- (1) The Secretary of State may conduct experiments as to the effectiveness, safety and acceptability to the public of the construction in or on the surface of highways of artificial humps or depressions (in this section referred to as "road humps") designed to control the speed of vehicles, and for this purpose he may, subject to the following provisions of this section, construct, maintain and remove road humps in any highway maintainable at the public expense, within the meaning of the ^{M2}Highways Act 1959.
- (2) Except with the consent of the highway authority, the Secretary of State shall not construct a road hump in a highway for which he is not the highway authority, and where a road hump has been constructed in such a highway in accordance with this section—
 - (a) neither the highway authority nor any other authority having power to maintain that highway shall remove or otherwise interfere with the road hump without the consent of the Secretary of State; and
 - (b) any obligation imposed on any other person having power to break open that highway to make good any damage to it or otherwise to reinstate it shall include an obligation to make good any damage to, or otherwise reinstate, the road hump.
- (3) In any case where the Secretary of State proposes to construct a road hump in a highway under this section, he shall—
 - (a) publish in one or more local newspapers circulating in the area in which the highway concerned is situated, and
 - (b) place at appropriate points on that highway, a notice of his proposal, stating the nature, dimensions and proposed location of the road hump, the address to which objections to his proposals may be sent and the period, which shall be not less than 21 days beginning with the date on which the notice is first published in accordance with paragraph (a) above, within which any such objections may be so sent.
- (4) The Secretary of State shall consider any objections sent to him in accordance with a notice under subsection (3) above and, if he thinks fit, may cause a local inquiry to be held; and section 279 of the Highways Act 1959 (provisions as to inquiries) shall have effect in relation to an inquiry caused to be held under this subsection as it has effect in relation to an inquiry caused to be held under that section.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

- (5) A road hump constructed in a highway in accordance with this section shall be removed not later than the expiry of the period of one year beginning with the day on which its construction began.
- (6) The power of the Secretary of State under subsection (1) above to construct, maintain and remove road humps in a highway includes power—
- (a) to exercise the powers of a highway authority in relation to the placing, maintenance and removal of any traffic sign, within the meaning of [^{F5}the ^{M3}Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984], relating to a road hump in a highway for which he is not the highway authority, and
 - (b) to carry out any works ancillary to or consequential on the construction, maintenance or removal of a road hump or the exercise of any power conferred on him by paragraph (a) above,
- and the Secretary of State and a local highway authority may enter into an agreement for the carrying out by the local highway authority of any works (including works of maintenance) which the Secretary of State is empowered to carry out in relation to a road hump which he is authorised to construct or has constructed in accordance with this section (whether in a highway for which he is the highway authority or otherwise).
- (7) In relation to a road hump in a highway for which the Secretary of State is not the highway authority—
- (a) the highway authority for that highway, and
 - (b) any other authority having power to maintain that highway,
- may pay to the Secretary of State a contribution equal to the whole or any part of the expenditure incurred by him in connection with the construction, maintenance or removal of the hump or in the exercise of any other power relating to it.
- (8) Any road hump constructed in a highway in the exercise of the Secretary of State's powers under this section shall be so constructed and maintained that—
- (a) it does not raise the surface of the highway by more than 5 inches above, or lower that surface by more than 2 inches below, the surface of the highway on either side of the hump; and
 - (b) it is of such a shape that no damage is likely to be caused to the tyres of a vehicle passing over the hump.
- (9) If and so long as a road hump is constructed and maintained in a highway in accordance with this section and the presence of the hump is indicated by a traffic sign of a type prescribed or character authorised under [^{F6}section 64 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984]—
- (a) the road hump shall be treated as not constituting an obstruction to the highway; and
 - (b) the highway authority shall not be treated as being in breach of their duty to maintain the highway by reason only of the presence of the road hump.]

the purposes of this subsection an application shall be taken to be disposed of,—

- (a) if the licensing authority is required, by virtue of regulations under section 91 of this Act, to cause a statement containing his decision on the application to be issued, on the date on which that statement is issued, and
- (b) in any other case, on the date on which the applicant receives notice from the licensing authority of his decision on the application.

(4B) A person who knowingly fails to comply with subsection (4A) of this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £200, and section 180 of the Road Traffic Act 1972 (time for bringing summary proceedings for certain offences) shall apply in relation to an offence under this subsection as it applies in relation to the offences under that Act to which it is applied by virtue of Schedule 4 to that Act.”

2 In section 64(2) (requirements to be satisfied on an application for an operator's licence)—

- (a) at the end of paragraph (a) there shall be added the words “and to any conviction required to be notified in accordance with section 62(4A) thereof”,
- (b) at the end of paragraph (d) there shall be added the words “and that the place which is to be the operating centre for those vehicles is suitable for that purpose”, and
- (c) in paragraph (e), after the word “subsection” there shall be inserted the words “and of a suitable operating centre”.

3 (1) In section 67 (duration of operators' licences and grant of interim licences) in subsection (2) (determination of expiry date of operators' licences) after the words “unless previously revoked” there shall be inserted the words “or prematurely terminated under section 69 of this Act.”

(2) In subsection (3)(a) of that section (power of licensing authorities to direct that, in certain specified cases, the period relevant to the duration of an operator's licence shall be less than five years) for paragraphs (i) and (ii) there shall be substituted the words “if it appears to the licensing authority to be appropriate in the case of any applicant”.

(3) In subsection (5) of that section (interim licences) after the words “63 or” there shall be inserted the words “subsections (1) to (3) of section” and after the words “application for an operator's licence” there shall be inserted the words “but shall be so treated for the purposes of section 64(4) of this Act”.

4 (1) In section 69 (revocation, suspension and curtailment of operators' licences), in subsection (1) after the word “suspended” there shall be inserted the words “terminated on a date earlier than that on which it would otherwise expire under section 67 of this Act” and in paragraph (f) of that subsection after the word “suspension” there shall be inserted the words “premature termination”.
