EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Act of Adjournal)

Section 89 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37) inserted section 234B into the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 to empower a court to make drug treatment and testing orders in certain circumstances.

This Act of Adjournal amends the Criminal Procedure Rules 1996 by prescribing the form in which such drug treatment and testing orders are to be made.
