

Local Government Act 1972

1972 CHAPTER 70

PART VI

DISCHARGE OF FUNCTIONS

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Pt. VI (ss. 101-110): power conferred to make provisions about matters of the kind dealt with in this part (1.9.1997) by 1997 c. 50, s. 44(1), Sch. 4(a)(iv); S.I. 1997/1930, art. 2(1)(2)(m)

101 Arrangements for discharge of functions by local authorities.

- (1) Subject to any express provision contained in this Act or any Act passed after this Act, a local authority may arrange for the discharge of any of their functions—
 - (a) by a committee, a sub-committee or an officer of the authority; or
 - (b) by any other local authority.
- (2) Where by virtue of this section any functions of a local authority may be discharged by a committee of theirs, then, unless the local authority otherwise direct, the committee may arrange for the discharge of any of those functions by a sub-committee or an officer of the authority and where by virtue of this section any functions of a local authority may be discharged by a sub-committee of the authority, then, unless the local authority or the committee otherwise direct, the sub-committee may arrange for the discharge of any of those functions by an officer of the authority.
- (3) Where arrangements are in force under this section for the discharge of any functions of a local authority by another local authority, then, subject to the terms of the arrangements, that other authority may arrange for the discharge of those functions by a committee, sub-committee or officer of theirs and subsection (2) above shall apply in relation to those functions as it applies in relation to the functions of that other authority.
- (4) Any arrangements made by a local authority or committee under this section for the discharge of any functions by a committee, sub-committee, officer or local authority

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/1994.

Changes to legislation: Local Government Act 1972, Part VI is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 19 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) shall not prevent the authority or committee by whom the arrangements are made from exercising those functions.

- (5) Two or more local authorities may discharge any of their functions jointly and, where arrangements are in force for them to do so,—
 - (a) they may also arrange for the discharge of those functions by a joint committee of theirs or by an officer of one of them and subsection (2) above shall apply in relation to those functions as it applies in relation to the functions of the individual authorities; and
 - (b) any enactment relating to those functions or the authorities by whom or the areas in respect of which they are to be discharged shall have effect subject to all necessary modifications in its application in relation to those functions and the authorities by whom and the areas in respect of which (whether in pursuance of the arrangements or otherwise) they are to be discharged.
- (6) A local authority’s functions with respect to levying, or issuing a precept for, a rate . . . ^{F1} shall be discharged only by the authority.
- (7) A local authority shall not make arrangements under this section for the discharge of any of their functions under the ^{M1}Diseases of Animals Act 1950 by any other local authority.
- (8) Any enactment, except one mentioned in subsection (9) below, which contains any provision—
 - (a) which empowers or requires local authorities or any class of local authorities to establish committees (including joint committees) for any purpose or enables a Minister to make an instrument establishing committees of local authorities for any purpose or empowering or requiring a local authority or any class of local authorities to establish committees for any purpose; or
 - (b) which empowers or requires local authorities or any class of local authorities to arrange or to join with other authorities in arranging for the exercise by committees so established or by officers of theirs of any of their functions, or provides that any specified functions of theirs shall be discharged by such committees or officers, or enables any Minister to make an instrument conferring such a power, imposing such a requirement or containing such a provision; shall, to the extent that it makes any such provision, cease to have effect.

- (9) The following enactments, that is to say—
 - ^{F2}(a)
 - (b) ^{F3}
 - (c) sections 2 and 3 of the ^{M2}Police Act 1964 (police committees);
 - (d) section 1 of the ^{M3}Sea Fisheries Regulation Act 1966;
 - (e) ^{F4}
 - (f) section 2 of the ^{M4}Local Authority Social Services Act 1970 (social services committees);
 - (g) ^{F5}
 - (h) Part I of Schedule 17 to this Act;
 are exempted from subsection (8) above.

- (10) This section shall not authorise a local authority to arrange for the discharge by any committee, sub-committee or local authority of any functions which by any enactment

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/1994.

Changes to legislation: Local Government Act 1972, Part VI is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 19 April 2024. mentioned in subsection (9) above are required or authorised to be discharged by a specified committee, but the foregoing provision shall not prevent a local authority who are required by or under any such enactment to establish, or delegate functions to, a committee established by or under any such enactment from arranging under this section for the discharge of their functions by an officer of the local authority or committee, as the case may be.

- (11) F6
- (12) References in this section and section 102 below to the discharge of any of the functions of a local authority include references to the doing of anything which is calculated to facilitate, or is conducive or incidental to, the discharge of any of those functions.
- (13) In this Part of this Act “local authority” includes the Common Council, the Sub-Treasurer of the Inner Temple, the Under Treasurer of the Middle Temple, [F7 any joint authority except a police authority, . . . F8] a joint board on which a local authority within the meaning of this Act or any of the foregoing authorities are represented and, without prejudice to the foregoing, any port health authority.
- (14) Nothing in this section affects the operation of section 5 of the 1963 Act or the M5 Local Authorities (Goods and Services) Act 1970.

107 Application of foregoing provisions to police authorities.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section—
- (a) sections 101 to 103 and 106 above shall apply to a police authority other than the Secretary of State as they apply to a local authority;
 - (b) sections 104 and 105 above shall apply both to a police authority and a committee of any such authority or authorities as they apply to a committee of a local authority or authorities;
- and in their application to the Common Council as police authority those sections shall have effect subject to those provisions.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/1994.

- (2) A police authority may not arrange for the discharge of their functions by another police authority, and section 101(1)(b) and (3) above shall not apply to a police authority.
- (3) The officers who may discharge the functions of a police authority in pursuance of arrangements under section 101(1), (2) or (5) above shall include the chief officer of police, his deputy while performing his duties and any civilian officer employed for the purposes of the police authority or one of the police authorities.
- (4) A police authority may not arrange under section 101 above for the discharge of their functions by a committee or officer as respects part only of their area.
- (5) Section 101(10) above shall not apply to a police authority.
- (6) Any committee appointed under section 102 above for discharging the functions of one or more police authorities (including any sub-committee) shall consist only of members of the appointing authority or authorities and section 102(3) above shall not apply to committees of police authorities.
- (7) Section 103 above, in its application to a joint committee of police authorities, shall have effect as if for paragraphs (a) and (b) there were substituted the words “by the Secretary of State”.
- (8) A person shall not be disqualified by virtue of section 104 above for being a member of a police authority or the committee (or any sub-committee) of any such authority or authorities by virtue of his holding any office or employment, except employment for the purposes of the police authority or one of the police authorities.
- (9) Section 106 above shall not authorise any county council to make standing orders with respect to the quorum, proceedings or place of meeting of a police authority.
- (10) For the purposes of this section the following persons shall be treated as employed for the purposes of a police authority, that is to say—
 - (a) any person employed under section 10 of the ^{M7}Police Act 1964 for police purposes of the police authority’s area; and also
 - (b) in the case of a combined police authority, any person whose services are made available for the use of that authority in pursuance of section 4(5) of that Act.
