Circumstances in which an allowance is not to be payable

27A.—(1) A jobseeker's allowance is not to be payable for the period prescribed in regulation 27B (prescribed period for the purposes of regulation 27A) if either the first or the second condition is satisfied.

(2) The first condition is satisfied if a claimant—

- (a) fails to attend on the day specified in a relevant notification;
- (b) makes contact with an employment officer in the manner set out in a relevant notification before the end of the period of 5 working days beginning with and including the first working day after the day on which he failed to attend on the day specified; and
- (c) fails to show good cause for that failure to attend.

(3) The second condition is satisfied if—

- (a) he attends on the day specified in a relevant notification, but fails to attend at the time specified in that notification;
- (b) the employment officer has informed him in writing that a failure to attend, on the next occasion on which he is required to attend, at the time specified in a relevant notification, may result in his entitlement to a jobseeker's allowance ceasing or the benefit not being payable for a period;
- (c) he fails to attend at the time specified in a relevant notification on the next occasion;
- (d) he makes contact with an employment officer in the manner set out in a relevant notification before the end of the period of 5 working days beginning with and including the first working day after the day on which he failed to attend at the time specified; and
- (e) he fails to show good cause for that failure to attend.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Section 27 of the Welfare Reform Act (Northern Ireland) 2010 amended Article 10 of the Jobseekers (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 to allow for a new sanction to be applied in certain circumstances when a jobseeker's allowance claimant fails to attend an appointment. The sanction is that, although entitlement to jobseeker's allowance will continue, the benefit will not be payable for a period of at least one week and not more than 2 weeks.

Regulation 2(3) inserts new regulations 27A and 27B into the Jobseeker's Allowance Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1996 ("the 1996 Regulations") to provide for this new sanction. New regulation 27A provides for the new sanction to be applied where a claimant:

- fails to attend an interview on the day specified, makes contact with the Social Security Office/ Jobs and Benefits Office within 5 working days but fails to show good cause for the failure to attend; or
- attends an interview on the day specified but fails to attend at the time specified and (having been warned in writing of the consequences of a subsequent failure to attend on time), then fails on a subsequent occasion to attend at the time specified, makes contact with the Social Security Office/ Jobs and Benefits Office within 5 working days of the failure to attend at the time specified but fails to show good cause for that failure.

New regulation 27B sets out the period for which jobseeker's allowance is not to be payable and prescribes when this period will begin.

Regulation 2(2) and (3) make consequential amendments to regulations 25 and 27 of the 1996 Regulations. As a result of these amendments, in future entitlement to jobseeker's allowance will end only where a claimant:

- fails to attend an interview on the day specified and fails to make contact with the Social Security Office/ Jobs and Benefits Office within 5 working days;
- attends an interview on the day specified but fails to attend at the time specified and (having been warned in writing of the consequences of a subsequent failure to attend on time), then fails on a subsequent occasion to attend at the time specified, and fails to make contact with the Social Security Office/ Jobs and Benefits Office within 5 working days of that failure; or
- fails to provide a signed declaration as required under regulation 24 and fails to make contact with the Social Security Office/ Jobs and Benefits Office and shows good cause for that failure within 5 working days.

Regulations 2(4) to (17) and 3 make consequential amendments to other provisions of the 1996 Regulations, the Social Security (Credits) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1975, the Social Security and Child Support (Decisions and Appeals) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1999, the Discretionary Financial Assistance Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2001, the Housing Benefit Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2006 and the Housing Benefit (Persons who have attained the qualifying age for state pension credit) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2006.

Regulation 4 makes consequential revocations.

In so far as these Regulations are required, for the purposes of regulation 3(4) and (5), to be referred to the Social Security Advisory Committee under section 149(2) of the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992, after agreement by the Social Security Advisory Committee, they have not been so referred by virtue of section 150(1)(b) of that Act. Otherwise they make in relation to
