2010 No.

The Wireless Telegraphy Act 2006
(Directions to OFCOM) Order 2010

PART 2

Licence fees for 900MHz and 1800MHz licences

5.—(1) OFCOM must revise the sums prescribed by them by regulations under section 12 of the Act for existing 900MHz and 1800MHz licences after the completion of the Combined Auction so that they reflect the full market value of the frequencies in those bands.

(2) OFCOM must take all relevant factors into account in revising the sums prescribed with particular reference to the sums bid for licences in the Combined Auction.
