

Prevention of Oil Pollution Act 1971

1971 CHAPTER 60

General provisions for preventing oil pollution

3 Discharge of certain oils from pipe-lines or as the result of exploration etc. in designated areas.

- (1) If any oil to which section 1 of this Act applies, or any mixture containing such oil, is discharged into any part of the sea—
- from a pipe-line; or
  - (otherwise than from a ship) as the result of any operation for the exploration of the sea-bed and subsoil or the exploitation of their natural resources in a designated area, then, subject to the following provisions of this Act, the owner of the pipe-line or, as the case may be, the person carrying on the operations shall be guilty of an offence unless the discharge was from a place in his occupation and he proves that it was due to the act of a person who was there without his permission (express or implied).

- (2) In this section “designated area” means an area for the time being designated by an Order made under section 1 of the <sup>M1</sup>Continental Shelf Act 1964.
- (3) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable [<sup>F1</sup>on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £50,000 or on conviction on indictment to a fine][<sup>F1</sup>on summary conviction, or on conviction on indictment, to a fine].
