The Prisons and Young Offenders
Institutions (Scotland) Rules 2006

PART 10

SECURITY AND CONTROL

Custody outside prison

110.—(1) A prisoner required to be taken in legal custody anywhere outside a prison shall be kept in the custody or under the control of an officer or a constable.

(2) A prisoner being taken to or from a prison shall be—

- (a) exposed to public view as little as possible; and
- (b) protected so far as reasonably practicable from insult, curiosity and publicity in any form.

(3) A prisoner who is allowed or is required to be present at any court, shall wear their own clothing or ordinary civilian clothing provided by the Governor.
