

Coinage Act 1971

1971 CHAPTER 24

7 Standard weights for coin.

The master of the Mint shall from time to time cause copies to be made of the coinage standards (that is to say the standard weights for coins) maintained by the Secretary of State, and once at least in every year the Secretary of State and the master of the Mint shall cause the copies to be compared and duly verified with the coinage standards.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Coinage Act 1971, Section 7.