- (d) damage to, or injurious affection of, any interest in land to which the grantor is entitled which is not a relevant interest, and which results from the grant of the rights or the exercise of them; and

Basis on which compensation assessed

5.—(1) The following provisions shall have effect for the purpose of assessing the amount to be paid by way of compensation under section 78G.

(2) The rules set out in section 12⁽³⁾ of the Act (rules for assessing compensation) shall, so far as applicable and subject to any necessary modifications, have effect for the purpose of assessing any such compensation as they have effect for the purpose of assessing compensation for the compulsory acquisition of an interest in land.

(3) No account shall be taken of any enhancement of the value of any interest in land, by reason of any building erected, work done or improvement or alteration made on any land in which the grantor is, or was at the time of erection, doing or making, directly or indirectly concerned, if the Lands Tribunal for Scotland, is satisfied that the erection of the building, the doing of the work, the making of the improvement or the alteration was not reasonably necessary and was undertaken with a view to obtaining compensation or increased compensation.

(4) In calculating the amount of any loss under paragraph 4(e) above, expenditure incurred in the preparation of plans or on other similar preparatory matters shall be taken into account.

(5) Where the interest in respect of which compensation is to be assessed is subject to a standard security within the meaning of section 9 of the Conveyancing and Feudal Reform (Scotland) Act 1970⁽⁴⁾—

- (a) the compensation shall be assessed as if the interest were not subject to that security; and
- (b) no compensation shall be payable in respect of the interest of the creditor (as distinct from the interest which is subject to the security).

(6) Compensation under section 78G shall include an amount equal to the grantor's reasonable valuation and legal expenses.

Payment of compensation and determination of disputes

6.—(1) Compensation payable under section 78G in respect of an interest which is subject to a standard security shall be paid (subject to the maximum sum due thereunder) to the creditor in that security or, if there is more than one such creditor, to the first ranking creditor and shall, in either case, be applied by him as if it were proceeds of sale.

(2) Amounts of compensation determined under this Schedule shall be payable—

(2) 1947 c. 42.

(3) Section 12 was repealed in part by the Planning and Compensation Act 1991 (c. 34), Schedules 17 and 19.

(4) 1970 c. 35.

- (a) where the appropriate person and the grantor or creditor in a standard security agree that a single payment is to be made on a specified date, on that date;
 - (b) where the appropriate person and the grantor or such a creditor agree that payment is to be made in instalments at different dates, on the date agreed as regards each instalment; or
 - (c) in any other case, subject to any direction of the Land Tribunal for Scotland as soon as reasonably practicable after the amount of the compensation has been finally determined.
- (3) Any question of the application of paragraph 5(3) above or of disputed compensation shall be referred to and determined by the Lands Tribunal for Scotland.
- (4) In relation to the determination of any such question, sections 9 and 11 of the Act (procedures on reference to the Lands Tribunal and expenses) (4) shall apply as if—
- (a) the reference in section 9(1) of the Act to section 8 were a reference to sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph; and
 - (b) references in section 11 of the Act to the acquiring authority were references to the appropriate person.

Interest on compensation

7.—(1) Compensation payable under section 78G shall carry interest at the rate for the time being prescribed under section 40 of the Act from the date of the grant of the rights in respect of which compensation is claimed until payment.

(2) If it appears to any person that such person may become liable to pay to another compensation under this Schedule or interest under this paragraph that person may, if the other person requests in writing for that person to do so, make one or more payments on account of such compensation or interest.

(3) If, after a payment has been made by any person under sub-paragraph (2)—

- (a) it is agreed or determined that compensation or interest is not liable to be paid; or
- (b) by reason of any agreement or determination, any payment under that sub-paragraph is shown to be excessive, the payment or, as the case may be, excess shall be recoverable by that person.
