- (7) Any person who contravenes any byelaw made under subsection (4) above shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £50 and, if the is registered under this section, the court by which he is convicted may, instead of, or in addition to, imposing a fine, order the suspension or cancellation of his registration and of the registration of the premises in which the offence was committed if they are occupied by him.
- (8) A court ordering the suspension or cancellation of registration under subsection (7) above may suspend the operation of the order until the expiration of the period prescribed under section 14 (which confers powers to make Crown Court rules) of the Courts Act 1971 for giving notice of appeal to the Crown Court:

Provided that if notice of appeal is given within the said period an order made under this subsection shall be suspended until the appeal is finally determined or abandoned.

- (9) Where the registration of any person is cancelled by order of a court under subsection (7) above—
 - (a) he shall within seven days deliver up to the borough council the cancelled certificate of registration, and if without reasonable excuse he fails to do so, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £50 and to a daily fine not exceeding £5; and
 - (b) he shall not again be registered by a borough council under this section in respect of the practice or business in question except in pursuance of a further order of a magistrates' court made on his application.
- (10) The occupier of premises registered under this section shall keep a copy of any byelaw made relating to his practice of acupuncture or business of tattooing or cosmetic piercing, as the case may be, and of the certificate of registration of the premises issued under this section prominently displayed in the premises; and if without reasonable excuse he fails to do so he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £50 and to a daily fine not exceeding £5.
- (11) (a) Section 287 (which confers powers to enter on premises) of the Act of 1936 shall have effect as if references therein to that Act included a reference to this section.
- (b) Any person who intentionally obstructs any person acting in the exercise of his powers under this subsection shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £200.

1971 c. 23.

(12) In this section "premises" includes a stall and "cosmetic piercing" means the piercing of any part of the body for cosmetic purposes.

- (13) (a) In this section "the appointed day" means such day as may be fixed in relation to a borough by resolution of the borough council, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this subsection.
- (b) The borough council shall cause to be published in one or more local newspapers circulating in the borough notice—
 - (i) of the passing of any such resolution and of the day fixed thereby;
 - (ii) of the general effect of the provisions of this section coming into operation as from that day; and the day so fixed shall not be earlier than the expiration of twenty-eight days from the date of first publication of the said notice.

- (c) Either a photostatic or other reproduction certified by the proper officer of the borough to be a true reproduction of a page, or part of a page, of any such newspaper being a page or part bearing the date of its publication and containing any such notice shall be evidence of the publication of the notice and of the date of publication.
- (d) Different appointed days may be fixed for the different kinds of practice or business to which this section applies.
