

Benefices Measure 1972

1972 No. 3

A Measure passed by the General Synod of the Church of England to provide an additional ground for refusing to institute or admit a presentee to a benefice, and for purposes connected therewith. [10th February 1972]

Commencement Information

II Measure wholly in force at Royal Assent.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Benefices Measure 1972, Introductory Text.