17.—(1) During the period of additional paternity leave, P—

- (a) is entitled to the benefit of all of the terms and conditions of employment which would have applied if P had not been absent, and
- (b) is bound by any obligations arising under those terms and conditions, subject only to the exception in Article 112C(1)(b) of the 1996 Order⁽¹³⁾.

(2) In paragraph (1)(a), "terms and conditions of employment" has the meaning given by Article 112C(5) of the 1996 Order, and accordingly does not include terms and conditions about remuneration.

(3) For the purposes of Article 112C of the 1996 Order, only sums payable to P by way of wages or salary are to be treated as remuneration.

(4) In the case of accrual of rights under an employment-related benefit scheme within the meaning given by paragraph 7 of Schedule 5 to the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1989⁽¹⁴⁾, nothing in paragraph (1)(a) shall be taken to impose a requirement which exceeds the requirements of paragraph 5A of that Schedule.

Redundancy during additional paternity leave

18.—(1) This regulation applies where, during P’s additional paternity leave period, it is not practicable by reason of redundancy for E to continue to employ P under P’s existing contract of employment.

(2) Where there is a suitable alternative vacancy, P is entitled to be offered (before the end of P’s employment under P’s existing contract) alternative employment with E (or a successor of E), or an associated employer, under a new contract of employment which complies with paragraph (3) and takes effect immediately on the ending of P’s employment under the previous contract.

(3) The new contract of employment must be such that—

- (a) the work to be done under it is of a kind which is both suitable in relation to P and appropriate for P to do in the circumstances, and
- (b) its provisions as to the capacity and place in which P is to be employed, and as to the other terms and conditions of P’s employment, are not substantially less favourable to P than if P had continued to be employed under the previous contract.

Dismissal during additional paternity leave

19. Where P is dismissed after P’s additional paternity leave period has begun but before the time when (apart from this regulation) that period would end, the period ends at the time of the dismissal.

Early return from additional paternity leave period

20.—(1) Subject to regulation 13(1) (variation or cancellation of leave in the event of the adopter’s death), where, after P’s additional paternity leave period has begun, P intends to return to work earlier than the end of P’s additional paternity leave period, P must give E at least six weeks’ notice of the date on which P intends to return.

(2) If P attempts to return to work earlier than the end of P’s additional paternity leave period without complying with paragraph (1), E is entitled to postpone P’s return to a date such as will secure, subject to paragraph (5), that E has six weeks’ notice of P’s return.

(3) Where P complies with P’s obligations in paragraph (1), or where E has postponed P’s return in the circumstances described in paragraph (2), if P then decides to return to work—

- (a) earlier than the original return date, P must give E not less than six weeks’ notice of the date on which P now intends to return;
- (b) later than the original return date, P must give E not less than six weeks’ notice ending with the original return date.

(4) In paragraph (3) the “original return date” means the date which P notified E as the date of P’s return to work under paragraph (1) or the date to which P’s return was postponed by E under paragraph (2).

(5) In a case where P’s return to work has been postponed under paragraph (2) and P—

- (a) has been notified that P is not to return to work before the date to which P’s return was postponed, and
- (b) returns to work before that date,

E is under no contractual obligation to pay P’s remuneration until the date to which P’s return was postponed.

(6) This regulation does not apply in a case where E did not notify P of the date on which P’s additional paternity leave period would end, in accordance with—

- (a) regulation 8, if E is entitled to additional paternity leave by virtue of regulation 4; or

- (b) regulation 8 as modified by regulation 10, if P is entitled to additional paternity leave by virtue of regulation 4 as modified by regulation 10.

Right to return after additional paternity leave

21.—(1) In a case where P returns to work after a period of additional paternity leave, lasting no longer than 26 weeks, which was—

- (a) an isolated period of leave, or
- (b) the last of two or more consecutive periods of statutory leave, which did not include any period of additional maternity leave or additional adoption leave or a period of parental leave of more than four weeks,

P is entitled to return from leave to the job in which P was employed before P's absence.

(2) In a case where P returns to work after a period of additional paternity leave not falling within the description in paragraph (1)(a) or (b), P is entitled to return from leave to the job in which P was employed before P's absence, or, if it is not reasonably practicable for E to permit P to return to that job, to another job which is both suitable for P and appropriate for P to do in the circumstances.

(3) The reference in paragraphs (1) and (2) to the job in which P was employed before P's absence is a reference to the job in which P was employed—

- (a) if P's return is from an isolated period of additional paternity leave, immediately before that period began,
- (b) if P's return is from consecutive periods of statutory leave, immediately before the first such period.

(4) This regulation does not apply where regulation 18 (redundancy during additional paternity leave) applies.

Incidents of the right to return after additional paternity leave

22.—(1) P's right to return under regulation 21 is a right to return—

- (a) with P's seniority, pension rights and similar rights as they would have been if P had not been absent, and
- (b) on terms and conditions not less favourable than those which would have applied if P had not been absent.

(2) In the case of accrual of rights under an employment-related benefit scheme within the meaning given by paragraph 7 of Schedule 5 to the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1989, nothing in paragraph (1)(a) shall be taken to impose a requirement which exceeds the requirements of paragraphs 5 to 6 of that Schedule.

(3) The provisions in paragraph (1)(a) for P to be treated as if P had not been absent refer to P's absence—

- (a) if P's return is from an isolated period of additional paternity leave, since the beginning of that period,
- (b) if P's return is from consecutive periods of statutory leave, since the beginning of the first such period.

Protection from detriment

23.—(1) P is entitled under Article 70C of the 1996 Order(15) not to be subjected to any detriment by any act, or any deliberate failure to act, by E because—

- (a) P took, sought to take, or made use of the benefits of, additional paternity leave;
- (b) E believed that P was likely to take additional paternity leave;
- (c) P failed to return after a period of additional paternity leave in a case where—
 - (i) E did not notify P, in accordance with regulations 8, regulation 8 as modified by regulation 10, or otherwise, of the date on which that period ended, and P reasonably believed that the period had not ended, or
 - (ii) E gave P less than 28 days' notice of the date on which the period would end, and it was not reasonably practicable for P to return on that date;
- (d) P undertook, considered undertaking or refused to undertake work in accordance with regulation 16.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), P makes use of the benefits of additional paternity leave if, during P's additional paternity leave period, P benefits from any of the terms and conditions of P's employment preserved by Article 112C of the 1996 Order and regulation 17 during that period.

(3) Paragraph (1) does not apply where the detriment in question amounts to dismissal within the meaning of Part 11 of the 1996 Order.

Unfair dismissal

24.—(1) In a case where P is dismissed, P is entitled under Article 131 of the 1996 Order(16) to be regarded for the purpose of Part 11 of that Order as unfairly dismissed if—

- (a) the reason or principal reason for the dismissal is of a kind specified in paragraph (3), or
- (b) the reason or principal reason for the dismissal is that P is redundant and regulation 18 has not been complied with.

(2) In a case where P is dismissed, P shall also be regarded for the purposes of Part 11 of the 1996 Order as unfairly dismissed if—

- (a) the reason (or, if more than one, the principal reason) for the dismissal is that P was redundant,
- (b) it is shown that the circumstances constituting the redundancy applied equally to one or more employees in the same undertaking who had positions similar to that held by P and who have not been dismissed by E, and
- (c) it is shown that the reason (or if more than one, the principal reason) for which P was selected for dismissal was a reason of a kind specified in paragraph (3).

(3) The kinds of reason referred to in paragraph (1) and (2) are reasons connected with any of the following facts—

- (a) that P took, sought to take, or made use of, the benefits of additional paternity leave;
- (b) that E believed that P was likely to take additional paternity leave;
- (c) that P failed to return after a period of additional paternity leave in a case where—

(15) Article 70C was inserted by the Employment Relations (Northern Ireland) 1999 (S.I. 1999/2790 (N.I. 9)), Schedule 4, Part 3, paragraph 3. Further relevant amendments were made by the Employment (Northern Ireland) Order 2002, Schedule 2, paragraph 4(6) and (7) and by the Work and Families (Northern Ireland) Order 2006, Schedule 1, paragraph 29.

(16) Article 131 was substituted by the Employment Relations (Northern Ireland) Order 1999, Schedule 4, Part 3, paragraph 8, and amended by the Employment (Northern Ireland) Order 2002, Schedule 2, paragraphs 13 and 14 and by the Work and Families (Northern Ireland) Order 2006, Schedule 1, paragraph 40.

- (i) E did not notify P, in accordance with regulations 8, 8 as modified by regulation 10, or otherwise, of the date on which that period ended, and P reasonably believed that the period had not ended, or
 - (ii) that E gave P less than 28 days' notice of the date on which the period would end, and it was not reasonably practicable for P to return on that date; or
 - (d) that P undertook, considered undertaking or refused to undertake work in accordance with regulation 16.
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(a), P makes use of the benefits of additional paternity leave if, during P's additional paternity leave period, P benefits from any of the terms and conditions of P's employment preserved by Article 112C of the 1996 Order and regulation 17 during that period.
- (5) Paragraph (1) does not apply in relation to P if—
- (a) it is not reasonably practicable for a reason other than redundancy for E (who may be E or E's successor) to permit P to return to a job which is both suitable for P and appropriate for P to do in the circumstances,
 - (b) an associated employer offers P a job of that kind, and
 - (c) P accepts or unreasonably refuses that offer.
- (6) Where, on a complaint of unfair dismissal, any question arises as to whether the operation of paragraph (1) is excluded by the provisions of paragraph (5), it is for E to show that the provision in question was satisfied in relation to the complainant.

Contractual rights to additional paternity leave

25.—(1) This regulation applies where P is entitled to additional paternity leave (referred to in paragraph (2) as a “statutory right”) and also to a right which corresponds to that right and which arises under P's contract of employment or otherwise.

- (2) In a case where this regulation applies—
- (a) P may not exercise the statutory right and the corresponding right separately but may, in taking the leave for which the two rights provide, take advantage of whichever right is, in any particular respect, the more favourable, and
 - (b) the provisions of the 1996 Order and of these Regulations relating to the statutory right apply, subject to any modifications necessary to give effect to any more favourable contractual terms, to the exercise of the composite right described in sub-paragraph (a) as they apply to the exercise of the statutory right.

Calculation of a week's pay

26. Where—

- (a) under Chapter 4 of Part 1 of the 1996 Order, the amount of a week's pay of an employee falls to be calculated by reference to the average rate of remuneration, or the average amount of remuneration, payable to the employee in respect of a period of 12 weeks ending on a particular date (referred to as “the calculation date”),
- (b) during a week in that period, the employee was absent from work on additional paternity leave, and
- (c) remuneration is payable to the employee in respect of that week under the employee's contract of employment, but the amount payable is less than the amount that would be payable if the employee were working,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

that week shall be disregarded for the purpose of the calculation and account shall be taken of remuneration in earlier weeks so as to bring up to twelve the number of weeks of which account is taken.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations implement the powers in the Work and Families (Northern Ireland) Order 2006 to introduce a new entitlement for employees adopting children from overseas to take additional paternity leave in the first year after the child enters Northern Ireland. The provisions relating to additional paternity leave are incorporated by the Work and Families (Northern Ireland) Order 2006 into the Employment Rights (Northern Ireland) Order 1996 (“the 1996 Order”). S.R. 2010 No. 296 extends the application of the relevant provisions to apply to overseas adoptions.

The right to take additional paternity leave under the Regulations is conferred on spouses or partners (of either sex) of adopters, or, where a child is adopted by two people jointly, persons who have been matched with the child for adoption and who are spouses or partners (of either sex) of the adopter who has elected to take adoption leave (defined as “the adopter” for the purpose of these Regulations). Regulation 4 sets out the conditions for entitlement. Certain conditions apply to the person claiming the entitlement (“the claimant”), others to the adopter. The claimant must satisfy substantive requirements, such as continuous employment, relationship with the adopter and with the child, as well as procedural requirements such as giving appropriate notice to the claimant’s employer. The adopter must be entitled to one or more of adoption leave or Statutory Adoption Pay, and must have returned to work for the claimant’s entitlement to arise.

Regulation 5 sets out the options as to how the leave may be taken. In particular, it provides maximum and minimum length of leave which may be taken (a maximum of 26 weeks and minimum of 2 weeks), the fact that it may only be taken in multiples of complete weeks and the period after the adoption of the child within which the leave may be taken (the period beginning 20 weeks after and ending 12 months after the child’s entry in Northern Ireland).

Regulation 6 sets out the notice and evidential requirements with which the claimant must comply. These include providing information regarding the claimant and the adopter, as well as declarations from the claimant and the adopter.

Regulation 7 sets out the notice and process requirements that apply if the claimant, before taking leave, wishes to cancel the leave or vary the dates previously chosen for the additional leave period to begin and end.

Regulation 8 requires that the employer must confirm the dates of the start and end of the leave within 28 days of receiving the claimant’s notice and regulation 9 sets out when the leave commences, in the event of a single notification or multiple notifications of leave.

In circumstances where the adopter of the child has died within 12 months from the date of the child’s entry into Northern Ireland, the provisions of the Regulations apply with various modifications.

Regulation 10 sets out the provisions of the Regulations which are modified in the case of the death of the child’s adopter. The requirements which must be satisfied by the child’s adopter under regulations 4 are modified, for example the requirement that the adopter must have returned to work for the claimant’s entitlement to arise does not apply, and the adopter is deemed to satisfy the requirement of entitlement to one or more of adoption leave or Statutory Adoption Pay, if the adopter satisfied it before death or would have done, but for the death. Regulation 11 provides the options as to how the leave may be taken in the event of the adopter’s death. The claimant’s entitlement may be to a longer period of leave (up to 52 weeks), starting earlier than it would otherwise have done.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Regulation 14 deals with cases where the child dies or ceases to live with the adopter when the claimant is on leave or after the claimant has notified the claimant's intention to take additional paternity leave. In such cases, the claimant's entitlement to additional paternity leave comes to an end after a period of eight weeks, unless there are only eight weeks of leave remaining in which case the additional paternity leave period ends on the date notified by the claimant.

Regulation 15 defines when the adopter is deemed to have returned to work, which is a condition for the claimant's entitlement to arise. If the adopter was entitled to adoption leave, the relevant return date is when this leave ends. If the adopter was entitled to Statutory Adoption Pay, the relevant date is when this is no longer payable. In cases where the adopter was entitled to both adoption leave and pay, then the relevant date is when both the leave has ended and the adopter is no longer entitled to pay.

Regulations 18 and 19 deal with cases in which an employee becomes redundant or is dismissed during an additional paternity leave period. Regulation 20 deals with cases where an employee who is on leave intends to return to work before the end of additional paternity leave. Regulations 21 and 22 provide for an employee's right to return to work after taking leave, distinguishing the case where the leave was an isolated period of leave or taken with other types of statutory leave from other cases.

Regulations 23 and 24 provide that an employee entitled to additional paternity leave is protected against detriment or dismissal attributable to the fact they took or sought to take such leave. Regulation 25 governs the relationship between an employee's right to additional paternity leave under these Regulations and any corresponding leave rights arising from the employment contract. Regulation 26 deals with the calculation of a week's pay for an employee on additional paternity leave.

A regulatory impact assessment of the effect that this instrument will have on the costs of business and the voluntary sector may be obtained from the Department for Employment and Learning.
