Transitional provisions

14.—(1) Anything which prior to the appointed date would be dealt with by reference to the closing court may—

- (a) in respect of any period on or after the appointed date; and
- (b) in the interests of ensuring continuity on or after the appointed date, be dealt with prior to the appointed date, by reference to the receiving court.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality and conditions of paragraph (1), any function may be exercised in terms of that paragraph by reference to the receiving court, or as the case may be, the sheriff court district of the receiving court despite the fact that the closing court has not yet been closed, or the sheriff court district of the closing court has not yet been abolished.

(3) For the purposes of this article and without prejudice to the generality of paragraphs (1) and (2) “function” includes—

- (a) the fixing, adjournment, postponement, discharge, continuation, or deferral of any sentence, diet, calling, sitting, hearing or other court process and the extending of any period;
- (b) the citation of any witness or accused person;
- (c) ordering the production of documents;
- (d) the summoning of jurors;
- (e) the administration and management of any case, proceedings or matter.

(4) The operation of this article does not—

- (a) affect the competence of any person to continue to exercise any function by reference to the closing court or the sheriff court district of the closing court until the appointed date;
- (b) prevent, where it would be otherwise competent to do so, the overturning or variation of any action taken under this article prior to the appointed date;
- (c) permit anything to be done in the receiving court which would not have been permitted in the closing court had the closing court continued to operate on or after the appointed date;
- (d) affect any power any person has apart from this article, to provide for the receiving court to deal with any matter prior to the appointed date;
- (e) limit the operation of article 15.

15.—(1) With effect from the appointed date—

- (a) anything done in the closing court under article 14 has effect as if done in or in relation to the receiving court;
- (b) any cases, proceedings or matters instituted in the closing court, but which have not yet been completed, are to continue in the receiving court as if instituted there;
- (c) ongoing cases, proceedings or matters at the closing court are to be heard and disposed of at the receiving court as if the receiving court always had jurisdiction for such cases, proceedings or matters;
- (d) any—
 - (i) verdict, sentence (deferred or otherwise), order or other determination (interim or otherwise);
 - (ii) document, (including any indictment, complaint, petition, writ, notice, citation, warrant, interlocutor or extract), which makes reference (in whatever terms) to the closing court, a sheriff or sheriff principal of the closing court, the sheriff clerk of the closing court or the sheriff court district where the closing court is situated has effect as though that reference is a reference to the receiving court, a sheriff or sheriff principal of the receiving court, the sheriff clerk of the receiving court or the sheriff court district where the receiving court is situated (whichever is applicable);

- (e) any sentence, order, decree, interlocutor, fine, penalty, conditional offer, compensation offer or other alternative to prosecution that was enforceable in the sheriff court district where the closing court is situated is to continue to be enforceable in the sheriff court district where the receiving court is situated;
- (f) the general jury book maintained in respect of the sheriff court district in which the closing court is situated in terms of section 3 of the Jurors (Scotland) Act 1825(a) is to continue to be maintained in respect of the sheriff court district in which the receiving sheriff court is situated;
- (g) all documents held by the closing court are to be treated as held by the receiving court.

(2) The operation of this article does not affect the power or jurisdiction of the receiving court, apart from this article, to deal with any matter prior to or with effect from the appointed date.

(3) Despite the operation of this article, any document which makes reference to the closing court, may be treated as referring to the closing court, where—

- (a) it is in the interests of justice; or
- (b) the context otherwise requires.

(4) In this article—

“1988 Act” means the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988(b);

“1995 Act” means the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995(c);

(a) 1825 c.22; section 3 was amended by the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 (c.65), Schedule 27, paragraph 4, and was renumbered and relevantly amended by the Criminal Procedure (Consequential Provisions) (Scotland) Act 1995 (c.40), Schedule 4, paragraph 1.

(b) 1988 c.53; to which there are amendments not relevant to this Order.

(c) 1995 c.46; there are amendments to section 302 which are not relevant to this Order. Section 302A was added by the Criminal Proceedings etc. (Reform) (Scotland) Act 2007 (asp 6), section 50(2), there are amendments to section 302A which are not relevant to this Order.
