 - (iii) the date given by the agency as that on which it expected to place C for adoption with A and P; and
 - (b) the name and address of A’s employer (or, if A is self-employed, A’s business address).
- (4) After giving leave notice, P must give E written notice (“withdrawal notice”) as soon as reasonably practicable if—
- (a) P no longer satisfies the conditions in regulation 14(2)(c) or (d);
 - (b) A no longer satisfies the conditions in regulation 14(4).
- (5) E may require P to take a period of leave where—
- (a) P has given E withdrawal notice less than six weeks before the start date specified in P’s leave notice, or, where applicable, last varied in accordance with regulation 17, and

 - (ii) the end date specified in P’s leave notice, or, where applicable, last varied in accordance with regulation 17,
 whichever is the earlier.

 - (b) it is not reasonably practicable for E to accommodate the change in P’s arrangements.
- (8) The period for which E may require P to remain on leave under paragraph (7)—
- (a) shall end no later than the earlier of—

- (b) shall be treated as additional paternity leave for the purpose of these Regulations.

Variation or cancellation of leave under regulation 14 before leave period has begun

17.—(1) Before P’s leave period has begun, P may cancel P’s leave notice, or vary the dates notified as the start and end date for the period of leave, provided that P gives E written notice (“subsequent notice”)—

- (a) before the earlier of—
 - (i) six weeks before the date cancelled or varied, or
 - (ii) six weeks before the new date, or
- (b) if it is not reasonably practicable for P to give notice in accordance with sub-paragraph (a), as soon as is reasonably practicable.

(2) Where P has given subsequent notice, but—

- (a) the notice does not comply with paragraph (1)(a), and
- (b) it is not reasonably practicable for E to accommodate the change in P’s arrangements,

E may require that P take a period of additional paternity leave.

(3) Additional paternity leave which P is required to take under paragraph (2)—

 - (ii) where applicable, the start date specified in the most recent subsequent notice given by P in compliance with the requirements of paragraph (1)(a); and
- (b) shall end no later than —

whichever is the earlier.

(4) In this regulation, “leave notice” has the meaning given by regulation 16(2).

Employer’s confirmation of period of leave under regulation 14

18.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), where P gives leave notice under regulation 16(1) or subsequent notice under regulation 17(1) to E, E shall, within 28 days of receipt of the notice, confirm the relevant dates to P in writing.

(2) Where E requires P to take leave under regulations 16(5) or 17(2), E shall notify P of the dates of that leave as soon as reasonably practicable, and at any event before the start of the leave that P is required to take under regulations 16(5) or 17(2).

Commencement of leave under regulation 14

19. Save where regulations 16(5) and 17(2) apply, P’s period of additional paternity leave under regulation 14 begins—

- (a) on the start date notified in P’s leave notice under regulation 16(1), or,
- (b) where applicable, the date specified in P’s most recent subsequent notice under regulation 17(1).

Entitlement to additional paternity leave (adoption) in the event of the death of the adopter

20.—(1) In a case where A has died before the end of the period of 12 months beginning with C’s placement for adoption, the provisions in regulations 14 to 19 shall apply with the following modifications.

(2) In regulation 14 (entitlement to additional paternity leave (adoption))—

(i) to regulation 16 were references to regulation 22;

(ii) to regulation 17 were references to regulation 23;

(b) paragraph (1)(c) shall read—

“(c) C’s adopter (“A”) satisfied, before A’s death, one or more of the conditions specified in paragraph (4)(a) (or would have satisfied such conditions but for the fact that A has died).”;

(c) the condition in paragraph (2)(c) shall be taken to be satisfied if it would have been satisfied but for the fact that A has died; and

(d) the requirement in paragraph (4)(b) shall be omitted.

(c) to regulation 17(1) were references to regulation 23(2); and

(d) to regulation 17(2) were references to regulation 23(3).

Options in respect of leave under regulation 14 where the adopter has died

21.—(1) P may take leave under regulation 14, as modified by regulation 20, at any time within the period beginning with the date of A’s death and ending 12 months after the date of C’s placement for adoption.

(2) The minimum period of leave which may be taken is two weeks and the maximum period is 52 weeks.

(3) The leave must be taken as one continuous period and must be taken in multiples of complete weeks.

(4) P shall not be entitled to leave in accordance with regulation 14, as modified by regulation 20, if P has already taken a period of additional paternity leave in respect of C which has ended before the date of A’s death.

(5) If P is on leave under regulation 14 on the date of A’s death, P shall be entitled to extend the leave to include a further period of leave in accordance with regulation 14, as modified by regulation 20, provided—

 - (iv) the date of A's death; and
 - (v) A's National Insurance number.
 - (c) "the relevant date" is eight weeks after the date of A's death.
- (3) Where E makes a request within 28 days of receiving P's leave notice, P must, within 28 days of E's request, give E such of the following as E may request—
- (a) evidence, in the form of one or more documents issued by the adoption agency that matched P with C, of—
 - (i) the name and address of the agency;

- (5) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), P may give E leave notice and the employee declaration after the relevant date, provided that P gives E written notice at least six weeks before the start date chosen by P for the period of leave.
- (6) If P, after giving leave notice, no longer satisfies the conditions in regulation 14(2)(c) or (d) as modified by regulation 20, P must give E written notice ("withdrawal notice") as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (7) E may require that P take a period of leave where—

- (a) P has given E withdrawal notice—
 - (i) less than six weeks before the start date specified in P’s leave notice, or, where applicable, last varied in accordance with regulation 23, and

 whichever is the earlier.
- (9) E may require P to remain on leave where—

- (10) The period for which E may require P to remain on leave under regulation (9)—
 - (a) shall end no later than the earlier of—
 - (i) six weeks after the date on which P gave E withdrawal notice, or
 - (ii) the end date specified in P’s leave notice, or, where applicable, last varied in accordance with regulation 23; and
 - (b) shall be treated as additional paternity leave for the purpose of these Regulations.

Variation or cancellation of leave under regulation 14 in the event of the death of the adopter

23.—(1) Notwithstanding regulation 19 as modified by regulation 20, P may, on or before the relevant date, cancel P’s leave notice, or vary the dates notified as the start and end dates for the period of leave, by notifying E in writing on or before any date that is varied or cancelled.

(2) After the relevant date, but before P’s leave period has begun, P may cancel P’s leave notice, or vary the dates notified as the start and end date for the period of leave, provided that P gives E written notice (“subsequent notice”)—

- (a) before the earlier of—
 - (i) six weeks before the date cancelled or varied, or

 E may require that P take a period of additional paternity leave.

- (4) Additional paternity leave which P is required to take under paragraph (3)—
- (a) shall start—
 - (i) on the start date specified by P in the leave notice, or
 - (ii) where applicable, the start date specified in the most recent subsequent notice given by P in compliance with the requirements of paragraphs (1) or (2)(a); and
 - (b) shall end no later than—
 - (i) six weeks after P gave notice under paragraph (2), or
 - (ii) the end date specified in the leave notice or, where applicable, the most recent subsequent notice given by P in compliance with the requirements of paragraphs (1) or (2)(a),whichever is the earlier.
- (5) In this regulation, the terms “relevant date” and “leave notice” have the meanings given by regulation 22(2).

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO BOTH TYPES OF ADDITIONAL PATERNITY LEAVE

Disrupted placement or death of a child in the course of additional paternity leave

- 24.—(1) This regulation applies where, during an employee (“P’s”) leave notice period or additional paternity leave period in respect of a child (“C”)—
- (a) C dies, or
 - (b) where C has been placed for adoption, C is returned to the adoption agency under sections 32, 33 or 34(3) of the Adoption and Children Act 2002⁽¹⁵⁾ or section 25(6) of the Adoption and Children (Scotland) Act 2007⁽¹⁶⁾.
- (2) Subject to regulation 29 (dismissal during additional leave period), in a case where this regulation applies—
- (a) where the end date of P’s leave occurs less than eight weeks after the relevant week, P’s additional paternity leave period ends on the end date,
 - (b) where the end date of P’s leave occurs eight or more weeks after the relevant week, P’s additional paternity leave period ends eight weeks after the end of the relevant week.
- (3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)—
- (a) the relevant week means the period of seven days beginning with Sunday, during which—
 - (i) in a case falling within paragraph (1)(a), C dies,
 - (ii) in a case falling within paragraph (1)(b), C is returned to the adoption agency.
 - (b) the end date of P’s leave is—
 - (i) the end date notified by P in accordance with regulation 6(1), 12(1), 16(1) or 22(1),
 - (ii) where P has varied the end date, that most recently varied in accordance with regulation 7(1), 13(1), 13(2), 17(1), 23(1), or 23(2),

⁽¹⁵⁾ 2002 c.38.

- (iii) where E required P to take leave, or remain on leave, the end date determined by E in accordance with regulation 6(5), 6(7), 7(2), 12(7), 12(9), 13(3), 16(5), 16(7), 17(2), 22(7), 22(9) and 23(3) and notified to P in accordance with regulation 8(2), 8(2) as modified by regulation 10, 18(2) or 18(2) as modified by regulation 20 as applicable, or
- (iv) where applicable, the end date determined under regulation 30.

(4) In paragraph (1), P's leave notice period is the period starting on the day P notifies E in accordance with regulation 6(1), 12(1), 16(1) or 22(1) of P's intention to take additional paternity leave and ending on the day before the day that leave begins.

Return to work

25. For the purposes of these Regulations, a mother ("M") or adopter ("A") is treated as returning to work if one of the following situations applies—

- (a) in a case where M or A is entitled to maternity leave or to adoption leave in respect of a child ("C"), the leave period has ended;
- (b) in a case where M or A is entitled, in respect of C, to payment of:
 - (i) maternity allowance, that payment is not payable by virtue of regulations made under section 35(3)(a)(i) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992⁽¹⁷⁾;
 - (ii) statutory maternity pay, that payment is not payable in accordance with section 165(4) or (6) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992⁽¹⁸⁾; or
 - (iii) statutory adoption pay, that payment is not payable in accordance with section 171ZN(3) or (5) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 Act⁽¹⁹⁾;
- (c) in a case where both (a) and (b) apply, the conditions in both (a) and (b) are satisfied.

Work during an additional paternity leave period

26.—(1) P may carry out up to ten days' work for P's employer ("E") during P's additional paternity leave period without bringing the additional paternity leave period to an end.

(2) For the purposes of this regulation, any work carried out on any day shall constitute a day's work.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), for the purposes of this regulation, work means any work done under the contract of employment and may include training or any activity undertaken for the purposes of keeping in touch with the workplace.

(4) Reasonable contact from time to time between P and E which either party is entitled to make during an additional paternity leave period (for example to discuss P's return to work) shall not bring that period to an end.

(5) This regulation does not confer any right on E to require that any work be carried out during the additional paternity leave period, nor any right on P to work during the additional paternity leave period.

(6) Any days' work carried out under this regulation shall not have the effect of extending the total duration of the additional paternity leave period.

⁽¹⁷⁾ 1992 c. 4. Section 35(3)(a)(i) was amended by the Work and Families Act 2006, Schedule 1, paragraph 6.

⁽¹⁸⁾ Section 165(4) was amended by the Work and Families Act 2006, Schedule 1, paragraph 7(1) and (3).

⁽¹⁹⁾ Section 171ZN was inserted by section 2 of the Employment Act 2002 (c. 22) and amended by the Work and Families Act 2006, Schedule 1, paragraph 21(2) and (3).

Application of terms and conditions during additional paternity leave

27.—(1) During the period of additional paternity leave, P—

- (a) is entitled to the benefit of all of the terms and conditions of employment which would have applied if P had not been absent, and
- (b) is bound by any obligations arising under those terms and conditions, subject only to the exception in section 80C(1)(b) of the 1996 Act⁽²⁰⁾.

(2) In paragraph (1)(a), “terms and conditions of employment” has the meaning given by section 80C(5) of the 1996 Act, and accordingly does not include terms and conditions about remuneration.

(3) For the purposes of section 80C of the 1996 Act, only sums payable to P by way of wages or salary are to be treated as remuneration.

(4) In the case of accrual of rights under an employment-related benefit scheme within the meaning given by paragraph 7 of Schedule 5 to the Social Security Act 1989⁽²¹⁾, nothing in paragraph (1)(a) shall be taken to impose a requirement which exceeds the requirements of paragraph 5A of that Schedule.

Redundancy during additional paternity leave

28.—(1) This regulation applies where, during P’s additional paternity leave period, it is not practicable by reason of redundancy for E to continue to employ P under P’s existing contract of employment.

(2) Where there is a suitable alternative vacancy, P is entitled to be offered (before the end of P’s employment under P’s existing contract) alternative employment with E or E’s successor, or an associated employer, under a new contract of employment which complies with paragraph (3) and takes effect immediately on the ending of P’s employment under the previous contract.

(3) The new contract of employment must be such that—

- (a) the work to be done under it is of a kind which is both suitable in relation to P and appropriate for P to do in the circumstances, and
- (b) its provisions as to the capacity and place in which P is to be employed, and as to the other terms and conditions of P’s employment, are not substantially less favourable to P than if P had continued to be employed under the previous contract.

Dismissal during additional paternity leave

29. Where P is dismissed after P’s additional paternity leave period has begun but before the time when (apart from this regulation) that period would end, the period ends at the time of the dismissal.

Early return from additional paternity leave period

30.—(1) Subject to regulations 13(1) and 23(1) (variation or cancellation of leave in the event of death of the mother or adopter), where, after P’s additional leave period has begun, P intends to return to work earlier than the end of P’s additional paternity leave period, P must give E at least six weeks’ notice of the date on which P intends to return.

⁽²¹⁾ 1989 c.24. This has been prospectively amended by the Pension Schemes Act 1993 (c. 48), section 190, Schedule 7, paragraph 2, from a day to be appointed.

(2) If P attempts to return to work earlier than the end of P’s additional paternity leave period without complying with paragraph (1), E is entitled to postpone P’s return to a date such as will secure, subject to paragraph (5), that E has six weeks’ notice of P’s return.

(3) Where P complies with P’s obligations in paragraph (1), or where E has postponed P’s return in the circumstances described in paragraph (2), if P then decides to return to work—

- (a) earlier than the original return date, P must give E not less than six weeks’ notice of the date on which P now intends to return;
- (b) later than the original return date, P must give E not less than six weeks’ notice ending with the original return date.

(4) In paragraph (3) the “original return date” means the date which P notified E as the date of P’s return to work under paragraph (1) or the date to which P’s return was postponed by E under paragraph (2).

(5) In a case where P’s return to work has been postponed under paragraph (2) and P—

- (a) has been notified that P is not to return to work before the date to which P’s return was postponed, and
- (b) returns to work before that date,

E is under no contractual obligation to pay P’s remuneration until the date to which P’s return was postponed.

(6) This regulation does not apply in a case where E fails to notify P of the date on which P’s additional paternity leave period ends, in accordance with regulation 8, regulation 8 as modified by regulation 10, regulation 18 or regulation 18 as modified by regulation 20 (confirmation of period of leave), as applicable.

Right to return after additional paternity leave

31.—(1) In a case where P returns to work after a period of additional paternity leave, lasting no longer than 26 weeks, which was—

- (a) an isolated period of leave, or
- (b) the last of two or more consecutive periods of statutory leave, which did not include any period of additional maternity leave or additional adoption leave or a period of parental leave of more than four weeks,

P is entitled to return from leave to the job in which P was employed before P’s absence.

(2) In a case where P returns to work after a period of additional paternity leave not falling within the description in paragraph (1)(a) or (b) above, P is entitled to return from leave to the job in which P was employed before P’s absence, or, if it is not reasonably practicable for E to permit P to return to that job, to another job which is both suitable for P and appropriate for P to do in the circumstances.

(3) The reference in paragraphs (1) and (2) to the job in which P was employed before P’s absence is a reference to the job in which P was employed—

- (a) if P’s return is from an isolated period of additional paternity leave, immediately before that period began,
- (b) if P’s return is from consecutive periods of statutory leave, immediately before the first such period.

(4) This regulation does not apply where regulation 28 applies.

Incidents of the right to return after additional paternity leave

32.—(1) P’s right to return under regulation 31 is a right to return—

- (a) with P's seniority, pension rights and similar rights as they would have been if P had not been absent, and
- (b) on terms and conditions not less favourable than those which would have applied if P had not been absent.

(2) In the case of accrual of rights under an employment-related benefit scheme within the meaning given by paragraph 7 of Schedule 5 to the Social Security Act 1989, nothing in paragraph (1) (a) shall be taken to impose a requirement which exceeds the requirements of paragraphs 5 to 6 of that Schedule.

(3) The provisions in paragraph (1)(a) for P to be treated as if P had not been absent refer to P's absence—

- (a) if P's return is from an isolated period of additional paternity leave, since the beginning of that period,
- (b) if P's return is from consecutive periods of statutory leave, since the beginning of the first such period.

Protection from detriment

33.—(1) P is entitled under section 47C of the 1996 Act not to be subjected to any detriment by any act, or any deliberate failure to act, by E because—

- (a) P took, sought to take or made use of the benefits of additional paternity leave;
- (b) E believed that P was likely to take additional paternity leave;
- (c) P failed to return after a period of additional paternity leave in a case where—
 - (i) E did not notify P, in accordance with regulations 8, 8 as modified by regulation 10, 18, 18 as modified by regulation 20, or otherwise, of the date on which that period ended, and P reasonably believed that the period had not ended, or
 - (ii) E gave P less than 28 days' notice of the date on which the period would end, and it was not reasonably practicable for P to return on that date;
- (d) P undertook, considered undertaking or refused to undertake work in accordance with regulation 26.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), P makes use of the benefits of additional paternity leave if, during P's additional paternity leave period, P benefits from any of the terms and conditions of P's employment preserved by section 80C of the 1996 Act and regulation 27 during that period.

(3) Paragraph (1) does not apply where the detriment in question amounts to dismissal within the meaning of Part 10 of the 1996 Act.

Unfair dismissal

34.—(1) In a case where P is dismissed, P is entitled under section 99 of the 1996 Act⁽²²⁾ to be regarded for the purpose of Part 10 of that Act as unfairly dismissed if—

- (a) the reason or principal reason for the dismissal is of a kind specified in paragraph (3), or
- (b) the reason or principal reason for the dismissal is that P is redundant and regulation 28 has not been complied with.

(2) In a case where P is dismissed, P shall also be regarded for the purposes of Part 10 of the 1996 Act as unfairly dismissed if—

⁽²²⁾ Section 99 was substituted by the Employment Relations Act 1999, Schedule 4, Part 3, paragraphs 5 and 16, and amended by the Employment Act 2002, Schedule 7, paragraphs 24 and 33 and by the Work and Families Act 2006, Schedule 1, paragraph 41.

- (a) the reason (or, if more than one, the principal reason) for the dismissal is that P was redundant,
 - (b) it is shown that the circumstances constituting the redundancy applied equally to one or more employees in the same undertaking who had positions similar to that held by P and who have not been dismissed by E, and
 - (c) it is shown that the reason (or if more than one, the principal reason) for which P was selected for dismissal was a reason of a kind specified in paragraph (3).
- (3) The kinds of reason referred to in paragraph (1) and (2) are reasons connected with any of the following facts—
- (a) that P took, sought to take or made use of the benefits of, additional paternity leave;
 - (b) that E believed that P was likely to take additional paternity leave;
 - (c) that P failed to return after a period of additional paternity leave in a case where—
 - (i) E did not notify P, in accordance with regulations 8, 8 as modified by regulation 10, 18, 18 as modified by regulation 20, or otherwise, of the date on which that period ended, and P reasonably believed that the period had not ended, or
 - (ii) that E gave P less than 28 days' notice of the date on which the period would end, and it was not reasonably practicable for P to return on that date; or
 - (d) that P undertook, considered undertaking or refused to undertake work in accordance with regulation 26.
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(a), P makes use of the benefits of additional paternity leave if, during P's additional paternity leave period, P benefits from any of the terms and conditions of P's employment preserved by section 80C of the 1996 Act and regulation 27 during that period.
- (5) Paragraph (1) does not apply in relation to P if—
- (a) it is not reasonably practicable for a reason other than redundancy for E (who may be E or a successor of E) to permit P to return to a job which is both suitable for P and appropriate for P to do in the circumstances,
 - (b) an associated employer offers P a job of that kind, and
 - (c) P accepts or unreasonably refuses that offer.
- (6) Where, on a complaint of unfair dismissal, any question arises as to whether the operation of paragraph (1) is excluded by the provisions of paragraph (5), it is for E to show that the provision in question was satisfied in relation to the complainant.

Contractual rights to additional paternity leave

- (2) In a case where this regulation applies—
- (a) P may not exercise the statutory right and the corresponding right separately but may, in taking the leave for which the two rights provide, take advantage of whichever right is, in any particular respect, the more favourable, and
 - (b) the provisions of the 1996 Act and of these Regulations relating to the statutory right apply, subject to any modifications necessary to give effect to any more favourable contractual terms, to the exercise of the composite right described in sub-paragraph (a) as they apply to the exercise of the statutory right.

- (a) under Chapter 2 of Part 14 of the 1996 Act, the amount of a week's pay of an employee falls to be calculated by reference to the average rate of remuneration, or the average amount of remuneration, payable to the employee in respect of a period of 12 weeks ending on a particular date (referred to as "the calculation date"),
- (b) during a week in that period, the employee was absent from work on additional paternity leave, and
- (c) remuneration is payable to the employee in respect of that week under the employee's contract of employment, but the amount payable is less than the amount that would be payable if the employee were working,

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations implement the powers in the Work and Families Act 2006 to introduce a new entitlement for employees who are fathers or partners of mothers or adopters to take additional paternity leave in the first year of their child's life or the first year after the child's placement for adoption. The relevant provisions are incorporated by that Act into the Employment Rights Act 1996 ("the 1996 Act").

The Regulations confer the right to take additional paternity leave, following the birth of a child, to fathers or spouses and partners (of either sex) of the child's mother. In the case of adoption, the entitlement is granted to persons who have been matched with the child for adoption and who are spouses or partners (of either sex) of the adopter who has elected to take adoption leave (defined as "the adopter" for the purpose of these Regulations).

Regulation 4 and 14 set out the conditions for entitlement for additional paternity leave (birth) and (adoption) respectively. Certain conditions apply to the person claiming the entitlement ("the claimant"), others to the mother or adopter. The claimant must satisfy substantive requirements, such as continuous employment, relationship with the mother or adopter and with the child, as well as procedural requirements such as giving appropriate notice to the claimant's employer. For the claimant to qualify for additional paternity leave (birth), the mother must be entitled to one or more of maternity leave, statutory maternity pay or maternity allowance. For the claimant to qualify for additional paternity leave (adoption), the adopter must be entitled to one or more of adoption leave and statutory adoption pay. In respect of both birth and adoption, the mother or adopter must have returned to work for the claimant's entitlement to arise.

Regulations 5 and 15 set out the options for when and how the leave may be taken (in respect of additional paternity leave (birth) and additional paternity leave (adoption) respectively). In particular they indicate the maximum and minimum length of leave which may be taken (a maximum of 26 weeks and minimum of 2 weeks), the fact that it may only be taken in multiples of complete weeks and the period after the birth or adoption of the child within which the leave may be taken (the period beginning 20 weeks after the birth or placement for adoption and ending 12 months after the birth or placement for adoption).

Regulations 6 and 16 (in respect of additional paternity leave: birth, and additional paternity leave: adoption respectively) set out the notice and evidential requirements with which the claimant must comply. These include information regarding both the claimant and the mother or adopter, and declarations from both the claimant and the mother or adopter.

Regulations 7 and 17 (in respect of additional paternity leave (birth) and additional paternity leave (adoption) respectively) set out the notice and process requirements that apply if the claimant wishes, before taking additional paternity leave, to cancel the leave or vary the dates the claimant had chosen for the additional paternity leave period to begin and end.

Regulations 8 and 18 (in respect of additional paternity leave (birth), and additional paternity leave (adoption) respectively) require that the employer must confirm the dates of the start and end of the leave within 28 days of receiving the claimant's notice. Regulations 9 and 19 (in respect of additional paternity leave (birth) and additional paternity leave (adoption) respectively) set out when the leave commences.

In circumstances where the mother, or the adopter of the child who has chosen to take adoption leave, has died within 12 months after the date of the child's birth or placement for adoption, the provisions of the Regulations apply with various modifications. In such a case the claimant's entitlement may be to a longer period of leave starting earlier than it would otherwise have done and with different notification requirements.

Regulations 10 and 20 (in respect of birth and adoption respectively) set out the provisions of the Regulations which are modified in the case of the death of the mother or adopter of the child. The requirements which must be satisfied by the child's mother or adopter under regulations 4 and 14 are modified. The requirement that the mother or adopter must have returned to work does not apply. Further, the mother or adopter is deemed to satisfy the requirement of entitlement to one or more of, in the mother's case, maternity leave, statutory maternity pay or maternity allowance and in the adopter's case, adoption leave or statutory adoption pay, if the adopter or mother satisfied the condition before death or would have done, but for the death.

Regulation 24 deals with cases where the child dies (in respect of birth and adoption) or where a placement ends (in respect of adoption) during additional paternity leave or after the claimant has notified the employer of the claimant's intention to take additional paternity leave. In such cases, the claimant's entitlement comes to an end after a period of eight weeks following the week of the child's death or the end of the child's placement, unless there are only eight weeks of leave remaining in which case the additional paternity leave period ends on the date notified by the claimant.

Regulations 25 to 31 contain provisions applicable in relation to additional paternity leave (birth and adoption). Regulation 25 sets out criteria for determining when the mother or adopter has returned to work. If the mother or adopter was entitled to maternity or adoption leave, the relevant date is when this leave ends. If the mother or adopter was entitled to statutory pay (maternity allowance, statutory maternity pay or statutory adoption pay) the relevant date is when this is no longer payable. In cases where they were eligible for both leave and pay then the relevant date is when both the leave has ended and they no longer eligible for pay.

Regulations 28 and 29 deal with cases in which an employee becomes redundant or is dismissed during an additional paternity leave period. Regulation 30 deals with cases where an employee, who is on additional paternity leave intends to return to work before the end of additional paternity leave. Regulations 31 and 32 provide for an employee's right to return to work after taking leave, distinguishing the case where the leave was an isolated period of leave or taken with other types of statutory leave from other cases.

Regulations 33 and 34 provide that an employee entitled to additional paternity leave is protected against detriment or dismissal attributable to the fact they took or sought to take such leave. Regulation 35 governs the relationship between an employee's right to additional paternity leave under these Regulations and any corresponding leave rights arising from the employment contract. Regulation 36 deals with the calculation of a week's pay for an employee on additional paternity leave.
