55 (1) [^{F6}In England, elsewhere] than in Greater London [^{F7}, a metropolitan county] or a National Park the functions of a local planning authority of determining applications and issuing certificates under section 17 of the ^{M3}Land Compensation Act 1961 shall—

- (a) in the case of an application specifying only a [^{F8}description] of development which appears, or [^{F9}descriptions] of development each of which appear, to the district planning authority to relate to a county matter, be exercised by the county planning authority;
- (b) in any other case, be exercised by the district planning authority.

^{F10}(2)

(3) Every application mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) above shall be made to the district planning authority who, in the case of an application falling to be determined by the county planning authority, shall send it on to the latter.

(4) A county planning authority determining any such application shall consult with the district planning authority on the question whether planning permission for development of any [^{F11}description] which appears to the former not to relate to a county matter [^{F12}would have been granted if the land in question were not proposed to be acquired by any authority possessing compulsory purchase powers.]

(5) A district planning authority determining any such application shall consult with the county planning authority on the question whether planning permission for development of any [^{F11}description] which appears to the former to relate to a county matter [^{F12}would have been granted if the land in question were not proposed to be acquired by any authority possessing compulsory purchase powers.]
