In relation to the other items, the percentages are based on the weight of the raw meat used to make the food ('the meat ingredient') as a percentage of the total weight of all the ingredients used to make the food (including the meat ingredient) at the time of their use as ingredient.

2. The quantity of meat specified in the table must be determined taking into account the provisions relating to total fat and connective tissue content in point 17 of Part B of Annex VII to FIC, including any downward adjustment needed in a case where the total fat and connective tissue content in the regulated product exceeds the values indicated in the table in point 17 of Part B of Annex VII to FIC.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations revoke and replace the Meat Products (Scotland) Regulations 2004 (S.S.I. 2004/6). They apply to Scotland (regulation 1).

The Regulations prohibit the use of specified names in the sale and advertising of regulated products if the products do not satisfy specific compositional requirements (regulation 4 and the Schedule).

The Regulations prohibit, subject to an exception, the sale of uncooked regulated products which include among their ingredients specified parts of the carcase of any mammalian species of animal (regulation 5).

The Regulations impose an obligation on food authorities (as defined for Scotland by section 5(2) of the Food Safety Act 1990 (1990 c.16)) to enforce the Regulations (regulation 6).

The Regulations apply certain provisions of the Food Safety Act 1990 (1990 c.16) with modifications (regulation 7).

As well as revoking the Meat Products (Scotland) Regulations 2004, the Regulations also revoke the Meat Products (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2008 (S.S.I. 2008/97) and regulation 18(4) of the Food Additives (Scotland) Regulations 2009 (S.S.I. 2009/436) (regulation 8).

These Regulations retain existing national provisions on the reserved descriptions for meat products which are both produced and sold in Scotland and therefore a Business and Regulatory Impact Assessment has not been completed.
