

---

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

---

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 2

REPEALS

PART 1

BANK OF SCOTLAND

---

Title and reference	Extent of repeal
An Act of the Parliament of Scotland, 5 William III, 17 July 1695, for Erecting a Bank in Scotland	In the copy printed in Edinburgh by the King's printer of Acts of the Parliament of Scotland— from the words “which shall lie open” on line 24 of page 3 to the words “carrying on the Bank,” on line 4 of page 4; the words “under which Name,” on line 8 of that page; the words “and shall have a common seal,” on line 9 of that page; the words “by the Name foresaid,” on line 10 of that page; from the words “And for the better Ordering” on lines 17 and 18 of that page to the words “allanarly, in whose Favours this Act is granted” on line 47 of page 6.
The Bank of Scotland Act 1873 (c. xcix)	The whole Act.
Bank of Scotland Act 1920 (c. xxxi)	The whole Act.
Bank of Scotland Order Confirmation Act 1954 (c. lvi)	Section 15 of the Schedule.

---