2000 No. 102

The Census (Scotland) Regulations 2000

Further duties of census area managers, census district managers, census team leaders and census enumerators

14.—(1) The census enumerator may, with the agreement of the census district manager or the census area manager, work in more than one enumeration district to undertake or support the work of the census enumerator appointed to that enumeration district.

(2) All officers shall maintain such records and reports as the Registrar-General instructs them to maintain, and shall use the documents issued to them under regulation 7 for that purpose.

(3) When directed to do so by the census district manager, the census enumerator shall deliver to the census district manager or to the census team leader all forms of return which he has collected and any other written record of any nature in his possession which contains personal census information and any other documents which he has been instructed to return.

(4) When directed to do so by the census district manager, the census team leader shall deliver to the census district manager all forms of return and any other written records of any nature in his possession which contains personal census information and any other documents which he is instructed to return.

(5) When directed to do so by the Registrar-General, the census district manager shall send to the Registrar-General all forms of return and other written records delivered to him by the census enumerator or census team leader and any other written record of any nature in his possession which contains any personal census information and any other documents he has been instructed to return.

(6) When directed to do so by the Registrar-General, the census area manager shall send to the Registrar-General any written record of any nature in his possession which contains any personal census information and any other documents he has been instructed to return.
