

Bahamas Independence Act 1973

1973 CHAPTER 27

1 Fully responsible status of Bahamas.

- (1) On and after 10th July 1973 (in this Act referred to as “the appointed day”) Her Majesty’s Government in the United Kingdom shall have no responsibility for the government of the Bahamas.
- (2) No Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom passed on or after the appointed day shall extend, or be deemed to extend, to the Bahamas as part of their law; and on and after that day the provisions of Schedule 1 to this Act shall have effect with respect to the legislative powers of the Bahamas.

2 Consequential modifications of British Nationality Acts.

- (1) F1
- (2) F2
- (3) Except as provided by section 3 of this Act, any person who immediately before the appointed day—
 - (a) is a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies by virtue of a certificate of naturalisation granted or registration effected by the Governor or Government of the Bahamas; and
 - (b) is also a citizen or national of another country,shall on that day cease to be a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies whether or not he becomes on that day a citizen of the Bahamas.
- (4) Except as provided by section 3 of this Act and without prejudice to subsection (3) of this section, any person who—
 - (a) immediately before the appointed day is a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies by virtue of any such certificate or registration as is mentioned in subsection (3)(a) of this section; and
 - (b) after that day becomes a citizen of the Bahamas under any such provisions as are mentioned in subsection (5) of this section,

3 Retention of citizenship of United Kingdom and Colonies by certain persons connected with the Bahamas.

- (1) Subject to subsection (5) of this section, a person shall not cease to be a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies under section 2 of this Act if he, his father or his father's father—
- was born in the United Kingdom or in a colony ^{F3} . . . ; or
 - is or was a person naturalised in the United Kingdom and Colonies; or
 - was registered as a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies; or
 - became a British subject by reason of the annexation of any territory included in a colony.
- (2) A person shall not cease to be a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies under the said section 2 if either—
- he was born in a protectorate or protected state; or
 - his father or his father's father was so born and is or at any time was a British subject.
- (3) A woman who immediately before the appointed day is the wife of a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies—

- (a) shall not cease to be such a citizen under the said section 2 unless her husband either does so at the same time or has already done so; and
 - (b) if she would, apart from paragraph (a) of this subsection, have ceased to be such a citizen under that section at any time and her husband subsequently ceases to be such a citizen under that section, she shall cease to be such a citizen when her husband does so.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5) of this section, the reference in subsection (1)(b) of this section to a person naturalised in the United Kingdom and Colonies shall include a reference to a person who would, if living immediately before the commencement of the ^{M4}British Nationality Act 1948, have become a person naturalised in the United Kingdom and Colonies by virtue of section 32(6) of that Act.
- (5) In this section—
- (a) references to a colony shall be construed as not including references to any territory which, on the appointed day, is not a colony for the purposes of the ^{M5}British Nationality Act 1948 as that Act has effect on that day, and accordingly do not include references to the Bahamas, and
 - (b) references to a protectorate or protected state shall be construed as not including references to any territory which, on the appointed day, is not a protectorate or a protected state (as the case may be) for the purposes of that Act as it has effect on that day;

and subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to a person by virtue of any certificate of naturalisation granted or registration effected by the Governor or Government of a territory which by virtue of this subsection is excluded from references in this section to a colony, protectorate or protected state.
