PART V

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

90 Stamp duty: conveyances and transfers.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, any instrument whereby property is conveyed or transferred to any person in contemplation of a sale of that property shall be treated for the purposes of the ^{M1}Stamp Act 1891 as a conveyance or transfer on sale of that property for a consideration equal to the value of that property.
- (2) If on a claim made to the Commissioners not later than two years after the making or execution of an instrument chargeable with duty in accordance with subsection (1) of this section, it is shown to their satisfaction—
 - (a) that the sale in contemplation of which the instrument was made or executed has not taken place and the property has been re-conveyed or re-transferred to the person from whom it was conveyed or transferred or to a person to whom his rights have been transmitted on death or bankruptcy; or
 - (b) that the sale has taken place for a consideration which is less than the value in respect of which duty was paid on the instrument by virtue of this section,the Commissioners shall repay the duty paid by virtue of this section, in a case falling under paragraph (a) of this subsection, so far as it exceeds the stamp duty which would have been payable apart from this section and, in a case falling under paragraph (b) of this subsection, so far as it exceeds the stamp duty which would have been payable if the instrument had been stamped in accordance with subsection (1) of this section in respect of a value equal to the consideration in question:

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2001.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 1965. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) No instrument chargeable with duty in accordance with subsection (1) of this section shall be deemed to be duly stamped unless the Commissioners have been required to express their opinion thereon under section 12 of the said Act of 1891 and have expressed their opinion thereon in accordance with that section.
- (4) The foregoing provisions of this section shall apply whether or not an instrument conveys or transfers other property in addition to the property in contemplation of the sale of which it is made or executed, but those provisions shall not affect the stamp duty chargeable on the instrument in respect of that other property.
- (5) For the purposes . . . ^{F19}of subsection (1) of this section, the value of property conveyed or transferred by an instrument chargeable with duty in accordance with [^{F20}that subsection] shall be determined without regard to—
- (a) any power (whether or not contained in the instrument) on the exercise of which the property, or any part of or any interest in, the property, may be revested in the person from whom it was conveyed or transferred or in any person on his behalf;
 - (b) any annuity reserved out of the property or any part of it, or any life or other interest so reserved, being an interest which is subject to forfeiture;
- but if on a claim made to the Commissioners not later than two years after the making or execution of the instrument it is shown to their satisfaction that any such power as is mentioned in paragraph (a) of this subsection has been exercised in relation to the property and the property or any property representing it has been re-conveyed or re-transferred in the whole or in part in consequence of that exercise the Commissioners shall repay the stamp duty paid by virtue of this subsection, in a case where the whole of such property has been so re-conveyed or re-transferred, so far as it exceeds the stamp duty which would have been payable apart from this subsection and, in any other case, so far as it exceeds the stamp duty which would have been payable if the instrument had operated to convey or transfer only such property as is not so re-conveyed or re-transferred.
- (6) This section shall be construed as one with the said Act of 1891.
- (7) This section shall come into force on 1st August 1965.

[92] Grants towards duty charged on bus fuel.

- (1) There shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament the expenses of making such grants as [^{F22}the Secretary of State], in his discretion and on such conditions as he thinks fit to impose, may make to operators of bus services towards defraying customs or excise duty charged on fuel used in operating . . . ^{F23}after the commencement of section 2 of the ^{M3}Finance (No. 2) Act 1964 (which increased by sixpence a gallon the duty on hydrocarbon oils, petrol substitutes and power methylated spirits) [^{F24}a bus service which is of a description specified for the purposes of this section and which meets any conditions which may be specified in relation to that description of service.]
- (2) The method of calculating the said grants shall be such as [^{F22}the Secretary of State] may with the approval of the Treasury from time to time determine, either generally or in particular cases or classes of case [^{F25}but the amount of a grant shall not exceed such sum as for every gallon of fuel used or estimated to have been used in operating the bus service during the period to which the grant relates as the Treasury may from time to time approve, being a sum not greater than the rate per gallon of the duty of excise chargeable on [^{F26}light oil] produced in the United Kingdom at the date of use of the fuel, including any addition to that duty by virtue of an order under [^{F27}section 1 of the ^{M4}Excise Duties (Surcharges or Rebates) Act 1979].]
- (3) If the operator of a bus service fails without reasonable excuse (the proof whereof shall be on him) to comply with a condition imposed on him as mentioned in subsection (1) of this section—
 - (a) requiring the compiling, preservation or production of running sheets, accounts or other records relating to the operation of the service; or
 - (b) requiring facilities to be afforded for the inspection, removal or copying of such records;he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F28}level 3 on the standard scale].
- (4) If any person—
 - (a) knowingly or recklessly makes any false statement for the purpose of obtaining the payment to himself or another of any sum under this section; or
 - (b) wilfully makes a false entry in any running sheet, account or other record which is or may be required to be produced in pursuance of any condition such as is mentioned in subsection (1) of this section or, with intent to deceive, makes use for the purposes of this section of any such record which he knows to be false;

he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or a fine not exceeding £100 or both, or on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine or both.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2001.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 1965. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) Where an offence under this section which has been committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he as well as the body corporate shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.
- (6) No proceedings for an offence under this section shall be instituted in England and Wales except by or with the consent of the Minister of Transport or the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- (7) [^{F29}Section 127(1) of the ^{M5}Magistrates' Courts Act 1980] and [^{F30}section 331 of the ^{M6}Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1975] (summary proceedings to be commenced within six months from commission of offence) shall apply to offences under this section with the substitution of a reference to three years for each reference to six months:
Provided that this subsection shall not enable an information to be tried in England and Wales or proceedings to be heard in Scotland where the information was laid or the proceedings were commenced more than twelve months after evidence sufficient in the opinion of the appropriate authority to justify them came to his knowledge; and for this purpose a certificate of the appropriate authority as to the date on which such evidence came to his knowledge shall be conclusive evidence.
In this subsection "the appropriate authority" means the Minister of Transport, or in the case of proceedings which are brought by or with the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions or, in Scotland, are not preceded by a report of the facts made by the Minister of Transport to the Lord Advocate, means the Director of Public Prosecutions or the Lord Advocate as the case may be.
- [In this section—
- ^{F31}(8) "bus service" means a local service within the meaning of the Transport Act 1985 other than an excursion or tour within the meaning of that Act, being a service which is either—
- (a) registered under Part I of that Act [^{F32}or provided under a quality contract (within the meaning of Part 2 of the Transport (Scotland) Act 2001 (asp 2)]; or
 - (b) provided under a London local service licence granted under Part [^{F33}II of the Transport Act 1985]or exempt by virtue of section 36 of that Act (London bus services under control of London Regional Transport) from the requirement of a London local service licence;
- "operator" has the same meaning, in relation to a bus service, as in that Act; and
"specified" means specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State by statutory instrument.
- (8A) Any statutory instrument containing regulations made under this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.]
- (9) The foregoing provisions of this section shall not extend to Northern Ireland, . . . ^{F34}]
