(2) The Committee, if they think fit to submit the amending scheme for confirmation, shall submit it to Parliament, or if the amending scheme is unopposed they may submit it to His Majesty in Council; and in the latter case it shall be lawful for His Majesty to confirm the amending scheme by Order in Council notwithstanding that the original scheme may have been confirmed by Parliament.

(2) The receipt of the guardian of an infant shall be a sufficient discharge to a local authority for any money payable to the infant in respect of a mortgage created by the local authority.

211.—(1) If at any time any principal money or interest due under a mortgage created by a local authority remains unpaid for a period of two months after demand in writing, the person entitled thereto may, without prejudice to any other remedy, apply to the High Court for the appointment of a receiver, and the Court may, if they think fit, appoint a receiver on such terms and with such powers as the Court think fit:

Provided that no such application shall be entertained unless the sums due to the applicant, or in the case of a joint application by two or more persons the aggregate sums due to them, amount to not less than five hundred pounds.

(2) The Court may confer upon the receiver any such powers of collecting, receiving and recovering the revenues of the local authority, and of making, collecting

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of section one hundred and ninety-eight of this Act, the payment of the first instalment or the first payment to the sinking fund shall be made within twelve months or, where the moneys are repayable by half-yearly instalments, within six months from the date of borrowing.

Sinking

(a) by payment to the fund throughout the fixed period of such equal annual sums as will be sufficient to pay off within that period the moneys for the repayment of which the sinking fund is formed; or

(b) by payment to the fund throughout the fixed period of such equal annual sums as, with accumulations at a rate not exceeding the prescribed rate, or such other rate as the Minister may in any particular case approve, will be sufficient to pay off within that period the moneys for the repayment of which the sinking fund is formed.

In this Part of this Act a sinking fund formed under paragraph (a) of this subsection is referred to as “a non-accumulating sinking fund,” and a sinking fund formed under paragraph (b) thereof as “an accumulating sinking fund.”

(3) In the case of an accumulating sinking fund, the interest received in any year from the investment of the sums set apart for the purposes of the sinking fund shall form part of the revenue for that year of the county fund or general rate fund, as the case may be, but the contribution to be made to the sinking fund out of the county fund or general rate fund, as the case may be, shall in that year be increased by a sum equal to the interest that would have accrued to the sinking fund during that year if interest had been accumulated therein at the rate per cent. per annum on which the annual payments to the sinking fund are based.

(4) A local authority may at any time apply the whole or any part of a sinking fund in or towards the discharge of the moneys for the repayment of which the sinking fund was formed :

Provided that, in the case of an accumulating sinking fund, the local authority shall pay into the fund each year and accumulate during the residue of the fixed period a sum equal to the interest which would have been produced by such sinking fund or part thereof so applied if invested at the rate per cent. per annum on which the annual payments to the sinking fund are based.

(5) Any surplus of a sinking fund remaining after the discharge of the whole of the moneys for the repayment of which it was formed shall be applied to such capital purpose as the local authority, with the consent of the Minister, may determine.

(6) Subsection (2) of this section shall apply to a sinking fund established by a local authority under any enactment for the repayment of moneys borrowed by way of mortgage, and subsections (3), (4) and (5) of this section shall apply to an accumulating sinking fund so established, in like manner as they respectively apply to a sinking fund or an accumulating sinking fund established under this Part of this Act.

(7) In the application of this section to a sinking fund formed by a parish council, references to the county fund or general rate fund shall be read as references to the fund out of which the expenses of the council are defrayed.

PART IX.

214.—(1) If at any time it appears to the local authority that the amount in a sinking fund, together with the sums which will be payable thereto in accordance with the provisions of this Part of this Act, and, in the case of an accumulating sinking fund, with the accumulations thereon, will not be sufficient to repay within the fixed period the moneys for the repayment of which the sinking fund is formed, the local authority shall, either temporarily or permanently, make such increased payments to the sinking fund as will cause the sinking fund to be sufficient for that purpose, and if it appears to the Minister that any such increase is necessary, the local authority shall increase the payments to such extent as the Minister may direct.

Adjust-

(2) If the local authority desire to accelerate the repayment of any moneys borrowed by way of mortgage, they may increase the amounts payable to the sinking fund.

(3) If the amount in a sinking fund, together with the sums which will be payable thereto in accordance with the provisions of this Part of this Act, and also, in the case of an accumulating sinking fund, together with the accumulations thereon, will in the opinion of the Minister be more than sufficient to repay within the fixed period the moneys for the repayment of which the sinking fund is formed, the local authority may reduce the payments to the sinking fund either temporarily or permanently to such amounts as will in the opinion of the Minister be sufficient to repay within the fixed period the moneys for the repayment of which the sinking fund is formed.

(4) If at any time the amount in a sinking fund, together with the accumulations thereon in the case of an accumulating sinking fund, will in the opinion of the Minister be sufficient to repay the moneys for the repayment of which the sinking fund is formed within the fixed period, the Minister may authorise the local authority to suspend the annual payments to the sinking fund until the Minister otherwise directs.

(5) This section shall apply to a sinking fund established by a local authority under any other enactment for the repayment of moneys borrowed by way of mortgage in like manner as it applies to a sinking fund established under this Part of this Act.

Supplementary Borrowing Powers.

Temporary loans, &c.

215.—(1) A local authority may, without the consent of any sanctioning authority, borrow by way of temporary loan or overdraft from a bank or otherwise, any sums which they may temporarily require—

- (a) for the purpose of defraying expenses (including the payment of sums due by them to meet the expenses of other authorities) pending the receipt of revenues receivable by them in respect of the period of account in which those expenses are chargeable and taken into account in the estimates made by the local authority for that period;
- (b) for the purpose of defraying, pending the raising of a loan which the authority have been authorised to raise, expenses intended to be defrayed by means of the loan.

(2) Where money is borrowed in pursuance of paragraph (b) of the preceding subsection and subsequently such a loan as is mentioned in that paragraph is raised, then for the purposes of the provisions of this Part of this Act regulating the repayment of that loan, the loan shall, to the extent of the sum borrowed under the said paragraph, be deemed to have been raised at the time when the borrowing under the said paragraph took place.

re-borrow.

- (a) paying off any moneys previously borrowed by the local authority which are intended to be repaid forthwith; or
- (b) replacing moneys which, during the preceding twelve months, have been temporarily applied from other moneys of the local authority in repaying moneys previously borrowed, and which at the time of such repayment it was intended to replace by borrowed moneys: PART IX.

Provided that a local authority shall not have power to borrow under this section—

- (a) for the purpose of making any payment to a sinking fund or of paying any instalment or making any annual payment which has or may become due in respect of borrowed moneys; or
- (b) for the purpose of replacing any moneys previously borrowed which have been repaid—
 - (i) by instalments or annual payments; or
 - (ii) by means of a sinking fund; or
 - (iii) out of moneys derived from the sale of land; or
 - (iv) out of any capital moneys properly applicable to the purpose of the repayment, other than moneys borrowed for that purpose.

(2) Any moneys borrowed under this section shall, for the purposes of repayment, be deemed to form part of the original loan, and shall be repaid within that portion of the fixed period which remains unexpired, and the provisions which are for the time being applicable to the original loan shall apply to the moneys borrowed under this section :

Provided that the authority who sanctioned the original loan may, upon application made to them for that purpose, extend the period for repayment of the moneys borrowed under this section so as to expire on such date as they think fit, not being later than the expiration of the maximum period which might have been permitted for the repayment of the original loan.

217. Nothing in this Part of this Act, except the Savings provisions relating to the making of returns to the Minister, shall apply to—

- (a) any mortgage or charge of corporate land, or the power conferred on the council of a borough

220.—(1) The Minister may, with the consent of the Treasury, appoint such number of district auditors as he thinks necessary for the performance of the duty of auditing the accounts which are for the time being by law subject to audit by district auditors, and may remove any auditor.

(2) The Minister may assign to district auditors their duties, and the districts in which they are respectively to act, and may change wholly or in part such duties or districts, and every district so assigned to a district auditor, whether originally or upon any change, shall be deemed to be an audit district, and the auditor to whom any district is assigned shall be deemed to be the district auditor for that district.

(3) The Minister may, with the consent of the Treasury, appoint, either temporarily or otherwise, assistant district auditors and other persons to assist district auditors in the performance of their duties, and any person so appointed shall have such of the functions of a district auditor as by the terms of his appointment the Minister may confer on him, and in the discharge of any functions so conferred shall be subject to the same obligations as the district auditor whom he is appointed to assist, and accordingly a reference in this Act to a district auditor shall, in relation to functions discharged by a person appointed under this subsection, include a reference to that person:

Provided that the powers of allowance, disallowance and surcharge shall not be conferred on any person appointed under this subsection not being an assistant district auditor.

(4) The Minister may, with the consent of the Treasury, assign to a person appointed to assist a district auditor such remuneration and such sum for his expenses as may seem fit.

221.—(1) The remuneration and expenses of district auditors, including the remuneration and expenses of persons appointed to assist district auditors, to such amount as may be sanctioned by the Treasury, shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.

(2) For the purpose of contributing to the amount required for the payment of the remuneration and expenses aforesaid and the superannuation allowances of district auditors and of persons appointed to assist district auditors, there shall be charged on every authority whose accounts are subject to audit by a district auditor a stamp duty according to such scale as may be fixed from time to time by the Treasury, after consultation with the Minister and with such associations of local authorities as appear to the Minister to be concerned, and the scale so fixed shall be such as to secure that the duties levied under this section shall be sufficient to meet the costs incurred in respect of the remuneration, expenses and superannuation allowances aforesaid :

Provided that the Treasury may, on the application of any authority, and after consultation with the Minister, direct that the stamp duty charged under this section in the case of that authority, shall, instead of being an amount calculated according to the scale to be fixed under this section, be such an amount, not exceeding the amount chargeable under the scale, as the Treasury think fit having regard to the cost of the audit of the accounts of that authority.

(3) The duties charged under this Part of this Act may, if the Commissioners of Inland Revenue so direct, be denoted by adhesive stamps.

(2) If any officer of the authority duly appointed in that behalf neglects to make up the aforesaid accounts and books, or, except with the consent of, or in accordance with directions given by, the district auditor, alters, or allows to be altered, the aforesaid accounts and books when so made up and deposited, or having the custody of such accounts and books refuses to allow inspection thereof, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

(3) Before each audit the authority, on receiving from the auditor the requisite appointment, shall, by advertisement in one or more local newspapers circulating in the district, give at least fourteen days' notice of the deposit of accounts required by this section, and the production of the newspaper containing such notice shall be sufficient proof of such notice in any legal proceeding:

Provided that no expenses paid by an authority shall be disallowed by the auditor, if they have been sanctioned by the Minister.

(2) Any loss represented by a charge for interest or any loss of interest shall be deemed to be a loss within the meaning of this section, if it arises from failure through wilful neglect or wilful default to make or collect such rates or to issue such precepts as are necessary to cover the expenditure of the authority for any financial year (including any expenditure incurred in any previous year and not covered by rates previously levied or precepts previously issued), or to collect other revenues.

229.—(1) Any person who is aggrieved by a decision of a district auditor on any matter with respect to which he made an objection at the audit, and any person aggrieved by a disallowance or surcharge made by a district auditor may, where the disallowance or surcharge or other decision relates to an amount exceeding five hundred pounds, appeal to the High Court, and may in any other case appeal either to the High Court or to the Minister.

auditors.

(2) The Court or Minister on such an appeal shall have power to confirm, vary or quash the decision of the auditor, and to remit the case to the auditor with such directions as the Court or Minister thinks fit for giving effect to the decision on appeal, and if the decision of the auditor is quashed, or is varied so as to reduce the amount of the surcharge to five hundred pounds or less, the appellant shall not be subject to the disqualification by reason of the surcharge imposed by Part II of this Act, or by the corresponding provision of any enactment relating to London.

(3) Where an appeal is made to the Minister under this section, he may at any stage of the proceedings, and shall, if so directed by the High Court, state in the form of a special case for the opinion of the Court any question of law arising in the course of the appeal, but save as aforesaid the decision of the Minister shall be final.

230.—(1) In the case of a surcharge, the person surcharged may, whether or not he appeals under the preceding section, apply to the tribunal (whether the High Court or the Minister) to whom he appeals or, if he does not appeal, to the tribunal (whether the High Court or the Minister) to whom he might have appealed, for a declaration that in relation to the subject matter of the surcharge he acted reasonably or in the belief that his action was authorised by law, and the Court or Minister, if satisfied that there is proper ground for doing so, may make a declaration to that effect.

Recovery of sums certified to be due.

233.—(1) Any sum which is certified by a district auditor to be due and has become payable shall, on complaint made or action taken by or under the direction of the district auditor, be recoverable either summarily or otherwise as a civil debt.

(2) In any proceedings for the recovery of such a sum, a certificate signed by a district auditor shall be conclusive evidence of the facts certified, and a certificate signed by the treasurer of the authority concerned or other officer whose duty it is to keep the accounts that the sum certified to be due has not been paid to him shall be conclusive evidence of non-payment, unless it is proved that the sum certified to be due has been paid since the date of the certificate.

Unless the contrary is proved, a certificate purporting to be signed by a district auditor, or by the treasurer of the authority or other officer whose duty it is to keep the accounts, shall be deemed to have been signed by such auditor, treasurer or other officer, as the case may be.

PART X.

234.—(1) Any expenses incurred by a district auditor in the defence of any allowance, disallowance or surcharge made by him shall, so far as not recovered from any other party and except as may otherwise be ordered by the Court or the Minister, as the case may be, be reimbursed to him out of the fund to which the accounts subject to the audit relate, and the Court or Minister may make such order as may seem fit in regard to the payment out of that fund of the expenses incurred by the appellant or applicant or any other party to the proceedings.

c. 6.

Ballot boxes to be sealed.

15. Immediately before the commencement of the poll, the presiding officer shall show the ballot box empty to such persons, if any, as may be present in the polling station, so that they may see that it is empty, and shall then lock it up and place his seal upon it in such manner as to prevent it being opened without breaking the seal, and shall place it in his view for the receipt of ballot papers, and keep it so locked and sealed.

Questions to be put to electors.

16.—(1) The presiding officer may, and, if required by two local government electors or by a candidate or his polling agent, shall, put to any person applying for a ballot paper at the time of his application, but not afterwards, the following questions, or either of them, that is to say :—

- (a) Are you the person registered in the register of local government electors now in force for this borough [or ward] as follows [read the whole entry from the register]?
- (b) Have you already voted at the present election [adding in the case of an election for several wards, in this or any other ward]?
- (2) A ballot paper shall not be delivered to any person required to answer the above questions, or either of them, unless he has answered the question or questions satisfactorily.
- (3) Save as by this paragraph authorised, no inquiry shall be permitted as to the right of any person to vote.

Challenge of elector by polling agent.

17.—(1) If at the time a person applies for a ballot paper, or after he has applied for a ballot paper and before he has left the polling station, a polling agent declares to the presiding officer that he has reasonable cause to believe that the applicant has committed an offence of personation under this Act, and undertakes to substantiate the charge in a court of law, the presiding officer may order a police officer to arrest the applicant, and the order of the presiding officer shall be sufficient authority for the police officer so to do.

(2) A person against whom a declaration is made under this paragraph by a polling agent shall not, by reason thereof, be prevented from voting, but the presiding officer shall cause the words "protested against for personation" to be placed against his name in the marked copy of the register of electors.

(3) A person arrested under the provisions of this paragraph shall be dealt with as a person taken into custody by a police officer for an offence without a warrant.

- (d) a mark shall be placed in the register against the number of the elector to denote that he has received a ballot paper, but without showing the particular ballot paper which he has received.

19. The elector, on receiving the ballot paper, shall forthwith proceed into one of the compartments in the polling station and there secretly mark his paper and fold it up so as to conceal his vote, and shall then show to the presiding officer the back of the paper, so as to disclose the official mark, and put the ballot paper, so folded up, into the ballot box in the presence of the presiding officer. The elector shall vote without undue delay, and shall leave the polling station as soon as he has put his ballot paper into the ballot box.

20.—(1) The presiding officer, on the application of—

- (a) an elector who is incapacitated by blindness or other physical cause from voting in manner directed by this Schedule; or
- (b) if the poll is taken on a Saturday, of an elector who declares that he is a Jew, and objects on religious grounds to vote in manner directed by this Schedule; or
- (c) of an elector who makes a declaration that he is unable to read (in this Schedule referred to as “the declaration of inability to read”) shall, in the presence of the polling agents, cause the vote of the elector to be marked on a ballot paper in manner directed by the elector, and the ballot paper to be placed in the ballot box.

(2) The name and number on the register of electors of every elector whose vote is marked in pursuance of this paragraph, and the reason why it is so marked, shall be entered on a list (in this Schedule called “the list of votes marked by the presiding officer”).

21.—(1) Where an elector who is accompanied by another person makes application to the presiding officer to be allowed on the ground of blindness to vote with the assistance of the person accompanying him (in this Schedule referred to as “the companion”), the presiding officer shall require the elector to declare orally whether he is so incapacitated by his blindness as to be unable to vote without assistance.

(2) If the presiding officer is satisfied that the elector is so incapacitated and is also satisfied by a written declaration made by the companion (in this Schedule referred to as “the declaration made by the companion of a blind elector”) that the companion is a qualified person within the meaning of this paragraph and has not previously assisted more than one blind person to vote at the election then being held, the presiding officer shall grant the application, and thereupon anything which is by this Schedule required to be done to or by the said elector in connection with the giving of his vote, may be done to, or with the assistance of, the companion, as the case may be.

—cont.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph a person shall be qualified to assist a blind elector to vote, if that person is either—

- (a) a person who is entitled to vote at the election then being held; or
- (b) the father, mother, brother, sister, husband, wife, son or daughter of the blind elector and has attained the age of twenty-one years.

(4) The name and number on the register of electors of every elector whose vote is given in accordance with this paragraph and the name and address of the companion shall be entered on a list (in this Schedule called “the list of blind electors assisted by companions”).

22.—(1) The declaration of inability to read and the declaration made by the companion of a blind elector—

- (a) shall be in the appropriate form set forth in Part IV of this Schedule, or as near thereto as circumstances admit; and
- (b) shall be made before the presiding officer at the time when the elector applies for a ballot paper or applies to vote with the assistance of the companion, as the case may be, and shall forthwith be handed to the presiding officer, who shall attest and retain it.

(2) No fee, stamp or other payment shall be charged in respect of the declaration.

Tendered ballot papers.

23. If a person, representing himself to be a particular elector named on the register, applies for a ballot paper after another person has voted as such elector, the applicant shall, upon satisfactorily answering the questions set out in paragraph 16 of this Part of this Schedule, be entitled to mark a ballot paper in the same manner as any other elector, but the ballot paper (in this Schedule called “a tendered ballot paper”) shall be of a colour differing from the other ballot papers, and instead of being put into the ballot box shall be given to the presiding officer and endorsed by him with the name of the elector and his number in the register of electors, and set aside in a separate packet, and shall not be counted by the returning officer; and the name of the elector and his number on the register together with the distinctive letter of the parliamentary polling district shall be entered on a list (in this Schedule called “the tendered votes list”).

Spoilt ballot papers.

24. An elector who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper in such manner that it cannot be conveniently used as a ballot paper may, on delivering it to the presiding officer and proving the fact of the inadvertence to the satisfaction of the presiding officer, obtain another ballot paper in the place of the ballot paper so delivered up (in this Schedule called "a spoilt ballot paper"), and the spoilt ballot paper shall be immediately cancelled.

Powers of presiding officer in adjourning poll.

25. For the purpose of the adjournment of the poll in the event of riot or open violence and of every other enactment relating to the poll, a presiding officer shall have the power by law belonging to a presiding officer at a parliamentary election.

Packets of ballot papers, &c., to be sealed.

26. As soon as practicable after the close of the poll, the presiding officer shall, in the presence of the polling agents, make up into separate packets, sealed with his own seal and the seals of such polling agents as desire to affix their seals,—

- (a) each ballot box in use at his station, sealed so as to prevent the introduction of additional ballot papers and unopened, but with the key attached;
- (b) the unused and spoilt ballot papers, placed together;
- (c) the tendered ballot papers;
- (d) the marked copies of the register of electors and the counterfoils of the ballot papers; and shall deliver the packets to the returning officer to be taken charge of by him.

27. The packets shall be accompanied by a statement (in this Schedule referred to as "the ballot paper account") made by the presiding officer showing the number of ballot papers entrusted to him, and accounting for them under the heads of—

- (a) ballot papers in the ballot box;
- (b) unused and spoilt ballot papers;
- (c) tendered ballot papers.

COUNTING OF VOTES.

2ND SCH.

28.—(1) Each candidate may appoint agents (in this Schedule referred to as "counting agents") to attend at the counting of the votes.

(2) Notice in writing of every appointment, stating the name and address of the person appointed, shall be given by the candidate to the returning officer two clear days at least before the opening of the poll; and the returning officer may refuse to admit to the place where the votes are counted any counting agent whose name and address has not been so given, notwithstanding that his appointment may be otherwise valid, and any notice required to be given to a counting agent by the returning officer may be delivered at or sent by post to the address stated in the notice.

(3) If a counting agent dies, or becomes incapable of acting, the candidate may appoint another counting agent in his place, and shall forthwith give to the returning officer notice in writing of the name and address of the counting agent so appointed.

29. The returning officer shall make arrangements for counting the votes in the presence of the counting agents as soon as practicable after the close of the poll, and shall give to the agents notice in writing of the time and place at which he will begin to count the votes.

The count.

30. Except with the consent of the returning officer, no person other than the returning officer, the persons appointed to assist him, and the candidates and their counting agents may be present at the counting of the votes.

31. Before the returning officer proceeds to count the votes, he shall, in the presence of the counting agents, open each ballot box and, taking out the ballot papers therein, shall count and record the number thereof, and then mix together the whole of the papers contained in the ballot boxes.

32. The returning officer, while counting and recording the number of ballot papers and counting the votes, shall keep the ballot papers with their faces upwards, and take all proper precautions for preventing any person from seeing the numbers printed on the back of the papers.

33. The returning officer shall, so far as practicable, proceed continuously with counting the votes, allowing only time for refreshment, and excluding (except so far as he may, with the concurrence of the counting agents, if any, otherwise determine) the hours between eight o'clock in the evening and nine o'clock on the succeeding morning. During the excluded time the returning officer shall place the ballot papers and other documents relating to the election under his own seal and the seals of such of the counting agents as desire to affix their seals, and shall otherwise take proper precautions for the security of the papers and documents.

Void ballot papers.

34. Any ballot paper—

- (a) which does not bear the official mark; or
- (b) on which votes are given for more candidates than the elector is entitled to vote for; or
- (c) on which anything is written or marked by which the elector can be identified except the printed number on the back; or
- (d) which is unmarked or void for uncertainty;

shall not be counted :

Provided that where the elector is entitled to vote for more than one candidate, the ballot paper shall not be deemed to be void as regards any vote as to which no uncertainty arises, and that vote shall be counted.

35.—(1) The returning officer shall endorse—

- (a) the word “ rejected ” on any ballot paper which under the last preceding paragraph is not to be counted; and
- (b) in the case of a ballot paper on which any vote is counted under the proviso to that paragraph, the words “ rejected in part ” and a memorandum specifying the votes counted.

(2) The returning officer shall in either case add to the endorsement the words “ rejection objected to,” if an objection is made by any counting agent to his decision.

(3) The returning officer shall draw up a statement showing the number of ballot papers rejected, including those rejected in part, under the several heads of—

- (a) want of official mark;
- (b) voting for more candidates than entitled to;
- (c) writing or mark by which elector could be identified;
- (d) unmarked or wholly void for uncertainty;
- (e) rejected in part;

and shall, on request, allow any counting agent to copy the statement.

36. The decision of the returning officer as to any question arising in respect of any ballot paper shall be final, but shall be subject to review on an election petition questioning the election.

Equality of votes.

37. Where an equality of votes is found to exist, and the addition of a vote would entitle any of the candidates to be declared elected, the returning officer, whether or not entitled to vote in the first instance, may give a casting vote by word of mouth or in writing.

*Declaration of result.*2ND SCH.

38.—(1) When the result of the poll has been ascertained, the returning officer shall forthwith declare to be elected the candidate or candidates to whom the majority of votes have been given, and shall as soon as possible publish the name or names of the candidate or candidates elected and the total number of votes given for each candidate, whether elected or not.

(2) The returning officer shall forthwith return the names of the persons elected, in the case of an election of a county councillor to the county returning officer, and in the case of an election of councillors of a borough to the town clerk of the borough.

(3) In the case of an election of a county councillor, the county returning officer shall forthwith return the name of the person elected to the clerk of the county council.

Disposal of ballot papers, &c. after poll.

39. Upon the completion of the counting the returning officer shall seal up in separate packets the counted and rejected ballot papers, including ballot papers rejected in part. He shall not open the sealed packet of tendered ballot papers or the sealed packet containing the marked copy of the register of electors and counterfoils, but shall proceed, in the presence of the counting agents, to verify the ballot paper account given by each presiding officer by comparing it with the number of ballot papers recorded by him under paragraph 31 of this Part of this Schedule, and the unused and spoilt ballot papers in his possession and the tendered votes list, and shall reseal each sealed packet after examination. The returning officer shall draw up a statement as to the result of the verification and shall, on request, allow any counting agent to copy the statement.

40. The returning officer shall forward to the clerk of the county council, in the case of an election of a county councillor, or to the town clerk of the borough, in the case of an election of councillors of a borough, all the packets of ballot papers in his possession, together with the said statements, the ballot paper accounts, tendered votes lists, lists of blind electors assisted by companions, lists of votes marked by the presiding officer, statements relating thereto, declarations made by the companions of blind electors, declarations of inability to read, packets of counterfoils, and marked copies of registers, sent by each presiding officer, endorsing on each packet a description of its contents and the date of the election to which they relate, and the name of the electoral division, borough or ward for which the election was held.

41.—(1) A county court having jurisdiction in the county or borough, as the case may be, or any part thereof, or an election court, on being satisfied by evidence on oath—

(a) that the inspection or production of any rejected ballot papers, including ballot papers rejected in part; or

(b) that the opening of the sealed packet of counterfoils or the inspection of counted ballot papers, is required for the purpose of instituting or maintaining a prosecution for an offence in relation to ballot papers, or for the purpose of a petition questioning an election, may make an order for the inspection or production of any such ballot papers or the opening of the sealed packet of counterfoils.

(2) An order made under this paragraph may be made subject to such conditions as to persons, time, place and mode of inspection or production of ballot papers or of opening the sealed packet of counterfoils as the court may think expedient, and may direct the clerk of the county council or the town clerk, as the case may be, having custody of the ballot papers and the sealed packet of counterfoils to retain them intact for such period as may be specified in the order.

(3) Any power given to a county court by this paragraph may be exercised by any judge of the county court otherwise than in open court.

(4) In making and carrying into effect an order under this paragraph, care shall be taken that the way in which any particular elector has voted shall not be disclosed, until it has been proved that he voted and his vote has been declared by a competent court to be invalid.

(5) An appeal shall lie to the High Court from any order of a county court made under this paragraph.

42. Except by order of a court made under the last preceding paragraph, no person shall be allowed to inspect any ballot papers in the custody of the clerk of the county council or the town clerk, as the case may be, or to open the sealed packet of counterfoils.

43. Where an order is made for the production by the clerk of the county council or town clerk of any document in his possession relating to any specified election, the production by that clerk or his agent of the document ordered, in such manner as may be directed by the order, shall be conclusive evidence that the document so produced relates to the specified election; and any endorsement appearing on any packet of ballot papers produced by that clerk or his agent shall be prima facie evidence of those papers being what they are stated to be by the endorsement. The production from proper custody of a ballot paper purporting to have been used at any election, and of a counterfoil marked with the same printed number and having a number marked thereon in writing shall be prima facie evidence that the person who voted by that ballot paper was the person who at the time of that election had affixed to his name in the register of electors at that election the same number as the number written on that counterfoil.

44. The clerk of the county council or the town clerk, as the case may be, shall retain for six months among the records of the county or borough all documents relating to an election forwarded to him by the returning officer in pursuance of this Schedule, and then, unless otherwise directed by an order made under paragraph 41 of this Part of this Schedule, shall cause them to be destroyed.

45. All documents forwarded by a returning officer in pursuance of this Schedule to the clerk of the county council or the town clerk, as the case may be, other than ballot papers and counterfoils, shall, during a period of six months from the day of election, be open to public inspection at such time and in such manner as may be determined by the county council or council of the borough, with the consent of the Secretary of State, and the clerk of the county council or town clerk shall supply copies of or extracts from the said documents to any person demanding the same on payment of such fees and subject to such conditions as may be determined by the county council or council of the borough with the consent of the Secretary of State.

46. Subject to the provisions of this Part of this Schedule, the clerk of the county council or the town clerk shall, in respect of the custody and destruction of ballot papers and other documents coming into his possession in pursuance of this Part of this Schedule, be subject to the directions of the county council or the council of the borough, as the case may be.

GENERAL PROVISIONS AS TO CONTESTED ELECTIONS.

47. The returning officer may, if he thinks fit, preside at a polling station, and the provisions of this Part of this Schedule relating to a presiding officer shall apply to a returning officer so presiding with the necessary modifications as to things to be done by the returning officer to the presiding officer, or by the presiding officer to the returning officer.

48.—(1) No returning officer, or officer appointed under this Schedule, or any partner or clerk of any such officer, shall act as a polling or counting agent.

(2) If any returning officer, or officer appointed under this Part of this Schedule, or the partner or clerk of any such officer, acts as a polling or counting agent in contravention of the provisions of this paragraph, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanour.

2ND SCH.

but before acting under this paragraph the candidate shall make the declaration of secrecy required to be made by agents.

52. Where in this Part of this Schedule any act or thing is required or authorised to be done in the presence of the agents of the candidates, the non-attendance of any agents or agent at the time and place appointed for the purpose shall not, if the act or thing is otherwise duly done, invalidate the act or thing done.

Prohibition of disclosure of vote.

53. No person who has voted at an election shall, in any legal proceeding to question the election, be required to state for whom he has voted.

Requirement of Secrecy.

54.—(1) Every returning officer, and every officer, polling agent or counting agent, authorised to attend at a polling station or at the counting of the votes, shall, before the opening of the poll, or in the case of an agent appointed after the opening of the poll, before acting as such agent, make a declaration of secrecy in the form set forth in Part IV of this Schedule, or in a form as near thereto as circumstances admit.

(2) In the case of a returning officer the declaration shall be made in the presence of a justice of the peace, and in the case of any other officer or of an agent, the declaration shall be made either in the presence of a justice of the peace or of the returning officer.

(3) Save as aforesaid, no such returning officer, officer or agent shall be required, as such, to make any declaration or to take any oath on the occasion of an election.

(4) Every returning officer, and every officer, polling agent or counting agent in attendance at a polling station or at the counting of the votes, shall maintain and aid in maintaining secrecy of the voting.

(5) No person, being a returning officer, or officer appointed under this Part of this Schedule, or polling agent or counting agent, shall—

- (a) interfere with or attempt to interfere with an elector when recording his vote; or
- (b) otherwise obtain or attempt to obtain in a polling station information as to the candidate for whom an elector in that station is about to vote or has voted; or
- (c) communicate at any time to any person any information obtained in a polling station as to the candidate for whom an elector in that station is about to vote or has voted, or as to the number on the back of the ballot paper given to an elector at that station; or
- (d) directly or indirectly induce an elector to display his ballot paper after he has marked it so as to make known to any person the name of the candidate for or against whom he has so marked his vote.

(7) No person having undertaken to assist a blind elector to vote shall communicate at any time to any person any information as to the candidate for whom that elector intends to vote or has voted, or as to the number on the back of the ballot paper given for the use of that elector.

(8) If any person acts in contravention of the provisions of this paragraph, he shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

55. Any justice of the peace, any returning officer and any presiding officer may take any declaration authorised by this Part of this Schedule to be made before him.

Keeping of order in station.

56.—(1) It shall be the duty of the presiding officer to keep order at his polling station:

(2) If any person misconducts himself in a polling station, or fails to obey the lawful orders of the presiding officer, he may immediately, by order of the presiding officer, be removed from the polling station by a police officer in or near that station, or by any other person authorised in writing by the returning officer to remove him; and the person so removed shall not, without the permission of the presiding officer, again enter the polling station during the day.

(3) Any person so removed may, if charged with the commission in the polling station of an offence, be dealt with as a person taken into custody by a police officer for an offence without a warrant.

(4) The powers conferred by this paragraph shall not be exercised so as to prevent an elector who is otherwise entitled to vote at a polling station from having an opportunity of voting at that station.

he shall not, so long as he holds that office or other public appointment or receives those increased emoluments, be entitled to receive any greater sum by way of compensation in respect of the office for which compensation is awarded than would make up the amount, if any, by which the emoluments which he is receiving falls short of the emoluments of the office in respect of which compensation was awarded :

Provided that where a person held two or more offices at the date as at which the compensation was assessed or has been awarded compensation in respect of two or more offices, the Minister may, on the application of that person or of any authority by whom the compensation is payable, modify the operation of the foregoing sub-paragraph in relation to that person so far as is, in the opinion of the Minister, necessary in order equitably to meet the circumstances of the case.
