Operators' licences

60 Users of certain goods vehicles to hold operators' licences.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section and to the other provisions of this Part of this Act, no person shall, after the appointed day for the purposes of this section, use a goods vehicle on a road for the carriage of goods—
 - (a) for hire or reward; or
 - (b) for or in connection with any trade or business carried on by him, except under a licence granted under this Part of this Act (hereafter in this Part of this Act referred to as an “operator’s licence”).
- (2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply—
 - (a) to the use of a small goods vehicle as defined in subsection (4) of this section; or
 - (b) to the use of a vehicle of any class specified in regulations ^{F5}; or
 - (c) to the use of a goods vehicle for international carriage by a haulier established in a member State other than the United Kingdom and not established in the United Kingdom; or
 - (d) to the use of a goods vehicle for international carriage by a haulier established in Northern Ireland and not established in Great Britain.]
- (3) It is hereby declared that, for the purposes of this Part of this Act, the performance by a local or public authority of their functions constitutes the carrying on of a business.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a) of this section a small goods vehicle is a goods vehicle which—
 - (a) does not form part of a vehicle combination and has a relevant plated weight not exceeding ^{F6}3.5 tonnes] or (not having a relevant plated weight) has an unladen weight not exceeding ^{F6}1525 kilograms]; or
 - (b) forms part of a vehicle combination (not being an articulated combination) which is such that—
 - (i) if all the vehicles comprised in the combination (or all of them except any small trailer) have relevant plated weights, the aggregate of the relevant plated weights of the vehicles comprised in the combination (exclusive of any such trailer) does not exceed ^{F6}3.5 tonnes];
 - (ii) in any other case, the aggregate of the unladen weights of those vehicles (exclusive of any such trailer) does not exceed ^{F6}1525 kilograms]; or
 - (c) forms part of an articulated combination which is such that—
 - (i) if the trailer comprised in the combination has a relevant plated weight, the aggregate of the unladen weight of the motor vehicle comprised in the combination and the relevant plated weight of that trailer does not exceed ^{F6}3.5 tonnes];
 - (ii) in any other case, the aggregate of the unladen weights of the motor vehicle and the trailer comprised in the combination does not exceed ^{F6}1525 kilograms].

Status: Point in time view as at 03/11/1994. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

61 Authorised vehicles.

(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, the vehicles authorised to be used under an operator’s licence shall be—

- (a) such motor vehicles, being vehicles belonging to the holder of the licence or in his possession under an agreement for hire-purchase, hire or loan, as are specified in the licence;
- (b) trailers from time to time belonging to the holder of the licence or in his possession under an agreement for hire-purchase, hire or loan, not exceeding at any time such maximum number as is specified in the licence;
- (c) unless the licence does not permit the addition of authorised vehicles under this paragraph and subject to subsection (3) of this section, motor vehicles not exceeding such maximum number as is specified in the licence, being vehicles belonging to the holder of the licence or in his possession under an agreement for hire-purchase, hire or loan, but acquired by him, or coming into his possession under such an agreement, only after the grant of the licence.

For the purposes of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection different types of trailers or different types of motor vehicles, as the case may be, may be distinguished in a licence and a maximum number may be specified in the licence for trailers or vehicles of each type.

(2) An operator’s licence shall not authorise the use of any vehicle unless the place which is for the time being its operating centre—

- (a) is in the area of the licensing authority by whom the licence was granted; or
- (b) is outside that area and has not been the operating centre of that vehicle for a period of more than three months.

For the purposes of paragraph (b) of this subsection, two or more successive periods which are not separated from each other by an interval of at least three months shall be treated as a single period having a duration equal to the total duration of those periods.

- (3) A motor vehicle which, after the grant of an operator's licence, is acquired by the holder of the licence, or comes into his possession under an agreement for hire-purchase, hire or loan, and thereupon becomes an authorised vehicle by virtue of subsection (1)(c) of this section, shall cease to be an authorised vehicle on the expiration of one month from the date on which it was acquired by him or came into his possession unless before the expiration of that period he delivers to the licensing authority a notice in such form as the authority may require to the effect that the vehicle has been acquired by him, or has come into his possession, as the case may be.
- (4) Where the licensing authority by whom a licence was granted receives a notice under subsection (3) of this section to the effect that the holder of the licence has acquired, or come into possession of, a vehicle as mentioned in that subsection, he shall, if the vehicle has become an authorised vehicle by virtue of subsection (1)(c) of this section, vary the licence by directing that the vehicle be specified therein.
- (5) A motor vehicle specified in an operator's licence shall not, while it remains so specified, be capable of being effectively specified in any other operator's licence.
- (6) Where it comes to the knowledge of the licensing authority by whom an operator's licence was granted that a vehicle specified therein—
 - (a) has ceased to be used under the licence (otherwise than because of a fluctuation in business or because it is undergoing repair or maintenance); or
 - (b) is specified in another operator's licence, he may vary the licence by directing that the vehicle be removed therefrom.

[^{F10}61A Maximum numbers of vehicles.

- (1) An operator's licence—
 - (a) shall specify a maximum number for motor vehicles; and
 - (b) may specify a maximum number for motor vehicles the relevant weight of which exceeds a weight specified in the licence.
- (2) An operator's licence that does not contain a provision such as is mentioned in section 61(1A)(c) of this Act—
 - (a) shall specify a maximum number for trailers; and
 - (b) may specify a maximum number for trailers the relevant weight of which exceeds a weight specified in the licence.
- (3) The number of vehicles being used under an operator's licence by virtue of section 61(1)(c) of this Act at any one time may not exceed the maximum number specified in the licence under subsection (1)(a) of this section, less however many motor vehicles are specified in the licence.
- (4) Where under subsection (1)(b) of this section an operator's licence specifies a maximum number for motor vehicles the relevant weight of which exceeds a specified weight—

Status: Point in time view as at 03/11/1994. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the number of such vehicles being used under the licence by virtue of section 61(1)(c) of this Act at any one time may not exceed that maximum number, less however many motor vehicles the relevant weight of which exceeds the specified weight are specified in the licence; and
 - (b) the number of such vehicles that are specified in the licence and being used under it at any one time may not exceed that maximum number.
- (5) The number of trailers being used under an operator’s licence at any one time may not exceed the maximum number specified in the licence under subsection (2)(a) of this section.
- (6) Where under subsection (2)(b) of this section an operator’s licence specifies a maximum number for trailers the relevant weight of which exceeds a specified weight, the number of such trailers being used under the licence at any one time may not exceed that maximum number.
- (7) The definition of “relevant weight” in section 61(1B) of this Act applies for the purposes of this section as it applies for the purposes of section 61(1A).
- (8) If subsection (3), (4)(a) or (b), (5) or (6) of this section is contravened, the licence-holder shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale.]

62 Applications for operators’ licences.

- (1) A person may apply for an operator’s licence to the licensing authority for each area in which, if the licence is granted, the applicant will have an operating centre or operating centres; and a person may hold separate operators’ licences in respect of different areas but shall not at any time hold more than one such licence in respect of the same area.
- (2) A person applying for an operator’s licence shall give to the licensing authority a statement giving such particulars as the authority may require of the motor vehicles proposed to be used under the licence which—
- (a) belong to the applicant, or
 - (b) are in his possession under an agreement for hire-purchase, hire or loan, or
 - (c) he intends, if the application is granted, to acquire, or to obtain possession of under such an agreement,
- and also stating the number and type of any trailers proposed to be so used.
- (3) ^{F11}
- (4) A person applying for an operator’s licence shall give to the licensing authority any further information which he may reasonably require for the discharge of his duties in relation to the application, and in particular shall, if he is required by the licensing authority so to do, give to him—
- (a) such particulars as he may require with respect to the purposes for which the vehicles referred to in the statement under subsection (2) of this section are proposed to be used;

- (b) particulars of the arrangements for securing that Part VI of this Act (or, so long as those sections remain in force, sections 73 and 186 of the Act of 1960) will be complied with in the case of those vehicles, and for securing that those vehicles are not overloaded;
- (c) particulars of the facilities and arrangements for securing that those vehicles will be maintained in a fit and serviceable condition;
- (d) particulars of any activities carried on, at any time before the making of the application, by—
 - (i) the applicant,
 - (ii) any company of which the applicant is or has been a director;
 - (iii) where the applicant is a company, any person who is a director of the company;
 - (iv) where the applicant proposes to operate the said vehicles in partnership with other persons, any of those other persons;
 - (v) any company of which any such person as is mentioned in subparagraph (iii) or (iv) of this paragraph is or has been a director;
 - (vi) any company of which the applicant is a subsidiary, being activities in carrying on any trade or business in the course of which vehicles of any description are operated, or as a person employed for the purposes of any such trade or business, or as a director of a company carrying on any such trade or business;
- (e) particulars of any convictions during the five years preceding the making of the application—
 - (i) of the applicant; and
 - (ii) of any other person as to whose activities particulars may be required to be given under paragraph (d) of this subsection, being convictions such as are mentioned in subsection (4) of section 69 of this Act (taking references in that subsection to the holder of the licence as references to the applicant or, as the case may be, to that other person);
- (f) particulars of the financial resources which are or are likely to be available to the applicant;
- (g) where the applicant is a company, the names of the directors and officers of the company, and of any company of which the first-mentioned company is a subsidiary, and where the authorised vehicles are proposed to be operated by the applicant in partnership with other persons, the names of those other persons.

[^{F12}(4A) A person who has applied for an operator’s licence shall forthwith notify the licensing authority if, in the interval between the making of the application and the date on which it is disposed of, a conviction occurs which, if the period of five years specified in paragraph (e) of subsection (4) of this section had not expired, would be a conviction falling within that paragraph; and for the purposes of this subsection an application shall be taken to be disposed of,—

- (a) if the licensing authority is required, by virtue of regulations under section 91 of this Act, to cause a statement containing his decision on the application to be issued, on the date on which that statement is issued, and
- (b) in any other case, on the date on which the applicant receives notice from the licensing authority of his decision on the application.

in any case thinks fit, paragraph (e) of that subsection, are satisfied, and in doing so shall have regard to any objection duly made under section 63 of this Act.

(2) The said requirements are as follows—

- (a) that the applicant is a fit person to hold an operator’s licence, having regard to the matters of which particulars may be required to be given under section 62(4)(d) and (e) of this Act [^{F29}and to any conviction required to be notified in accordance with section 62(4A) thereof];
- (b)^{F30}
- (c) that there will be satisfactory arrangements for securing that Part VI of this Act (or, so long as those sections remain in force, sections 73 and 186 of the Act of 1960) will be complied with in the case of the authorised vehicles, and for securing that those vehicles are not overloaded;
- (d) that there will be satisfactory facilities and arrangements for maintaining the authorised vehicles in a fit and serviceable condition [^{F31}and that the place which is to be the operating centre for those vehicles is suitable for that purpose];
- (e) that the provision of such facilities and arrangements as are mentioned in paragraph (d) of this subsection [^{F32}and of a suitable operating centre] will not be prejudiced by reason of the applicant’s having insufficient financial resources for that purpose.

(3) If the licensing authority determines that any requirement which he has taken into consideration in accordance with subsection (1) of this section is not satisfied, he shall refuse the application but, in any other case, he shall, subject to subsection (4) of this section [^{F33}and section 69B of this Act], grant the application.

(4) In any case in which the licensing authority grants an application for an operator’s licence, the licensing authority may issue that licence in the terms applied for or, if the authority thinks fit, subject to either or both of the following modifications or limitations, that is to say—

- (a) so that the licence is in respect of motor vehicles other than those of which particulars were contained in the application, or in respect of motor vehicles or trailers greater or less in number than, or differing in type from, those for the use of which authorisation was applied for;
- (b) so that the licence does not permit the addition of authorised vehicles under section 61(1)(c) of this Act.

(5) In exercising his functions under this section in relation to the requirement mentioned in subsection (2)(e) thereof, a licensing authority may be assisted by an assessor drawn from a panel of persons appointed by the Minister for that purpose; and there shall be paid by the licensing authority to any such assessor in respect of his services remuneration on a scale prescribed by the Minister with the approval of the Treasury.

^{F34} 64A Issue of operators' licences.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section and to sections 64B, 66, 69B, 69C and 89(2) of this Act, on granting an application for an operator's licence, the licensing authority shall issue that licence in the terms applied for.
- (2) If the authority has determined that any of the requirements of section 64(3) or (4) of this Act that he has taken into consideration in accordance with section 64(1) of this Act would not be satisfied unless he exercised any of his powers under subsection (3) of this section, he shall exercise those powers accordingly.
- (3) The authority may issue the licence in terms that differ from the terms applied for in any of the following respects—
 - (a) more or fewer motor vehicles are specified in the licence;
 - (b) different motor vehicles are specified in it;
 - (c) it includes a provision such as is mentioned in section 61(1A) of this Act;
 - (d) it includes a provision such as is mentioned in section 61A(1)(b) or (2)(b) of this Act;
 - (e) higher or lower maximum numbers are specified in it under section 61A of this Act;
 - (f) fewer places are specified in it as operating centres of the licence-holder.
- (4) Any undertakings taken into account by the authority under section 64(6) of this Act that he considers to be material to the granting of the application shall be recorded in the licence issued.

^{F35} 64B Conditions for securing road safety.

- (1) A licensing authority, on granting an operator's licence or on varying such a licence under section 68 of this Act, may attach to it such conditions as he thinks fit for preventing vehicles that are authorised to be used under the licence from causing danger to the public—
 - (a) at any point where vehicles first join a public road on their way from an operating centre of the licence-holder (or last leave a public road on their way to such an operating centre); and
 - (b) on any road (other than a public road) along which vehicles are driven between such a point and the operating centre.
- (2) On varying an operator's licence under section 68 of this Act, the licensing authority may vary or remove any condition attached to the licence under this section.

- (3) The licensing authority shall not—
- (a) attach to an operator’s licence any condition such as is mentioned in this section; or
 - (b) vary in such manner as imposes new or further restrictions or requirements any condition attached to an operator’s licence under this section, without first giving the applicant for the licence or (as the case may be) the licence-holder an opportunity of making representations to the authority with respect to the effect on his business of the proposed condition or variation.
- (4) The licensing authority shall give special consideration to any representations made under subsection (3) of this section in determining whether to attach the proposed condition or make the proposed variation.
- (5) In this section as it applies in relation to England and Wales, “public road” means a highway maintainable at the public expense for the purposes of^{M1} the Highways Act 1980.
- (6) Any person who contravenes any condition attached under this section to a licence of which he is the holder shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale.]

67 Duration of operators' licences and grant of interim licences.

- (1) There shall be specified in every operator's licence the date on which the licence is to come into force.
- (2) Regulations may specify the dates in the year on which operators' licences shall expire, and, subject to subsections (4) and (5) of this section, an operator's licence shall, unless previously revoked, [^{F38}or prematurely terminated under section 69 of this Act] continue in force up till and including that one of the specified dates which occurs next before the expiration of the period of five years beginning with the date on which the licence came into force, or of such other period beginning with that date as the licensing authority may in accordance with the next following subsection direct.
- (3) The licensing authority may, on granting an operator's licence, direct that in the case of that licence the period relevant for the purposes of subsection (2) of this section—
- (a) shall be a period shorter than five years [^{F39}if it appears to the licensing authority to be appropriate in the case of any applicant];

^{F42} 67A Interim licences.

- (1) Where on any application for an operator’s licence (a “full” licence) the applicant so requests, the licensing authority may grant to him an interim licence.
- (2) An interim licence is an operator’s licence that (subject to its revocation or other termination under any provision of this Act or another statutory provision) will continue in force until it terminates under subsection (3), (4) or (5) of this section.
- (3) If the licensing authority grants the application and issues to the applicant a full licence—
 - (a) that is in the terms applied for; or
 - (b) that is in those terms, subject only to the attachment under section 64B, 66 or 69C of this Act of any conditions that are also attached to the interim licence, the interim licence shall terminate on the date on which the full licence comes into force.
- (4) If, on an appeal arising out of the application, the Transport Tribunal orders the licensing authority to issue a full licence to the applicant, the interim licence shall terminate—
 - (a) on the date on which the full licence issued in pursuance of the order comes into force; or
 - (b) at the time at which the application is withdrawn or treated as withdrawn under section 89(3) of this Act.
- (5) If neither subsection (3) nor subsection (4) of this section applies, the interim licence shall terminate on the date on which the application is finally disposed of or such earlier date as the applicant may specify in a written request to the licensing authority.
- (6) In a case within subsection (5) of this section where the application is granted, the full licence issued to the applicant shall (notwithstanding any statement in it to the contrary) be of no effect before the interim licence terminates.
- (7) A request for the grant of an interim licence shall not for the purposes of section 63, 64, 64A, 69B, 69E, 69J or 70 of, or Schedule 8A to, this Act be treated as an application for an operator’s licence, but shall be treated as such an application for any other purposes of this Part of this Act.
- (8) The licensing authority may issue an interim licence in the same terms as those applied for in relation to the full licence or in terms that differ from those terms in any of the respects mentioned in section 64A(3) of this Act.

68 Variation of operators' licences.

- (1) [^{F43}Subject to section 69E of this Act] On the application of the holder of an operator's licence, the licensing authority by whom the licence was granted may at any time while it is in force vary the licence by directing—
- (a) that additional vehicles be specified therein, that the maximum number of trailers or of motor vehicles specified therein under paragraph (b) or (c) of section 61(1) of this Act be increased, or, if the licence does not permit the addition of authorised vehicles under the said paragraph (c), that it shall so permit and that a maximum be specified under that paragraph accordingly; or
 - (b) that vehicles specified therein be removed therefrom or that any such maximum as is mentioned in paragraph (a) of this subsection be reduced; or
 - [^{F44}(c) that an alteration or addition be made in or to any of the matters specified for the purposes of the ^{M2}Goods Vehicles (Operators Licences, Qualifications and Fees) Regulations 1984 in a standard licence as defined in Regulations 3(2) of those Regulations]
 - (d) that an alteration be made in any condition attached to the licence under section 66 of this Act or that any such condition be removed;
 - [^{F45}or
 - (e) that a restricted licence as defined in Regulation 3(2) of the said Regulations of 1984 be converted into a standard licence as defined in that Regulation, or vice versa.]
- (2) A person applying for a direction under this section shall give to the licensing authority such information as he may reasonably require for the discharge of his duties in relation to the application.
- (3) Any information or particulars to be given to a licensing authority under subsection (2) of this section shall be given in such form as the authority may require.
- (4) Except in the following cases, that is to say—
- (a) ^{F46}
 - (b) where the application is for a direction under subsection (1)(b) of this section; or
 - [^{F47}(bb) where an application is for a direction as referred to in subsection (1)(c) or (e) of this section; or]
 - (c) where the licensing authority is satisfied that the application is of so trivial a nature that it is not necessary that an opportunity should be given for objecting to it,
- the licensing authority shall publish notice of any application under this section in the manner provided for the publication of notices under subsection (1) of [^{F48}section 63 of this Act]; and where notice of the application is published in pursuance of this subsection the other provisions of the said section 63 and the provisions of section 64 of this Act shall, so far as applicable and subject to any necessary modifications, apply to that application as they apply to an application for the grant of an operator's licence of which notice is published under subsection (1) of the said section 63.
- (5) If an applicant under this section so requests, the licensing authority may, pending the determination of the application, give an interim direction under this section, that is to say, a direction expressed to continue in force only until the application, and any appeal arising out of it, have been disposed of; and a request for such a direction shall

An order under this subsection may be limited so as to apply only to the holding or obtaining of an operator’s licence in respect of the area of one or more specified licensing authorities and, if the order is so limited, paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection shall apply only to any operator’s licence to which the order applies; but, notwithstanding section 61(2)(b) of this Act, no other operator’s licence held by the person in question shall authorise the use by him of any vehicle at a time when its operating centre is in an area in respect of which he is disqualified by virtue of the order.

- (6) Where the licensing authority makes an order under subsection (5) of this section in respect of any person, the authority may direct that if that person, at any time or during such period as the authority may specify—
- (a) is a director of, or holds a controlling interest in—
 - (i) a company which holds a licence of the kind to which the order in question applies; or
 - (ii) a company of which such a company as aforesaid is a subsidiary; or
 - (b) operates any goods vehicles in partnership with a person who holds such a licence, that licence of that company, or, as the case may be, of that person, shall be liable to revocation, suspension [^{F71}, premature termination] or curtailment under this section.

- (7) The powers conferred by subsections (5) and (6) of this section in relation to the person who was the holder of a licence shall be exercisable also, where that person was a company, in relation to any director of that company, and, where that person operated the authorised vehicles in partnership with other persons, in relation to any of those other persons.

F89 69EB Power to remove operating centres on review.

- (1) If, having served notice under section 69EA of this Act in respect of a place specified in an operator's licence, the licensing authority determines that the place is unsuitable—
 - (a) on grounds other than environmental grounds; or
 - (b) on the ground mentioned in subsection (2) of this section, for use as an operating centre of the licence-holder, he may (subject to subsection (3) of this section) direct that it cease to be specified in the licence.
- (2) The ground referred to in subsection (1)(b) of this section is that the parking of vehicles used under the licence at or in the vicinity of the place causes adverse effects on environmental conditions in that vicinity.
- (3) Where the only ground for giving a direction under subsection (1) of this section is the ground mentioned in subsection (2) of this section, the authority may not give such a direction unless during the period of review in question representations were made to him—
 - (a) by a person such as is mentioned in section 63(3) of this Act; or 92 Interpretation of Part V.

- (1) In this Part of this Act. . . ^{F132}, unless the context otherwise requires—
- “articulated combination” means a combination made up of—
- (a) a motor vehicle which is so constructed that a trailer may by partial superimposition be attached to the vehicle in such a manner as to cause a substantial part of the weight of the trailer to be borne by the vehicle, and
- (b) a trailer attached to it as aforesaid:
- “authorised vehicle” means, in relation to an operator’s licence, a vehicle authorised to be used thereunder, whether or not it is for the time being in use for a purpose for which an operator’s licence is required and whether it is specified therein as so authorised or, being of a type so authorised subject to a maximum number, belongs to the holder of the licence or is in his possession under an agreement for hire-purchase, hire or loan;
- “carriage of goods” includes haulage of goods;
- “carrier’s licence” means a licence granted under Part IV of the Act of 1960;
- “contravention”, in relation to any condition or provision, includes a failure to comply with the condition or provision, and “contravenes” shall be construed accordingly;
- “driver” means, in relation to a trailer, the driver of the vehicles by which the trailer is drawn and “drive” shall be construed accordingly;
- “goods” includes goods or burden of any description;
- “goods vehicle” means, subject to subsection (5) of this section, a motor vehicle constructed or adapted for use for the carriage of goods, or a trailer so constructed or adapted;
- “large goods vehicle” shall be construed in accordance with section 71 of this Act;
- [^{F133}“operating centre”, in relation to any vehicle, means the base or centre at which the vehicle is normally kept, and references to an operating centre of the holder of an operator’s licence are references to any place which is an operating centre for authorised vehicles under the licence];
- [^{F134}“owner”, in relation to any land in England and Wales, means a person, other than a mortgagee not in possession, who, whether in his own right or as trustee for any other person, is entitled to receive the rack rent, would be so entitled if it were so let];

“prescribed” means prescribed by regulations;

“regulations” means regulations made by the Minister under this Part of this Act;

“subsidiary” means a subsidiary as defined by ^{F135}section 736 of the Companies Act 1985];

“vehicle combination” means a combination of goods vehicles made up of one or more motor vehicles and one or more trailers all of which are linked together when travelling;

and any expression not defined above which is also used in the Act of 1960 has the same meaning as in that Act.

- (2) For the purposes of this Part of this Act, the driver of a vehicle, if it belongs to him or is in his possession under an agreement for hire, hire-purchase or loan, and in any other case the person whose servant or agent the driver is, shall be deemed to be the person using the vehicle; and references to using a vehicle shall be construed accordingly.
- (3) In this Part of this Act references to directing that an operator’s licence be curtailed are references to directing (with effect for the remainder of the duration of the licence or for any shorter period) all or any of the following, that is to say—
 - (a) that any one or more of the vehicles specified in the licence be removed therefrom;
 - (b) that the maximum number of trailers or of motor vehicles specified in the licence in pursuance of section 61(1)(b) or (c) of this Act be reduced;
 - (c) that the addition of authorised vehicles under the said section 61(1)(c) be no longer permitted.
 - ^{F136}(d) that any one or more of the places specified in the licence as operating centres be removed therefrom].
- (4) In this Part of this Act, references to the bankruptcy of a person shall, as respects Scotland, be construed as references to an award of sequestration having been made of his estate.
- (5) In this Part of this Act. . . ^{F132} references to goods vehicles do not include references to tramcars or trolley vehicles operated under statutory powers within the meaning of ^{F137}Schedule 4 to the Road Traffic Act 1988].
- (6) Anything required or authorised by this Part of this Act to be done to or by a licensing authority by whom a licence. . . ^{F138} was granted may be done to or by any person for the time being acting as licensing authority for the area for which the first-mentioned authority was acting at the time of the granting of the licence. . . ^{F138}.
