[^{F4}APPEAL FROM HIGH COURT TO SUPREME COURT]

Textual Amendments

F4 Pt. 2 heading substituted (1.10.2009) by virtue of Constitutional Reform Act 2005 \(c. 4\), ss. 40(4), 148(1), Sch. 9 para. 20\(2\); S.I. 2009/1604, art. 2\(d\)

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 Pt. II applied by Taxes Management Act 1970 \(c. 9\), s. 56(8)

12 Grant of certificate by trial judge.

(1) Where on the application of any of the parties to any proceedings to which this section applies the judge is satisfied—

- (a) that the relevant conditions are fulfilled in relation to his decision in those proceedings [^{F5}or that the conditions in subsection (3A) (“the alternative conditions”) are satisfied in relation to those proceedings], and
- (b) that a sufficient case for an appeal to the [^{F6}Supreme Court] under this Part of this Act has been made out to justify an application for leave to bring such an appeal, ^{F7}...

^{F7}(c)

the judge, subject to the following provisions of this Part of this Act, may grant a certificate to that effect.

(2) This section applies to any civil proceedings in the High Court which are either—

- (a) proceedings before a single judge of the High Court [^{F8}(including a person acting as such a judge under section 3 of the ^{M1}Judicature Act 1925)], or
- (b)
- (c) proceedings before a Divisional Court.

(3) Subject to any Order in Council made under the following provisions of this section, for the purposes of this section the relevant conditions, in relation to a decision of the judge in any proceedings, are that a point of law of general public importance is involved in that decision and that that point of law either—

- (a) relates wholly or mainly to the construction of an enactment or of a statutory instrument, and has been fully argued in the proceedings and fully considered in the judgment of the judge in the proceedings, or
- (b) is one in respect of which the judge is bound by a decision of the Court of Appeal or of the [^{F6}Supreme Court] in previous proceedings, and was fully considered in the judgments given by the Court of Appeal or the [^{F6}Supreme Court] (as the case may be) in those previous proceedings.

[^{F10}(3A) The alternative conditions, in relation to a decision of the judge in any proceedings, are that a point of law of general public importance is involved in the decision and that—

- (a) the proceedings entail a decision relating to a matter of national importance or consideration of such a matter,
- (b) the result of the proceedings is so significant (whether considered on its own or together with other proceedings or likely proceedings) that, in the opinion of the judge, a hearing by the Supreme Court is justified, or

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Administration of Justice Act 1969. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the judge is satisfied that the benefits of earlier consideration by the Supreme Court outweigh the benefits of consideration by the Court of Appeal.]
- (4) Any application for a certificate under this section shall be made to the judge immediately after he gives judgment in the proceedings:
- Provided that the judge may in any particular case entertain any such application made at any later time before the end of the period of fourteen days beginning with the date on which that judgment is given or such other period as may be prescribed by rules of court.
- (5) No appeal shall lie against the grant or refusal of a certificate under this section.
- (6) Her Majesty may by Order in Council amend subsection (3) of this section by altering, deleting, or substituting one or more new paragraphs for, either or both of paragraphs (a) and (b) of that subsection, or by adding one or more further paragraphs.
- (7) Any Order in Council made under this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (8) In this Part of this Act “civil proceedings” means any proceedings other than proceedings in a criminal cause or matter, and “the judge”, in relation to any proceedings to which this section applies, means the judge . . . ^{F11} referred to in paragraph (a) . . . ^{F11} of subsection (2) of this section, or the Divisional Court referred to in paragraph (c) of that subsection, as the case may be.

13 Leave to appeal to [^{F12}Supreme Court].

- (1) Where in any proceedings the judge grants a certificate under section 12 of this Act, then, at any time within one month from the date on which that certificate is granted or such extended time as in any particular case the [^{F12}Supreme Court] may allow, any of the parties to the proceedings may make an application to the [^{F12}Supreme Court] under this section.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Administration of Justice Act 1969. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Subject to the following provisions of this section, if on such an application it appears to the [^{F13}Supreme Court] to be expedient to do so, the [^{F13}Supreme Court] may grant leave for an appeal to be brought directly to the [^{F13}Supreme Court]; and where leave is granted under this section—
 - (a) no appeal from the decision of the judge to which the certificate relates shall lie to the Court of Appeal, but
 - (b) an appeal shall lie from that decision to the [^{F13}Supreme Court].
- (3) Applications under this section shall be determined without a hearing.
- (4) ^{F14}
- (5) Without prejudice to subsection (2) of this section, no appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeal from a decision of the judge in respect of which a certificate is granted under section 12 of this Act until—
 - (a) the time within which an application can be made under this section has expired, and
 - (b) where such an application is made, that application has been determined in accordance with the preceding provisions of this section.

 - (a) in two or more offices falling within paragraphs (j) and (k) of subsection (3) of this section, or
 - (b) in one or more such offices and in one or more judicial offices remunerated out of central funds.
- (3) The offices referred to in subsections (1)(a) and (2)(a) of this section are the following, that is to say—
 - (a) Recorder of London;
 - (b) Common Serjeant;
 - (c) additional judge of the Central Criminal Court;
 - (d) recorder of Liverpool;
 - (e) recorder of Manchester;
 - (f) assistant judge of the Mayor's and City of London Court;
 - (g) presiding judge of the Court of Passage of the City of Liverpool;
 - (h) chairman or deputy chairman of a court of quarter sessions where under any enactment (whether passed before or after this Act) a person may qualify for a pension by virtue of service in that office;
 - (i) stipendiary magistrate in England or Wales, other than metropolitan stipendiary magistrate;

- (4) Subsections (2) to (5) of section 38 of this Act shall have effect in relation to rules made under this section as they have effect in relation to rules under that section, as if—
- (a) in subsection (2) of that section any reference to a public office were a reference to an office which is either an office specified in subsection (3) of this section or a judicial office remunerated out of central funds, and the reference to such supplemental and incidental provisions as are mentioned in that subsection were a reference to such supplemental and incidental provisions as appear to the Lord Chancellor or to the Secretary of State (as the case may be) to be expedient, and
 - (b) in subsections (3) and (4) of that section any reference to different public offices, or to ceasing to be employed in one public office and becoming employed in another, were a reference to different offices or (as the case may be) to ceasing to be employed in one office and becoming employed in another (“office” for this purpose being taken to mean any office which is either an office specified in subsection (3) of this section or a judicial office remunerated out of central funds).
- (5) Where any rules under this section make provision for any pension to be defrayed partly by one authority and partly by one or more other authorities, whether by way of contribution or otherwise, nothing in section 10(2) of the Criminal Justice Administration Act 1956 (which requires contributions to be paid by the city councils of Liverpool and Manchester in respect of the Crown Courts and recorders of those cities) shall be construed as preventing the rules from applying that provision to, or making any such provision specially in respect of, persons whose employment includes employment as recorder of Liverpool or recorder of Manchester.
- (6) In this section “judicial office remunerated out of central funds” means any of the following, that is to say—
- (a) any office listed in Schedule 1 to the Administration of Justice (Pensions) Act 1950, with the exception of the offices of stipendiary magistrate referred to in the last two entries in that Schedule, and
 - (b) any office in relation to which sections 2 to 8 of that Act have effect as if it were listed in that Schedule, with the exception of the offices of recorder of Liverpool and recorder of Manchester,
- and “pension” has the meaning assigned to it by section 38(6) of this Act.”
