CHAPTER 7.

An Act to grant certain duties of Customs and Inland Revenue, to alter other duties, and to amend the Law relating to Customs and Inland Revenue and the National Debt, and to make other provision for the financial arrangements of the year. A.D. 1900.

[9th April 1900.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary supplies to defray Your Majesty's public expenses, and making an addition to the public revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the several duties herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

PART I.

CUSTOMS AND EXCISE.

This section shall not affect the continuance after the first day of August nineteen hundred and one of the duties existing prior to this section taking effect.

6. In addition to the duty of excise payable in respect of beer brewed in the United Kingdom there shall, as from the sixth day of March nineteen hundred until the first day of August nineteen hundred and one, be charged, levied, and paid—

Addition to excise duty on beer.

For every thirty-six gallons of worts of a specific gravity of one thousand and fifty-five degrees, the duty of one shilling, and in addition to the drawback of excise otherwise payable in respect of beer exported from the United Kingdom as merchandise

A.D. 1900. or shipped for use as ship's stores there shall be allowed and paid in respect of beer brewed in the United Kingdom, between the fifth day of March nineteen hundred and the first day of August nineteen hundred and one—

For every thirty-six gallons of beer of an original gravity of one thousand and fifty-five degrees, the drawback of one shilling, and so as to both duty and drawback in proportion for any difference in quantity or gravity.

Addition to excise duty on spirits.

7. In addition to the duty of excise payable for every gallon computed at proof of spirits distilled in the United Kingdom there shall, as from the sixth day of March nineteen hundred until the first day of August nineteen hundred and one, be charged, levied, and paid the duty of sixpence, and so in proportion for any less quantity.

Amendment and extension of 39 & 40 Vict. c. 36. s. 20.

8. Section twenty of the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876 (which has reference to the effect of changes of duty on existing contracts), shall apply to the imposition of new duties as well as to increases, decreases, or repeals, and as so amended shall apply to duties of excise as well as to duties of customs, with the substitution in the case of the excise duty on beer of the time of the charge of the duty for the time of the clearance and delivery from the warehouse.

Duty on warehoused goods.

9. The duty to be paid on goods or commodities deposited in a customs or excise warehouse is hereby declared to be the duty chargeable at the date of the actual removal of those goods or commodities from the warehouse, and if before that date any sums shall have been paid in respect of duty, the difference (if any) between the sums so paid and the actual duty chargeable shall be paid or repaid, as the case may be.

PART II.

STAMPS.

Conveyances on sale.

10. A conveyance on sale made for any consideration in respect whereof it is chargeable with ad valorem duty, and in further consideration of a covenant by the purchaser to make, or of his having previously made, any substantial improvement of or addition to the property conveyed to him, or of any covenant relating to the subject matter of the conveyance, is not chargeable, and shall be deemed not to have been chargeable, with any duty in respect of such further consideration.

PART III.

DEATH DUTIES.

Amendment of 57 & 58 Vict. c. 30. as to property passing on death.

11.—(1.) In the case of every person dying after the thirty-first day of March nineteen hundred, property whether real or personal in which the deceased person or any other person had an estate or interest limited to cease on the death of the deceased shall, for the purpose of the Finance Act, 1894, and the Acts amending that Act, be deemed to pass on the death of the deceased, notwithstanding that that estate or interest has been surrendered, assured, divested, or otherwise disposed of, whether for value or not, to or for the benefit of any person entitled to an estate or interest in remainder or reversion in such property, unless that surrender, assurance, divesting, or disposition was bonâ fide made or effected twelve months before the death of the deceased, and bonâ fide possession and enjoyment of the property was assumed thereunder immediately upon the surrender, assurance, divesting, or disposition, and thenceforward retained to the entire exclusion of the person who had the estate or interest limited to cease as aforesaid, and of any benefit to him by contract or otherwise.

A.D. 1900.

(2.) This section shall inter alia apply in Scotland to the conveyance or discharge of any life rent in favour of the fiar, or to the propulsion of the fee under any simple or tailzied destination.

12.—(1.) The exclusion enacted by the proviso to section four of the Finance Act, 1894, of property from aggregation shall in the case of every person dying after the passing of this Act cease to have effect, except as regards property in which the deceased never had an interest. Amendment of 57 & 58 Vict. c. 30. s. 4, as to aggregation.

Provided that where an interest in expectancy (within the meaning of Part I. of the Finance Act, 1894) in any property has before the passing of this Act been bonâ fide sold or mortgaged for full consideration in money or money's worth, then no other duty on such property shall be payable by the purchaser or mortgagee when the interest falls into possession than would have been payable if this section had not passed; and in the case of a mortgage any higher duty payable by the mortgagor shall rank as a charge subsequent to that of the mortgagee.

(2.) Where settled property passes, or is deemed to pass, on the death of a person dying after the passing of this Act under a disposition made by a person dying before the commencement of Part I. of the Finance Act, 1894, and such property would, if the donor had died after the commencement of the said Part, have been liable to Estate duty upon his death, the aggregation of such property, with other property passing upon the first-mentioned death, shall not operate to enhance the rate of duty payable either upon the settled property or upon any other property so passing by more than one half per cent. in excess of the rate at which duty would have been payable if such settled property had been treated as an estate by itself.

13.—(1.) For the purpose of determining the rate and the amount of duty, the exclusion under section seventeen of the Finance Act, 1896, of any fraction from the principal value of the estate shall in the case of every person dying after the passing of this Act cease to have effect. Amendment of 59 & 60 Vict. c. 28. s. 17, as to exclusion of fractions from value.

(2.) The Commissioners of Inland Revenue may, if they think fit, accept a statement by or on behalf of any accountable person as a correction of any Inland Revenue affidavit or account within

A.D. 1900. — the meaning of Part I. of the Finance Act, 1894, for the purposes of that Act and the Acts amending that Act, without requiring that statement to be verified on oath.

Remission of death duties in case of persons killed in war.

14.—(1.) Where any person dies from wounds inflicted, accident occurring, or disease contracted, within twelve months before death, while on active service against an enemy, whether on sea or land, and was, when the wounds were inflicted, the accident occurred, or the disease was contracted, either subject to the Naval Discipline Act or subject to military law, whether as an officer, non-commissioned officer, or soldier, under Part V. of the Army Act, the Treasury may, if they think fit, on the recommendation of the Secretary of State or of the Admiralty, as the case requires, remit, or in the case of duty already paid repay, up to an amount not exceeding one hundred and fifty pounds in any one case, the whole or any part of the death duties (within the meaning of subsection three of section thirteen of the Finance Act, 1894) leviable in respect of property passing upon the death of the deceased to his widow or lineal descendants if the total value for the purpose of estate duty of the property so passing does not exceed five thousand pounds.

57 & 58 Vict. c. 30.

(2.) This section shall take effect in the case of any person dying since the eleventh day of October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

PART IV.

INCOME TAX.

15.—(1.) Income tax for the year beginning on the sixth day of April nineteen hundred shall be charged at the rate of one shilling.

(2.) All such enactments relating to income tax as were in force on the fifth day of April nineteen hundred shall have full force and effect with respect to the duty of income tax hereby granted.

(3.) The annual value of any property, which has been adopted for the purpose either of income tax under Schedules A. and B. in the Income Tax Act, 1853, or of inhabited house duty, during the year ending on the fifth day of April nineteen hundred, shall be taken as the annual value of such property for the same purpose during the next subsequent year: provided that this section—

(a) so far as respects the duty on inhabited houses in Scotland, shall be construed with the substitution of the twenty-fourth day of May for the fifth day of April; and

(b) shall not apply to the metropolis as defined by the Valuation (Metropolis) Act, 1869.

16 & 17 Vict. c. 34.

32 & 33 Vict. c. 67.

PART V.

NATIONAL DEBT.

16. In the financial year ending on the thirty-first day of March nineteen hundred and one that portion of the permanent annual charge for the National Debt, which is not required for the annual charges directed by the National Debt and Local Loans Act, A.D. 1900. 1887, or any other Act to be paid out of that charge, shall not be paid.

50 & 51 Vict.
c. 16.

17. In the financial year ending the thirty-first day of March nineteen hundred and one the payment of such portions of the instalments of the terminable annuities mentioned in the First Schedule to this Act as may be certified to the Treasury, under the hand of the Comptroller-General or Assistant Comptroller and of the Actuary of the National Debt Office, to be applicable to the replacement of capital, shall be suspended, and the amount of the permanent annual charge for the National Debt shall accordingly in that year be reduced by an amount equal to the amount of the suspended payments.

Suspension of payments on account of capital of terminable annuities.

Provided that the Treasury shall, by warrant to the Bank of England, prolong the terminable annuities for a year.
