Entertainment

37 Restriction on persons under 16 taking part in public performances, etc.

- [^{F3}(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a child shall not
- (a) take part in a performance to which subsection (2) of this section applies, or
 - (b) otherwise take part in a sport, or work as a model, where payment in respect of his doing so, other than for defraying expenses, is made to him or to another person,] except under the authority of a licence granted by the local authority in whose area he resides or, if he does not reside in Great Britain, by the local authority in whose area the applicant or one of the applicants for the licence resides or has his place of business.

- (2) This [^{F4}subsection] applies to—
- (a) any performance in connection with which a charge is made (whether for admission or otherwise);
 - [^{F5}(b) any performance in premises—
 - (i) which, by virtue of an authorisation (within the meaning of section 136 of the Licensing Act 2003), may be used for the supply of alcohol (within the meaning of section 14 of that Act), or
 - (ii) which are licensed premises (within the meaning of the Licensing (Scotland) Act [^{F6}2005 (asp 16)]);]
 - (c) any broadcast performance;
 - [^{F7}(d) any performance not falling within paragraph (c) above but included in a
 - ^{F8}(d) programme service (within the meaning of the Broadcasting Act 1990);]
 - (e) any performance recorded (by whatever means) with a view to its use in a broadcast or such a service or in a film intended for public exhibition;]

and a child shall be treated for the purposes of this section as taking part in a performance if he takes the place of a performer in any rehearsal or in any preparation for the recording of the performance.

- (3) A licence under this section shall not be required for any child to take part in a performance to which [^{F9}subsection (2) of] this section applies if [^{F9}no payment in respect of his taking part in the performance, other than for defraying expenses, is made to him or to another person, and—]
- (a) in the six months preceding the performance he has not taken part in other performances to which [^{F10}subsection (2) of] this section applies on more than three days; or
 - (b) the performance is given under arrangements made by a school (within the meaning of [^{F11}the Education Act 1996] or the ^{M2}Education (Scotland) Act 1962) or made by a body of persons approved for the purposes of this section by the Secretary of State or by the local authority in whose area the performance takes place, ^{F12} . . . ;

but the Secretary of State may by regulations made by statutory instrument prescribe conditions to be observed with respect to the hours of work, rest or meals of children taking part in performances as mentioned in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

- (4) The power to grant licences under this section shall be exercisable subject to such restrictions and conditions as the Secretary of State may by regulations made by statutory instrument prescribe and a local authority shall not grant a licence for a child to [^{F13}do anything] unless they are satisfied that he is fit to [^{F13}do it], that proper provision has been made to secure his health and kind treatment and that, having regard to such provision (if any) as has been or will be made therefor, his education will not suffer; but if they are so satisfied, in the case of an application duly made for a licence under this section which they have power to grant, they shall not refuse to grant the licence.

- (5) Regulations under this section may make different provision for different circumstances and may prescribe, among the conditions subject to which a licence is to be granted, conditions requiring the approval of a local authority and may provide for that approval to be given subject to conditions imposed by the authority.
- (6) Without prejudice to the generality of the preceding subsection, regulations under this section may prescribe, among the conditions subject to which a licence may be granted, a condition requiring sums earned by the child in respect of whom the licence is granted in [^{F14}any activity] to which the licence relates to be paid into the county court (or, in Scotland, consigned in the sheriff court) or dealt with in a manner approved by the local authority.
- (7) A licence under this section shall specify the times, if any, during which the child in respect of whom it is granted may be absent from school for the purposes authorised by the licence; and for the purposes of the enactments relating to education a child who is so absent during any times so specified shall be deemed to be absent with leave granted by a person authorised in that behalf by the managers, governors or proprietor of the school or, in Scotland, with reasonable excuse.
- (8) Any statutory instrument made under this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

39 Supplementary provisions as to licences under section 37.

- (1) A licence under section 37 of this Act may be varied on the application of the person holding it by the local authority by whom it was granted or by any local authority in whose area ^{F17}any activity] to which it relates takes place.
- (2) The local authority by whom such a licence was granted and any local authority in whose area ^{F17}any activity] to which it relates takes place, may vary or revoke the licence if any condition subject to which it was granted is not observed or they are not satisfied as to the matters mentioned in subsection (4) of the said section 37, but shall, before doing so, give to the holder of the licence such notice (if any) of their intention as may be practicable in the circumstances.
- (3) Where a local authority grant such a licence authorising a child to ^{F18}do something] in the area of another local authority they shall send to that other authority such particulars as the Secretary of State may by regulations made by statutory instrument prescribe; and where a local authority vary or revoke such a licence which was granted by, or relates ^{F18}to an activity] in the area of, another local authority, they shall inform that other authority.
- (4) A local authority proposing to vary or revoke such a licence granted by another local authority shall, if practicable, consult that other authority.
- (5) The holder of such a licence shall keep such records as the Secretary of State may by regulations made by statutory instrument prescribe and shall on request produce them to an officer of the authority who granted the licence, at any time not later than six months after ^{F19}the occasion or last occasion] to which it relates.
- (6) Where a local authority refuse an application for a licence under section 37 of this Act or revoke or, otherwise than on the application of the holder, vary such a licence they shall state their grounds for doing so in writing to the applicant or, as the case may be, the holder of the licence; and the applicant or holder may appeal to a magistrates' court or, in Scotland, the sheriff, against the refusal, revocation or variation, and against any condition subject to which the licence is granted or any approval is given, not being a condition which the local authority are required to impose.
- (7) Any statutory instrument made under this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
