

Road Traffic Regulation Act 1967

1967 CHAPTER 76

Traffic signs

68 Ministers' powers to make advances for erection, etc., of traffic signs.

- (1) The appropriate Minister may, out of moneys provided by Parliament, make advances towards any expenses incurred by a council or local authority, on whom any obligation is imposed by or under this Act in relation to the erection, maintenance, alteration or removal of traffic signs, in the discharge of that obligation.
- (2) An advance under this section may be either by way of grant or by way of loan or partly in the one way and partly in the other, and shall be upon such terms and subject to such conditions as the appropriate Minister thinks fit.
- (3) The power of the Minister under this section to make advances towards expenses incurred in relation to traffic signs shall be exercisable with respect to any expenses incurred by the Greater London Council in relation to the erection, maintenance, alteration or removal of such signs.
- (4) The power of the appropriate Minister under this section to make advances towards expenses incurred in relation to traffic signs shall be exercisable with respect to any expenses incurred under section 56A of this Act by an authority to whom that section applies or by a highway authority.
