
SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2006 No. 88

The Additional Support Needs Tribunals for Scotland (Practice and Procedure) Rules 2006

PART VI

MISCELLANEOUS

Publication

45.—(1) The President shall make such arrangements as the President considers appropriate for the publication of Tribunal decisions.

(2) Decisions may be published electronically.

(3) A decision may be published in an edited form, or subject to any deletions, where the President or a convener considers that to be appropriate bearing in mind—

- (a) the need to safeguard the welfare and interests of the child or young person or any other person;
- (b) the need to protect the private life of any person;
- (c) any representations on the matter which any person has provided in writing to the Tribunal at any time prior to publication under the arrangements made under paragraph (1).

(4) A decision of the Tribunal shall be published in such a manner as to protect the anonymity of the child or young person.