

ANNO DECIMO SEPTIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Cap. lxi.

An Act for repealing an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, for establishing a Market for the Sale of Cattle in the Parish of Saint Mary Islington in the County of Middlesex.

[16th June 1854.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for establishing a Market for the Sale of 6 W. 4. c. iii. Cattle in the Parish of Saint Mary Islington in the County of Middlesex, Powers were granted for the Establishment of a Cattle Market upon certain Lands in such Parish: And whereas, in pursuance of such Powers, a Market for the Sale of Live Cattle was established, but the Holding thereof has been since discontinued as unprofitable: And whereas no Lease or Demise hath been made of the said Market or the Site thereof, or any Part thereof, or all or any of the Erections and Buildings erected and built on the said Site, to any Person or Persons: And whereas Edward Fellowes of Ramsey Abbey in the County of Huntingdon, Esquire, and William Mount of Wasing Place in the County of Berks, Esquire, are or claim to be entitled in Fee Simple to the Site of the said Market and the Lands held therewith: And whereas it is expedient that such Act be repealed, and that the Site of such Market, and the Land belonging or appurtenant thereto, or held and used therewith, or taken for the Purpose of the said Act, be discharged from all Liabilities in connexion with such Market; but the same cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same; (that is to say,)

[Local.] 10 R entitled

Islington Market Repeal Act, 1854.

Recited Act repealed, and Lands discharged from Liability to hold Market.

Such Lands to be vested in the Owners.

I. From the passing of this Act the recited Act is repealed, save and except so far as the same shall or may operate to vest any Land, Houses, and Buildings in John Perkins, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market; and from thenceforth all Right or Power to hold such Market, or take such Tolls as in such Act is provided, shall cease and determine; and all Lands taken for the Purposes of the repealed Act, or otherwise under the Provisions of such Act, shall be and the same are hereby vested in the Owners of the same Lands immediately prior to the passing of this Act, their Heirs and Assigns, for ever, discharged from all Liability to hold such Market, and from the Purposes of the said repealed Act.

Short Title.

II. In citing this Act for any Purpose, it shall be sufficient to use the Expression, "Islington Market Repeal Act, 1854."
