EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Act of Sederunt)

This Act of Sederunt makes amendments to the Rules of the Court of Session 1994. It restructures Chapter 23 of the Rules, which makes provision regarding motions procedure in the Court.

The Act of Sederunt inserts a new Part 1 of Chapter 23, setting out the methods for making a motion and the application of the various other Parts within the Chapter.

New rules are inserted as Part 2 of Chapter 23. These rules set out a procedure for (a) intimating and enrolling motions, (b) opposing or consenting to motions, and (c) receiving intimation of such a motion, opposition or consent, by email in certain Outer House causes. The email procedure does not extend to Outer House causes which are commenced by petition or commercial actions. Where each party to such a cause is represented by an agent, the new procedure will apply unless an agent declares to the Deputy Principal Clerk that they do not have suitable facilities for transacting motion business by email.

The Act of Sederunt also makes minor consequential amendments to the existing procedural rules in Chapter 23, which now form Parts 3 and 4 of the Chapter.

Paragraph 3 contains a savings provision in relation to motions intimated before the date on which the Act of Sederunt comes into force.
