

EXTRA-PAROCHIAL MINISTRY MEASURE 1967 (No. 2)

1967 No. 2

A Measure passed by the National Assembly of the Church of England to authorise the Minister of a parish to exercise his ministry outside the parish for the benefit of persons on the electoral roll of the parish: and for licensing a Minister to exercise his ministry at or for the benefit of an institution without the consent of and without being subject to the control of the Minister of the parish. [14th July 1967]

1 Ministry to non-resident electors.

The Minister of a parish may perform offices and services at the home of any person whose name is on the church electoral roll of the parish but who is not resident in the parish, to the like extent and in the like circumstances as he performs offices and services at the homes of his parishioners resident in the parish, but excluding the performance of any office or service attended by persons other than the members of the family and household of the person whose name is on the church electoral roll; and the performance of offices and services in accordance with this section shall not require the consent or be subject to the control of the Minister of the parish in which they are performed.

2 Ministry at or for the benefit of certain institutions.

- (1) The Bishop of the diocese in which any university, college, school, hospital or public or charitable institution is situated, whether or not it possesses a chapel, may license a clergyman of the Church of England to perform such offices and services as may be specified in the licence on any premises forming part of or belonging to the institution in question, including residential premises managed by the institution and occupied by the members or staff of the institution:

- (a) a clergyman of the Church of England is licensed under subsection (1) above to perform at an institution offices and services specified in the licence; and
- (b) the marriage of a person who is housebound or is a detained person is to be solemnized at the institution in question in pursuance of section 26(1)(dd) of the Marriage Act 1949, and
- (c) that marriage is intended to be solemnized according to the rites of the Church of England, the offices and services which the clergyman is licensed under subsection (1) above to perform shall be treated as including the solemnization of that marriage; but, except as provided by the preceding provision of this subsection, no licence granted under subsection (1) above shall extend to the solemnization of marriage.

A person is housebound or is a detained person for the purposes of this subsection if he is housebound or a detained person for the purposes of the Marriage Act 1949.]

- (2) The performance of offices and services in accordance with any such licence shall not require the consent or be subject to the control of the Minister of the parish in which they are performed.
- (3) The alms collected in the course of or in connection with the performance of such offices and services shall be disposed of in such a manner as the Minister performing the office or service, subject to the direction of the Bishop of the diocese, may determine.
- (4) A licence granted under this section may be revoked at any time by the Bishop of the diocese.
- (5) Nothing in this section shall affect section 31 of the ^{M1}Public Schools Act 1868
^{F3} which relates to the chapels and chaplains of certain public ^{F3} schools.

3 Interpretation.

In this Measure—

“home”, in relation to any person, means the house, flat or other place where he is living, whether permanently or temporarily;

“Minister of a parish” includes a curate licensed under seal by the Bishop to the charge of a parish, and the powers exercisable by the Minister of a parish shall also be exercisable by an assistant curate or other clergyman assisting the Minister;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the EXTRA-PAROCHIAL MINISTRY MEASURE 1967 (No. 2). (See end of Document for details)

“parish” means an ecclesiastical parish or district the Minister of which has a separate cure of souls, and includes a conventional district to the charge of which a separate curate is licensed.

4 Repeal and saving.

The ^{M2}Private Chapels Act 1871 is hereby repealed:

Provided that any licence granted under the said Act shall continue in force and shall have effect as if it had been granted under this Measure.
