[^{F23}67 Consequential and transitional arrangements relating to Part IV.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations of general application make such incidental, consequential, transitional or supplementary provision as may appear to him to be necessary or proper for the purposes or in consequence of orders under this Part of this Act or for giving full effect thereto; and nothing in any other provision of this Act shall be construed as prejudicing the generality of this subsection.
- (2) Regulations under this section may in particular include, in addition to any provision made by virtue of section 255 below, provision of general application with respect to—
 - (a) the transfer and management or custody of property (whether real or personal) and the transfer of rights and liabilities;
 - (b) the functions or areas of jurisdiction of any public body, [^{F24}justice of the peace other than a District Judge (Magistrates' Courts),] coroner, custos rotulorum, lord-lieutenant, lieutenant, high sheriff and other officers (including police officers) [^{F25}, and the functions of any District Judge (Magistrates' Courts),]within any area affected by any such order, and the costs and expenses of such public bodies and persons as aforesaid;
 - (c) the transfer of legal proceedings;

and may apply, with or without modifications, or extend, exclude or amend, or repeal or revoke, with or without savings, any provision of an Act, an instrument made under an Act or a charter.

- (3) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (4) An order under this Part of this Act may include the like provision in relation to the order as may be made by regulations of general application under this section by virtue of subsections (1) and (2) above; and nothing in any other provision of this Act shall be construed as prejudicing the generality of this subsection.
- (5) Any such order may also include provision with respect to—
 - (a) the name of any altered area;
 - (b) the constitution [F26 , election and membership] of public bodies in any area affected by the order;
 - [^{F27}(c) the total number of councillors, the apportionment of councillors among electoral areas, the assignment of existing councillors to new or altered electoral areas and the first election of councillors for any new or altered electoral area;]
 - (d) without prejudice to paragraph (c) above, the holding of a fresh election of councillors for all electoral areas in the local government area in question in a case where substantial changes have been made to some of those areas;
 - (e) without prejudice to paragraph (c) above, the order of retirement of councillors for any such electoral area;
 - ^{F28}(f)
 - (g) the abolition or establishment, or the restriction or extension, of the jurisdiction of any public body in or over any part of the area affected by the order.
- [^{F29}(5A) Without prejudice to subsection (5), an order under section 58 which makes provision altering any police areas may make provision as to who is to be a police and crime commissioner, including—

- (a) provision for the police and crime commissioner for a police area affected by the order to become the police and crime commissioner for a police area resulting from the order;
- (b) provision for the holding of an election for the police and crime commissioner for any police area resulting from the order.
- (5B) Such an order which includes provision within subsection (5A)(b) may, in particular, require the election in question to be held before the alteration of police areas takes effect.]

[^{F31}68 Transitional agreements as to property and finance.

- (1) Any public bodies affected by the alteration, abolition or constitution of any area by an order under this Part of this Act [^{F32}or by an order under section 162 of the Local Government (Wales) Measure 2011] may from time to time make agreements with respect to any property, income, rights, liabilities and expenses (so far as affected by the alteration, abolition or constitution) of, and any financial relations between, the parties to the agreement.
- (2) The agreement may provide—
 - (a) for the transfer or retention of any property, rights and liabilities, with or without conditions, and for the joint use of any property;
 - (b) for the making of payments by either party to the agreement in respect of property, rights and liabilities so transferred or retained, or of such joint use, and in respect of the remuneration or compensation payable to any person; and
 - (c) for the making of any such payment either by way of a capital sum or of a terminable annuity.
- (3) In default of agreement as to any matter, the matter shall be referred to the arbitration of a single arbitrator agreed on by the parties, or in default of agreement appointed by the Secretary of State, and the award of the arbitrator may provide for any matter for which an agreement under this section might have provided.

- (4) Any sum required to be paid by a public body in pursuance of an agreement or award under this section may be paid out of such fund or rate as may be specified in the agreement or award, or if no fund or rate was specified, either out of the fund or rate from which the general expenses of the public body are defrayed, or out of such fund or rate as the public body may direct.
- (5) For the purposes of paying any capital sum required to be paid by a public body in pursuance of any such agreement or award—
 - (a) a local authority may borrow without the approval of the Secretary of State, but so that the sum borrowed shall be repaid within such period as the authority with the consent of the Secretary of State may determine;
 - (b) any other public body having power under any enactment or any instrument made under any Act to borrow may borrow under that enactment or instrument; and
 - (c) a public body having no power under any enactment or any such instrument to borrow may be empowered by an order made by the Secretary of State to borrow in such manner and in accordance with such conditions as may be provided by the order.
- - (8) Any agreement or award under this section which relates to the profits of local taxation licences shall, so far as it so relates, be carried out in accordance with regulations made by the Secretary of State.
 - (9) Subsection (8) above shall apply to—
 - (a) an adjustment made under section 151 of the 1933 Act, whether as originally enacted or as applied by any other enactment or any instrument made under any Act; and
 - (b) an adjustment made under section 32 or 62 of the ^{M1}Local Government Act 1888, whether as originally enacted or as so applied, and consequent on an alteration of areas effected after 31st March 1930;

as it applies in relation to an agreement or award under this section.]

[^{F34}69 Variation and revocation of orders under Part IV, etc.

(1) The power conferred by section 266 below to vary and revoke orders under this Act shall, in the case of orders under this Part of this Act, apply only in relation to any supplementary provision contained in any such order, and an order varying or revoking any such provision shall only be made after compliance with subsections (2) and (3) below.

- (2) The Secretary of State or [^{F35}Welsh principal] council proposing to make any such varying or revoking order shall prepare a draft of the order, shall send copies of the draft to such local or public authorities as appear to him or them to be concerned, and shall give public notice, in such manner as appears to him or them sufficient for informing persons likely to be concerned, that the draft has been prepared, that a copy of the draft is available for inspection at a place specified in the notice and that representations with respect to the draft may be made to him or them within two months of the publication of the notice.
- (3) The Secretary of State or [^{F35}Welsh principal] council shall consider any representations duly made with respect to the draft and may, if he or they think fit, make an order either in the form of the draft or subject to modifications.
- (4) The Secretary of State or a [^{F36}Welsh principal] council may cause a local inquiry to be held with respect to the draft and section 250(2), (3) and (5) below shall apply in relation to an inquiry held under this subsection by a ^{F37}... council with the substitution for references to a Minister of references to the council.
- (5) Any supplementary provision contained in an order made by a Minister of the Crown under any of the following enactments (being enactments making provision corresponding to some or all of the foregoing provisions of this Part of this Act), that is to say—
 - (a) section 46 of the ^{M2}Local Government Act 1929;
 - (b) Part VI of the 1933 Act;
 - (c) Part II of the ^{M3}Local Government Act 1958;
 - (d) section 6 of the 1963 Act;
 - (e) any enactment repealed by the 1933 Act and corresponding to any enactment in the said Part VI;

may be varied or revoked by an order made by the Secretary of State, and subsections (2) to (4) above shall apply in relation to any such order as they apply in relation to orders varying or revoking orders under this Part of this Act.

- (6) Any supplementary provision contained in an order made under any of the enactments mentioned in subsection (5) above by [^{F38}any predecessor of a Welsh principal council] may be varied or revoked in relation to any [^{F39}Welsh principal area] to which or part of which that provision relates by an order made by the council of [^{F40}that area], and subsections (2) to (4) above shall apply with all necessary modifications in relation to any such order as they apply in relation to orders varying or revoking orders under this Part of this Act.
- (7) In this section "supplementary provision" means any such provision as could be made by an order under this Part of this Act by virtue of section 67 above or section 255 below.]

- (1) Subject to subsection (3) below, every accretion from the sea, whether natural or artificial, and any part of the sea-shore to the low water-mark, which does not immediately before the passing of this Act form part of a parish shall be annexed to and incorporated with—
 - (a) in England, the parish or parishes which the accretion or part of the sea-shore adjoins, and in proportion to the extent of the common boundary.
 - ^{F57}(b)

- (2) Every accretion from the sea or part of the sea-shore which is annexed to and incorporated with a parish ^{F58}... under this section shall be annexed to and incorporated with the district and county in which that parish ^{F58}... is situated.
- ^{F59}(2A)....
 - (3) In England, in so far as the whole or part of any such accretion from the sea or part of the sea-shore as is mentioned in subsection (1) above does not adjoin a parish, it shall be annexed to and incorporated with the district which it adjoins or, if it adjoins more than one district, with those districts in proportion to the extent of the common boundary; and every such accretion or part of the sea-shore which is annexed to and incorporated with a district under this section shall be annexed to and incorporated with the county in which that district is situated.
