Coming into force in accordance with article 1

The Secretary of State for Education makes the following Order in exercise of the powers conferred by section 1 of the Legislative and Regulatory Reform Act 2006(a).

For the purposes of section 3(1) of that Act, the Secretary of State considers that the conditions in section 3(2), where relevant, are met.

The Secretary of State has consulted in accordance with section 13(1) of that Act.

The Secretary of State has laid a draft Order and an explanatory document before Parliament in accordance with section 14(1) of that Act.

Pursuant to section 15 of that Act, the negative resolution procedure (within the meaning of Part 1 of that Act) applies in relation to the making of the Order.

Neither House of Parliament resolved, within the 40-day period referred to in section 16(3) of that Act, that the Secretary of State should not make the Order.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order is made under section 1 of the Legislative and Regulatory Reform Act 2006. Article 3 repeals section 138 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 (“the Act”), which requires Her Majesty’s Chief Inspector of Education, Children’s Services and Skills to review annually the overall performance by local authorities of functions to which Chapter 4 of Part 8 of the Act applies. Functions to which Chapter 4 of Part 8 of the Act applies are listed in section 135(1) of the Act and include education and social care functions of local authorities towards children. Article 4 makes consequential amendments as a result of the repeal of section 138.

A full impact assessment has not been published for this instrument as it has no impact on the private sector and civil society organisations.
