7. Where the agreement is terminated as mentioned in paragraph 3, 4, 5 or 6, the owner must, within 2 months of the date of the termination, repay to the occupier so much of any payment made by the occupier in pursuance of the agreement as is attributable to a period beginning after the date of termination.”.

 - (1B) The owner must allow any agent appointed by the occupier such reasonable access to the pitch as may be required for the purposes of—

- (a) a copy of the agreement;
- (b) a copy of any site rules for the protected site on which the mobile home is stationed; and
- (c) a forwarding address for the occupier.

(1D) But if the purchaser consents in writing to the documents and address being provided by a date (“the agreed date”) which is less than 28 days before the date of the sale and assignation of the agreement, the occupier must provide the documents and address to the purchaser no later than the agreed date.”; and

(d) after sub-paragraph (2) at the end insert—

“(2A) Neither the sale nor the assignation are to have any effect until the owner has received the commission mentioned in sub-paragraph (2).

(2B) Except to the extent mentioned in sub-paragraph (2), the owner may not require any payment to be made (whether to the owner or otherwise) in connection with the sale of the mobile home, and the assignation of the agreement.”.

“Gift of mobile home

9.—(1) This paragraph applies to an agreement which relates to a pitch other than a pitch on—

- (a) a local authority gypsy and traveller site; or
- (b) a registered social landlord gypsy and traveller site.

(2) Subject to sub-paragraph (5), the occupier is entitled to gift the mobile home, and to assign the agreement, to a member of the occupier’s family (the “new occupier”) without the approval of the owner.

(3) The occupier must, if requested by the owner, give the owner such evidence as the owner, acting reasonably, may require to confirm that the new occupier is a member of the occupier’s family.

(4) The new occupier must, as soon as practicable, notify the owner of the new occupier’s acceptance of the gift of the mobile home and assignation of the agreement.

(5) Neither the gift nor the assignation are to have any effect until the owner has received the evidence mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) and the notification required in sub-paragraph (4).

(6) The owner may not require any payment to be made (whether to the owner or otherwise) in connection with the gift of the mobile home, and the assignation of the agreement.

Re-siting of mobile home

10.—(1) The owner is entitled to require that the occupier’s right to station the mobile home is exercisable for any period in relation to another pitch forming part of the protected site (“the other pitch”) if (and only if)—

- (a) on the application of the owner, the court is satisfied that—
 - (i) the other pitch is broadly comparable to the occupier’s original pitch; and
 - (ii) it is reasonable for the mobile home to be stationed on the other pitch for that period; or

- (b) the owner needs to carry out essential repair or emergency works that can only be carried out if the mobile home is moved to the other pitch for that period, and the other pitch is broadly comparable to the occupier’s original pitch.
- (2) If the owner requires the occupier to station the mobile home on the pitch under sub-paragraph (1), the owner must, if the occupier so requires, secure that the mobile home is returned to the original pitch—
 - (a) where sub-paragraph (1)(a) applies, on the expiry of the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (1); or
 - (b) where sub-paragraph (1)(b) applies, on the completion of the essential repair or emergency works.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (2) does not apply where the original pitch cannot be used as a pitch.
- (4) The owner shall pay all the costs and expenses incurred by the occupier in connection with the mobile home being moved to and from the other pitch.”.
- (8) After paragraph 10 (re-siting of mobile home) insert—

“Undisturbed possession of the mobile home

- 11.—(1) The occupier is entitled to undisturbed possession of the mobile home together with the pitch during the continuance of the agreement.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) is subject to paragraphs 10, 12, 13 and 14.

Owner’s right of entry to the pitch

- 12. The owner may enter the pitch without prior notice between the hours of 9 a.m. and 6 p.m. to—
 - (a) deliver written communications, including post and notices, to the occupier; and
 - (b) read any meter for gas, electricity, water, sewerage or other services supplied by the owner.
- 13. The owner may enter the pitch to carry out essential repair or emergency works on giving as much notice to the occupier (whether in writing or otherwise) as is reasonably practicable in the circumstances.
- 14. Unless the occupier has agreed otherwise, the owner may enter the pitch for a reason other than those specified in paragraphs 12 or 13 only if the owner has given the occupier at least 14 clear days’ written notice of the date, time and reason for the visit.
- 15. The rights conferred by paragraphs 12 to 14 do not extend to the mobile home.

The pitch fee

- 16.—(1) Once reviewed, the pitch fee can only be changed at the relevant date.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) “the relevant date” is—
 - (a) where paragraph 17(1) applies the next review date;
 - (b) where paragraph 19(2) applies the 28th day after the date on which the owner served the notice under paragraph 19(1); or
 - (c) where paragraph 20(3)(b) applies the 28th day after the date of the court order determining the amount of the pitch fee.
- 17.—(1) The pitch fee may be reviewed at the review date if, at least 28 clear days before that review date, the owner has served on the occupier a written notice setting out the owner’s proposal in respect of the new pitch fee.
- (2) The notice referred to in sub-paragraph (1) must set out the services which the agreement provides that are included in the pitch fee proposed by the owner.

(3) If at any time the occupier agrees to the proposed pitch fee it shall be payable as from the review date.

(4) If the occupier does not agree to the proposed pitch fee the owner or the occupier may apply to the court for an order determining the amount of the new pitch fee.

(5) An application under sub-paragraph (4) may be made at any time after the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the review date.

18.—(1) If the owner has not served a notice under paragraph 17(1) by the time by which it required to be served, the occupier can serve a notice (“a review request”) on the owner requesting the owner to serve a notice under paragraph 19(1).

(2) If the owner fails to serve a notice under paragraph 19(1) within the period of 28 days beginning with the date the occupier served the review request then the occupier may apply to the court for an order determining the amount of the new pitch fee.

19.—(1) The pitch fee may be reviewed at a date after the review date if the owner serves on the occupier a written notice setting out the owner’s proposals in respect of a new pitch fee.

(2) If at any time the occupier agrees to the proposed pitch fee, it shall be payable as from the 28th day after the date on which the owner serves the notice under sub-paragraph (1).

(3) If the occupier does not agree to the proposed pitch fee the owner or the occupier may apply to the court for an order determining the amount of the new pitch fee.

(4) An application under sub-paragraph (3) may be made at any time after the end of the period of 56 days beginning with the date on which the owner serves the notice under sub-paragraph (1).

20.—(1) Where an application is made to the court under paragraphs 17(4), 18(2) or 19(3), the court shall, if the court considers it reasonable for the pitch fee to be changed, make an order determining the amount of the new pitch fee.

(2) The occupier shall continue to pay the current pitch fee to the owner until such time as the new pitch fee is agreed by the occupier or an order determining the amount of the new pitch fee is made by the court.

(3) If the court makes such an order, the new pitch fee shall be payable—

- (a) where the application was made under paragraph 17(4), as from the review date;
- (b) where the application was made under paragraphs 18(2) or 19(3), as from the 28th day after the date of the court order determining the amount of the pitch fee.

21. The occupier shall not be treated as being in arrears—

- (a) where either paragraph 17(3) or 19(2) applies, until the 28th day after the date on which the new pitch fee is agreed; or
- (b) where paragraph 20(3) applies until the 28th day after the date of the court order determining the amount of the new pitch fee.

22.—(1) When determining the amount of the new pitch fee particular regard shall be had to—

- (a) any sums expended by the owner since the last review date on improvements—
 - (i) which are for the benefit of the occupiers of mobile homes on the protected site;
 - (ii) which were the subject of consultation in accordance with paragraph 25(e) and (f); and
 - (iii) to which a majority of the occupiers have not disagreed in writing or which, in the case of such disagreement, the court, on the application of the owner, has ordered should be taken into account when determining the amount of the new pitch fee;

- (b) any decrease in the amenity of the protected site or the facilities and services provided on that site since the last review date; and
- (c) the effect of any enactment, other than an order made under paragraph 8(2), which has come into force since the last review date.

(2) When calculating what constitutes a majority of the occupiers for the purposes of subparagraph (1)(a)(iii) each mobile home is to be taken to have only one occupier and, in the event of there being more than one occupier of a mobile home who has responded to the consultation, its occupier is to be taken to be the occupier whose name first appears on the agreement.

(3) In a case where the pitch fee has not been previously reviewed, references in this paragraph to the last review date are to be read as references to the date when the agreement commenced.

23.—(1) When determining the amount of the new pitch fee—

- (a) any costs incurred by the owner in connection with expanding the protected site shall not be taken into account; and
- (b) there is a presumption that the pitch fee shall increase or decrease by a percentage which is no more than any percentage increase or decrease in the retail prices index since the last review date, unless this would be unreasonable having regard to paragraph 22(1).

(2) In a case where the pitch fee has not been previously reviewed, references in this paragraph to the last review date are to be read as references to the date when the agreement commenced.

Occupier's obligations

24. The occupier must—

- (a) pay the pitch fee to the owner;

- (b) if requested by the occupier, provide, free of charge, a copy of the current public liability insurance certificate in respect of the protected site;

- (c) be responsible for repairing, and where necessary renewing the base on which the mobile home is stationed and for maintaining any gas, electricity, water, sewerage or other services supplied by the owner to the pitch or to the mobile home;
- (d) maintain in a clean and tidy condition those parts of the protected site, including access ways, site boundary fences and trees, which are not the responsibility of any occupier of a mobile home stationed on the protected site;
- (e) consult the occupier about improvements to the protected site in general, and in particular about those which the owner wishes to be taken into account when determining the amount of any new pitch fee; and
- (f) consult a qualifying residents' association, if there is one, about all matters which relate to the operation and management of, or improvements to, the protected site and may affect the occupiers either directly or indirectly.

26. The owner must not do or cause to be done anything which may adversely affect the ability of the occupier to perform the occupier's obligations under paragraph 24(c) and (d).

27. For the purposes of paragraph 25(e), to "consult the occupier" means—

- (a) to give the occupier at least 28 clear days' notice in writing of—
 - (i) the proposed improvements and how they will benefit the occupier in the long and short term;
 - (ii) how the pitch fee may be affected when it is next reviewed; and
 - (iii) when and where the occupier can make representations about the proposed improvements; and
- (b) to take into account any representations made by the occupier about the proposed improvements, in accordance with paragraph (a)(iii), before undertaking them.

28. For the purposes of paragraph 25(f), to "consult a qualifying residents' association" means—

- (a) to give the association at least 28 clear days' notice in writing of—
 - (i) the matters mentioned in paragraph 25(f) and how they may affect the occupiers either directly or indirectly in the long and short term; and
 - (ii) when and where the association can make representations about the matters; and
- (b) to take into account any representations made by the association, in accordance with paragraph (a)(ii), before proceeding with the matters.

Owner's name and address

29.—(1) The owner must, by notice, inform the occupier and any qualifying residents' association of the address in Scotland at which notices (including notices of proceedings) may be served on the owner by the occupier or association.

(2) If the owner fails to comply with sub-paragraph (1), then (subject to sub-paragraph (5)) any amount otherwise due from the occupier to the owner in respect of the pitch fee shall be treated for all purposes as not being due at any time before the owner does so comply.

(3) Where in accordance with the agreement the owner gives any written notice to the occupier or (as the case may be) a qualifying residents' association, the notice must contain the following information—

- (a) the name and address of the owner; and
- (b) if that address is not in Scotland, an address in Scotland at which notices (including notices of proceedings) may be served on the owner.

(4) Subject to sub-paragraph (5), where—

- (a) the occupier or a qualifying residents' association receives a written notice, but
- (b) it does not contain the information required by sub-paragraph (3), the notice shall be treated as not having been given until such time as the owner gives the information to the occupier or (as the case may be) the association in respect of the notice.

(5) An amount or notice within sub-paragraph (2) or (4) (as the case may be) shall not be treated as mentioned in that sub-paragraph in relation to any time when, by virtue of an order of any court or tribunal, there is in force an appointment of a receiver or manager whose functions include receiving from the occupier the pitch fee, payments for services supplied or other charges.

(6) Nothing in sub-paragraphs (3) to (5) applies to any notice containing a demand to which paragraph 30(1) applies.

30.—(1) Where the owner makes any demand for payment by the occupier of the pitch fee, or in respect of services supplied or other charges, the demand must contain—

- (a) the name and address of the owner; and
- (b) if that address is not in Scotland, an address in Scotland at which notices (including notices of proceedings) may be served on the owner.

(2) Subject to sub-paragraph (3), where—

- (a) the occupier receives such a demand; but
- (b) it does not contain the information required by sub-paragraph (1),

the amount demanded shall be treated for all purposes as not being due from the occupier to the owner at any time before the owner gives that information to the occupier in respect of the demand.

(3) The amount demanded shall not be treated as mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) in relation to any time when, by virtue of an order of any court or tribunal, there is in force an appointment of a receiver or manager whose functions include receiving from the occupier the pitch fee, payments for services supplied or other charges.

Qualifying residents' association

31.—(1) A residents' association is a qualifying residents' association in relation to a protected site if—

- (a) it represents the occupiers of mobile homes on the site;
- (b) at least 50% of the occupiers of the mobile homes on the site are members of the association;
- (c) it is independent from the owner, who together with any agent or employee of the owner is excluded from membership;
- (d) subject to paragraph (c), membership is open to all occupiers who own a mobile home on that site;
- (e) it maintains a list of members which is open to public inspection together with the rules and constitution of the association;
- (f) it has a chairman, secretary and treasurer who are elected by and from the members; and
- (g) with the exception of administrative decisions taken by the chairman, secretary and treasurer acting in their official capacities, decisions are taken by voting and there is only one vote exercisable by the occupier for each mobile home.

(2) When calculating the percentage of occupiers for the purpose of sub-paragraph (1)(b) and determining who shall exercise the vote in relation to sub-paragraph (1)(g), each mobile home shall be taken to have only one occupier and, in the event of there being more than one occupier of a mobile home who is a member of the association or who exercises any vote, its occupier is to be taken to be the occupier whose name first appears on the agreement.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order is made under section 2B of the Mobile Homes Act 1983 (“the 1983 Act”), which was inserted by section 170(1) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006. It amends Schedule 1 to the 1983 Act (“Schedule 1”), which was also amended by section 169 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006. Schedule 1 contains terms which, by virtue of section 2 of the 1983 Act, are implied into agreements to which section 1 of the 1983 Act applies. Section 1 applies to agreements under which a person is entitled to station a mobile home on a protected site and occupy it as his or her only or main residence.

This Order applies in relation to agreements for the stationing of mobile homes in Scotland.

This is the first Order to be made in Scotland under section 2B of the 1983 Act. In accordance with subsection (4) of that section, article 1(3) of this Order provides that the implied terms for which this Order provides are implied into agreements made before the day on which this Order comes into force, as well as to agreements made on or after that day.

In addition to minor and drafting amendments, this Order amends Schedule 1 to the 1983 Act as follows:

Articles 2(2) and (3) clarify that the court, on an application by the owner, is to determine the date at which an agreement may be terminated.

Article 2(3) also amends paragraph 5 of Schedule 1 to require the court, before it makes an order under that paragraph terminating an agreement on the basis that the occupier is not occupying the mobile home as his or her only or main residence, to be satisfied that it is reasonable for the agreement to be terminated.

Article 2(4) enables owners to apply to the court to terminate an agreement at a date to be determined by the court, if the mobile home is having a detrimental effect on the amenity of the site. Again before making an order the court must be satisfied that it is reasonable for the agreement to be terminated.

Article 2(5) substitutes a new paragraph 7 into Schedule 1, which places a duty on the owner to repay to the occupier that part of any payment made to the owner which relates to a period after the date of termination determined by the court.

Article 2(6) applies when an occupier wishes to sell their mobile home. New sub-paragraph (A1) provides that this paragraph applies to all agreements with the exception of any agreement which relates to a pitch on a local authority gypsy and traveller site or a registered social landlord gypsy and traveller site. The occupier is enabled to sell the mobile home and assign the agreement without the consent of the owner. This is subject to the payment of a commission on the sale at a rate not exceeding the rate specified in an order by Scottish Ministers. Until the commission is paid neither the sale nor assignation will have effect. In terms of new sub-paragraph (2B) the owner cannot require any further payment in connection with the sale.

Articles 2(7) and (8) substitute new paragraphs 9 and 10 and insert new paragraphs 11 to 32. Paragraph 9 applies to all agreements with the exception of any agreement which relates to a pitch on a local authority gypsy and traveller site or a registered social landlord gypsy and traveller site. It sets out that the occupier is entitled to gift the mobile home, and to assign the agreement, to a member of the occupier’s family. The occupier must provide the owner with such evidence as the owner, acting reasonably, requires to confirm that the person to whom the occupier proposes to gift the mobile home and to assign the agreement, is a member of the occupier’s family. The new occupier must notify the owner of the gift and assignation as soon as practicable. Until the owner has received that evidence and notification neither the gift and assignation will have effect. The owner cannot require a payment in connection with the gift and assignation.

New paragraph 10 concerns the re-siting of a mobile home and provides that an owner can only require a mobile home to be stationed on another pitch if the court is satisfied that the other pitch is broadly comparable and that it is reasonable for the mobile home to be stationed there, or if the mobile home needs to be moved so that the owner can carry out essential repair or emergency works. If the mobile home is moved so that the owner can replace or carry out repairs to the base on which the mobile home is stationed, the occupier can require that the mobile home is returned to the original pitch on completion of the works. The owner is required to pay all the costs and expenses incurred by the occupier in connection with their mobile home being moved to and from the other pitch.

The order inserts new paragraphs 11 to 32. Paragraph 11 provides that an occupier is entitled to undisturbed possession of the mobile home during the continuance of the agreement. New paragraphs 12 to 15 set out the owner's rights to enter the pitch (but not the mobile home). New paragraphs 16 to 23 describe the procedure to be followed when reviewing and determining the new pitch fee. These provide for the review of the pitch fee as at the relevant date and for application to the court in default of agreement as to the new pitch fee. New paragraph 24 describes the occupier's obligations to the owner and new paragraphs 25 to 28 describe the owner's obligations to the occupier. Paragraph 25 includes a requirement to consult the occupier and any qualifying residents' association about improvements to the protected site. Paragraphs 29 and 30 specify the owner's obligation to inform the occupier and any qualifying residents' association of his or her name and address. New paragraph 31 lists the criteria that a residents' association must satisfy if it is to be a qualifying residents' association for the purposes of Schedule 1.

Article 3 amends Part 2 of Schedule 1 to omit material that the order makes unnecessary.

Article 4 contains transitional and saving provision. Article 4(3) states that the terms implied by the Order will only have effect in relation to times falling on or after 1st September 2013. Article 4(4) provides that, if any express term of the agreement or any term implied by virtue of section 2(2) of the 1983 Act is inconsistent with the terms implied by virtue of the amendments made by this Order, the inconsistent term is to cease to have effect to that extent on and after 1st September 2013.

A full regulatory impact assessment as to the costs and benefits of the order has been carried out and placed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre. Copies may be obtained from the Housing Options and Services Unit, Scottish Government, Victoria Quay, Edinburgh.
