The Consumer Protection from
Unfair Trading Regulations 2008

PART 3

OFFENCES

Offence due to the default of another person

16.—(1) This regulation applies where a person “X”—

- (a) commits an offence under regulation 9, 10, 11 or 12, or
- (b) would have committed an offence under those regulations but for a defence under regulation 17 or 18, and the commission of the offence, or of what would have been an offence but for X being able to rely on a defence under regulation 17 or 18, is due to the act or default of some other person “Y”.

(2) Where this regulation applies Y is guilty of the offence, subject to regulations 17 and 18, whether or not Y is a trader and whether or not Y’s act or default is a commercial practice.

(3) Y may be charged with and convicted of the offence by virtue of paragraph (2) whether or not proceedings are taken against X.
