driving licence issued by the Department no longer satisfies a condition required for the holding of it; and
 - (b) gives the Department a reasoned request for a review of the holder’s eligibility to hold the licence, or for the licence to be suspended or withdrawn;

the Department must consider that request and, within four weeks, notify the safety authority [^{F43}or the Office of Rail and Road], as the case may be, of its decision whether to suspend or withdraw the licence or take any other action.

PART 13

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Transitional provisions

41.—(1) The registers referred to in regulations 22 and 23 must be established before 29th October 2011.

(2) These Regulations have effect on and from 29th October 2011 in relation to the driving of trains where a driver drives trains both in Northern Ireland and [^{F55}the Republic of Ireland].

(3) These Regulations have effect on 29th October 2013 in relation to the driving of trains where a train driver did not drive trains in Northern Ireland before that date.

(4) These Regulations have effect on 29th October 2018 in relation to a person to whom paragraphs (2) and (3) do not apply.

(5) Regulations 5 to 19, 21, 25 to 32, 34, 36, 39 and the schedules come into force on 31st December 2010.

(6) Where this paragraph applies, in determining a first application for a train driving licence the Department—

- (a) must take into account any train driving qualifications, experience and competencies acquired by the applicant prior to the application;
- (b) in exceptional cases may waive, in whole or in part, the requirement in regulation 8(1)(d) if it thinks it appropriate to do so provided that the validity of any train driving licence issued on the basis of such exemption is limited to Northern Ireland;
- (c) may waive, in whole or in part, the requirement in regulation 8(1)(e) and (f) if it thinks it appropriate to do so; and
- (d) may require the applicant to pass other examinations or tests, or undertake further training, if it thinks it appropriate to do so.

(7) Where this paragraph applies, in determining a first application for a train driving certificate a railway undertaking—

- (a) must take into account any train driving qualifications, experience and competencies relevant to the rolling stock and infrastructure in relation to which the certificate is sought, acquired by the applicant prior to the application;
- (b) may waive, in whole or in part, the requirement in regulation 9(1)(c) if it thinks it appropriate to do so; and
- (c) may require the applicant to pass other examinations or tests, or undertake further training, if it thinks it appropriate to do so.

(8) Paragraphs (6) and (7) apply to a first application for a train driving licence, or train driving certificate, where the applicant has driven trains in Northern Ireland before they were required to have a licence or certificate.

(9) Until 31st May 2018, the reference in regulation 4(7)(a) to “another train driver, who holds a train driving certificate relating to the specific infrastructure” includes a train driver whom the railway undertaking is satisfied has sufficient knowledge and experience of the specific infrastructure to give the necessary supervision.

(10) Until 31st May 2018, the reference in regulation 4(10) to a “train driver, who is authorised by a train driving certificate relating to the category of train driven and the infrastructure used” includes a train driver whom the relevant railway undertaking, or infrastructure manager, is satisfied has sufficient knowledge and experience of the category of train driven and infrastructure used to give the necessary supervision.

(11) From the date these Regulations come into force each railway undertaking must ensure the gradual implementation of periodic checks, corresponding to those required by regulations 13 and 15, for each train driver employed by it pending those regulations coming into effect in relation to the driver.
