

CHAPTER v

An Act to make provision for the payment of pensions to widows and orphan children of officers of the corporation of London to repeal enactments rendered unnecessary by reason of the extinguishment of tithes in the city of London and for other purposes.

[23rd May 1950.]

WHEREAS by the City of London (Various Powers) Act 21 & 22 Geo. 5. 1931 provision was made for the establishment of a c. xiv. new superannuation fund for officers of the mayor and commonalty and citizens of the city of London acting by the mayor aldermen and commons of that city in common council assembled:

And whereas it is expedient that provision should be made for the payment of pensions to the widows and orphan children of such officers:

And whereas by the City of London (Tithes) Act 1947 provision was made for the extinguishment of tithes throughout the c. xxxi. city:

And whereas many Acts of Parliament have been passed authorising regulating and providing for the levy and collection of or otherwise relating to the tithes and it is expedient that such Acts or the relevant enactments contained therein should be repealed so far as they have been superseded by the said Act of 1947:

And whereas it is expedient that the other provisions in this Act contained should be enacted:

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say):—

Application to existing and future officers.

5.—(1) This Act shall apply to all persons who become officers after the passing of this Act.

(2) A person who is an officer at the passing of this Act may within a period of six months thereafter request the Corporation in writing to apply this Act to him.

(3) A person who is an unmarried officer at the passing of this Act may within a period of three months next following the date on which he first marries thereafter request the Corporation in writing to apply this Act to him.

(4) Upon receipt of any such request as is mentioned in subsections (2) and (3) of this section the Corporation may require the officer to prove to their satisfaction that he is in good health regard being had to his age and if an officer fails to do so the Corporation may refuse his request and shall notify him in writing of such refusal.

(5) Within a period of one month after the receipt of a notification of such refusal an officer shall be entitled to elect in writing that this Act shall apply to him as from the expiration of five years from the date of notification of such refusal.

—cont.

(6) Save as provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section this Act shall apply to the officers referred to in subsections (2) and (3) of this section as from the date of the receipt of their applications.

Provision for widows and children.

6.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act the Corporation shall on the death of a retired officer or of an officer to whom this Act applies pay in respect of his service—

(a) where he leaves a widow a pension to that widow (in this Act referred to as a “widow’s pension”); or

(b) where—

(i) his widow subsequently dies leaving children; or

(ii) he leaves children but no widow;
a pension for the benefit of such children (in this Act referred to as a “children’s pension”):

Provided that any marriage of the deceased which took place after he ceased to be an officer shall be disregarded for the purposes of this Act and references in this Act to a marriage a wife a widow or the children of the deceased shall be construed accordingly.

(2) A widow’s pension or children’s pension shall not be payable under this Act unless the deceased had at the date of his death completed not less than ten years’ service.

Reduced super-
allowances.

7. In the case of an officer to whom this Act applies section 13 (Scale of superannuation allowances) of the Act of 1931 shall be read and have effect as if for the words “ten-sixtieths” and “one-sixtieth” there were substituted the words “ten-seventieths” and “one-seventieth” respectively:

Provided that this section shall not apply in the case of an officer—

(a) in respect of whose service the Corporation was at no time subject to a liability upon his death to pay a widow’s pension or a children’s pension;

(b) in respect of the years of his service after the last date upon which the Corporation ceased to be subject to a liability upon his death to pay a widow’s pension or a children’s pension.

Widows’ pensions.

8.—(1) The amount of a widow’s pension shall be three-tenths of the amount of the reduced superannuation allowance of the deceased:

Provided that where—

(a) the age of the widow at the date of the death of her husband was less than that of her husband and she has no children or her children cease to be children; or

(b) the age of the widow at the date of the death of her husband was greater than that of her husband ;

a widow's pension shall be reduced or increased by such an amount as shall be certified to be just by the actuary.

(2) A widow's pension shall cease to be payable on her remarriage or in respect of any period during which she cohabits with a man as his wife but save as aforesaid shall be payable during the remainder of her life.

9.—(1) The amount of a children's pension shall be three-tenths of the reduced superannuation allowance of the deceased. Children's pensions.

(2) A children's pension shall be paid to such person as the Corporation may from time to time determine and shall be applied by such person for the benefit of the children of the deceased.

(3) A children's pension shall be payable until the children cease to be children.

10. A married female contributor to the fund whose husband is wholly or mainly dependent on her may request the Corporation in writing to apply this Act to her and if the Corporation is satisfied that her husband is so wholly or mainly dependent on her they shall notify her in writing accordingly and as from the date of such notification the provisions of this Act shall notwithstanding anything contained in section 4 (Definitions for Part II) of this Act apply to such female contributor as if references therein to— Application to female contributors.

(a) an "officer" or a "retired officer" meant references to her ;

Provided that for the purpose of paragraph (c) of this section the expression "widower" shall not include a male person who at the date of his wife's death was judicially separated from her :

Provided also that if after the said date of notification her said husband dies and she re-marries the subsequent marriage and the children thereof shall be disregarded for the purposes of this Act unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the Corporation that her husband by that marriage is wholly or mainly dependent on her.

11. Where on the death of a retired officer or of an officer to whom this Act applies a widow's pension or a children's pension is payable in respect of the service of that officer the provisions of section 18 (Payments at death in certain cases) and section 19 Payments or return of contributions in case of death.

(Return of contributions in case of death) of the Act of 1931 shall apply subject to the following modifications—

- (a) No sum shall be paid under either of the said sections so long as the widow's pension and the children's pension or either of them continues to be payable;
- (b) There shall be set off against any sum which would have been payable under either of the said sections the aggregate amount of the widow's pension and children's pension already paid.

Allocation of part of superannuation allowance to spouse or dependant.

12.—(1) In this section—

- (a) the words “or a female” shall be deemed to be inserted after the word “male” in the definition of “officer” in section 4 (Definitions for Part II) of this Act;
- (b) the expression “superannuation allowance” includes a reduced superannuation allowance.

(2) An officer who becomes entitled to a superannuation allowance may thereupon notify the Corporation in writing of his desire to surrender part of such allowance in consideration of the grant of a pension at his death to his spouse or any dependant of such value as shall be certified by the actuary to be the actuarial equivalent at the date on which he ceased to be employed of the value of that part of the allowance which is surrendered.

(3) When an officer has reached an age at which he would if he retired otherwise than on the grounds of ill-health be entitled to a superannuation allowance he may at any time before ceasing to be employed notify the Corporation in writing of his desire to surrender part of such allowance in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) of this section and if he dies before retirement but after the Corporation has agreed in writing to his request he shall be deemed to have become entitled to the allowance to which he would have become entitled had he retired on the day preceding the date of his death.

(4) Subject to such conditions as to proof of good health and other matters as the Corporation may require the Corporation shall permit an officer to surrender part of his superannuation allowance in accordance with his notification.

Superannuation fund.

13.—(1) All pensions payable under this Act shall be paid by the Corporation out of the fund.

(2) Any deficiency in the fund which may result from the payment of pensions under this Act shall be taken into account for the purposes of certifying the primary annual contribution in accordance with the provisions of section 21 (Actuarial investigation) of the Act of 1931.

14. It shall be the duty of every officer to whom this Act applies to give the Corporation all such information as is necessary for the proper operation of this Act whether he is asked to give the information or not.

—cont.

Duty to give information.

15. The Corporation may make regulations with regard to any matters as may be necessary for the proper operation of this Act and such regulations may include a requirement that the correctness of any statement shall be verified by a statutory declaration.
